(By Associated Press to Cooz Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, May 13.—New York's belief that the nation should prepare for war was expressed today by nearly 45,000 men and women marching in one of the greatest processions ever assembled for the promotion of an idea.

Lasts Twelve Hours Twenty abreast, filling the street from curb to curb keeping in step to the patriotic tunes of two hundred bands the parade that began this morning will last for twelve hours or longer. Sixty thousand were unable to get into the parade.

Opposes the Parade. It is estimated that a million people saw the parade. Anti-patriotism is being shown by the Women's Peace Party, endeavoring to offset the pro-war spirit by scattering circulars and a banner stretched across Fifth avenue with the inscription: "There are only 100,000 of you. You are not the only patriots. Two million five hundred thousand minor workers and members of organized labor of America are opposed to what you and Wall Street are marching for. Are you sure you are right?"

C. R. SMITH IS DEAD

BIG LOCAL TIMBER OWNER HAS PASSED AWAY

Death Occurred Last Night in New York City—Head Menasha Woodware and Southern Oregon Co.

C. R. Smith, head of the Menasha Woodware Company, of Menasha, Wisconsin, and of the Southern Oregon Company, and a multi-millionaire, died last night in his New York home. Word of this was received in a wire to Herbert Armstrong, of North Bend, local manager and representative of the companies.

The deceased, whose Cooz county holdings are very extensive, was a close personal friend of President Woodrow Wilson. They were classmates at Princeton University. Though Mr. Smith was a Republican, he contributed heavily toward the campaign of the President.

Received Bad Injury Three months ago, while on his way West, Mr. Smith received a severe injury to his head in a Pullman car, not far from Spokane. Later he became better and went East to his home in New York City. Some of the doctors believed that a blood clot was formed on his brain as a result of the accident.

Was Persistent Worker He was about 64 years of age and a native of Wisconsin. At 25 he graduated from Princeton to find the Menasha Woodware Company, founded by his father, in the hands of receivers. The two men went to together and gradually worked out, putting the company on a sound financial basis.

Those Surviving The deceased had married a second time and his wife now survives him. Two sons, Morey and Carlton, aged 25 and 24 years, in three weeks were to have graduated from Princeton University. The one daughter, Miss Sylvia Smith, is a student at Smith College.

Expected to Visit Soon Only last week Mr. Smith sent a letter to Herbert Armstrong, telling him he expected to visit here summer. He was here during the North Bend bridge carnival. It is remembered of his seeing his first auto race.

Not Affect Business Affairs It is said on good authority that the death of Mr. Smith will not affect any of his Washington, Idaho and Oregon holdings, as it is stated for some time his business affairs have all been arranged for just such a contingency. The completion of the recently announced sale of the Menasha Woodware holdings on South Cooz River, will be made as though nothing had occurred.

Had Large Holdings C. R. Smith owned large holdings in Cooz County. He had the major interest in the Southern Oregon Co. and the Menasha Woodware Company. The former company he bought from the late Elijah Smith. The Southern Oregon holdings consist of about 82,000 acres of timber, the old mill at Empire, a good deal of the real estate in that town, residence property in Marshfield and farm land around Cooz Bay.

The Menasha Woodware Company formerly owned 23,000 acres, but recently a portion of these holdings were sold and the company now has about 18,000 acres.

ARMY BILL IS NOW DECIDED

Regular Force of 206,000 Men in Time of Peace Is Provided For

REACH AGREEMENT

House and Senate Conferees Finally Determine Upon Defense Measure

WAR FOOTING 250,000 MEN

Provision to Have Five National Guard Officers on General Staff Is Stricken Out—Accept Plan for Government Operation

(By Associated Press to Cooz Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—A regular army of 206,000 men a peace strength, capable of expansion to 254,000 in time of war was agreed upon today by the house and senate conferees on the army reorganization bill, the first big national defense measure. The report will be submitted to both branches of Congress for ratification next week.

Retain Senate System In the agreement on the regular army, the senate bill system of organization was retained as a substitute for the house system, which would have recruited a maximum army of 144,000.

Minimum Is 160,000 The regular line of the army, the bill now provides, can never go below 160,000 men and the maximum strength in times of peace would be 175,000 officers and men.

In this calculation, however, there are not counted such forces as the Philippine scouts, which would give a peace strength of 206,659.

Can Increase Army The president is authorized to increase the regular army divisions to a maximum strength without congressional action. The provision of the senate bill which would have placed five officers of the national guard in the general staff was stricken out. The house proposed for government operation of nitrate plants to cost not more than $29,000,000 was accepted.

Volunteer Reserve Army of 261,000 men as provided in the senate bill goes out, leaving the reserve army to the national guard, which will be federalized.
