MONEY TALKS

GO UNDER ONE ROOF IN NEW BUSINESS

THE TWO HUB STORES WILL BE COMBINED

Management Decides to Concentrate All Forces in Central Avenue Location

The Hub Clothing and Shoe Co. after seven years of business in the Front Street location has decided to concentrate all their forces under one roof and will consolidate the Clothing and Shoe Store in the next room adjoining the Dry Goods Company on Central Avenue. This move has been made with a two fold object, that of having a complete stock for man, woman and child, all under one roof, which in itself is a great convenience to the trading public.

Second: The new store is so equipped that it can handle to better advantage than the original store, which has grown so steadily that it has become unwieldy to handle all of its trade in a proper manner.

In the new store the accommodations and arrangements are so much more practical that the service which the Hug has always rendered will be even more perfect than heretofore. The new move is conceded by everyone to be a great advantage to both the Hub and its patrons.

THE LOGICAL MAN

J. T. HARRIGAN TAXPAYERS CANDIDATE

Editor Coos Bay Times:—As a property owner and taxpayer I am interested in the careful and economical administration of county affairs. I have read the charges pro and con of the two republican candidates. After consideration of the matter it seems to me that there can be no two sides to the question. Archie Philip's name does not appear on the tax rolls and the best that his friends can do is to claim he is paying under other people's names. J. T. Harrigan needs no such defense and no such apology. His name appears as a taxpayer. He is a large property owner. He is a successful business man. He is interested in the economical management of county affairs and in saving the taxpayers money for by so doing he will protect his own interests and in protecting his interests will protect the interests of every taxpayer in Coos County.

The duty of every republican is plain. He should go to the polls on Friday and cast his vote for J. T. Harrigan as the republican candidate for county commissioner.

—ANOTHER TAXPAYER

NO LABOR MEETING

ANDREW LANDLE'S CALLS OF "LABOR UNION CONVENTION"

Because of Opposition of Longshoremen Who Claimed Move Was Political One

There will be no "Labor Union Convention" in the endorsement of candidates, either in the Longshoreman's hall or any other hall this evening. This announcement was made by Andrew Landles, signing as chairman, S. P. Backman, carpenter; Ben Platt, musician; J. C. Chambers, plumber.

In a signed statement the men said that the meeting is called off owing to the "internal dissension in the labor ranks and dissatisfaction among the longshoremen." They make denial there was any move to "railroad" through support of the laboring men for certain candidates.

Landles said, "It was to have been only for the endorsing of a ticket most acceptable to the laboring men."

Had Different Idea

But this was not at all the idea of the Longshoremen for at their meeting on Monday they had declared "fait accompli" their hall could be used for no such purpose and furthermore that without their assistance there could be no "Labor Union Convention" inasmuch as they are the backbone of the unions on the bay.

What They Say

Said Ed Lund and "Scotty" McCallum, of the Longshoreman's Union, today, "If we had been given a chance to look up records without having this sprung on us at the last minute, we might have been willing to endorse certain candidates. But we knew nothing about it until the meeting was advertised. It was to have been so close to the election there would have been no chance to dispute the evidence brought forth, and which has been a long time collecting."

WATERFRONT NEWS

Between seven and eight this morning the Tramp entered Sunset Bay with a scow load of lumber from Coos Bay.

The Kilburn from the north and the Breakwater from the south will both be in here on Saturday.

At 1 p. m. the steam schooner Yellowstone left down for San Francisco from North Bend.

The Adeline sailed at eight last evening for Oakland.

Tomorrow the Tillamook is due in here from Portland with a good sized shipment of freight.

BEAVERTON — The rural mail carriers of Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties met and elected W. F. Smith of Oregon City as president.

GAINED INDEPENDENCE 102 YEARS AGO

Old Countrymen On Coos Bay Hold Fitting Exercises This Evening in Moose Hall

May 17 is an anniversary as important to the people of Norway and of the same significance as the Fourth of July is to Americans. It is their day of Independence. Today marks the 102nd anniversary of their separation from Denmark and the forming of a free and independent state.

In many Norwegian homes on Coos Bay the event is today being celebrated. In the Moose Hall at eight o'clock this evening will be a meeting of the Sons of Norway to hold forth in Jollification and to pay fitting tribute to the heroes of their country.

On May 17, 1814 Norway drew away from Denmark and drew up its own constitution. The country united with Sweden, retaining, however, its own independence. Several years ago Norway withdrew to itself, severing all connections with Sweden.

The program of this evening will start at eight o'clock. L. Oxnevad will give the address of welcome and Evelyn Johnson will sing. Reidar Bugge will talk, there will be songs by the "Scandia Sangkor" and L. A. Liljeqvist, in English, will give an address on "The Scandinavians in the United States."

Also Mrs. Olga Hendrickson Bugge will give several readings, a piano solo by Mrs. Pederson, songs by the quartet, this to be followed by refreshments.

MANY AT FUNERAL

Many old friends and relatives of Charles H. Coddling were present at his funeral this afternoon from the Wilson Undertaking parlors. The body arrived here on Monday from California aboard the Adeline. The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. Robert Browning.

SAIL ON ADELIN

Aboard the Adeline when she sailed last evening were: Eric Carlos, James Matos, J. C. Wilcox, V. C. Gorst, Lloyd Cornwall, Sam Pompoine, wife and Edmond Jomponi, J. White, A. Lollas, Peter Farini, Reed Patterson, Fred Bahne and J. W. Godfrey.

SECRETARY SMITH OF C. OF C. RECEIVES ENCOURAGING NEWS

Learns From Private Sources That Terminal Rate May Be Given on Outgoing Freight

Secretary Smith of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce states that he has information from reliable private sources to the effect that Coos Bay is quite likely to get terminal rates on outgoing shipments.

This matter was taken up some ago by the Chambers of Commerce of both cities and brought before the interstate commerce commission and the Southern Pacific.

TAKES SIMPSON HOUSE

Henry Buehner and Melvin Brix Take Residence

Henry Buehner has rented the L. J. Simpson residence at Old Town and he and Melvin Brix, the manager of the mill, and their families will reside in the house. Mr. Simpson some time ago moved to Shoreacres to make his home.

George R. Saylor of the Buehner firm, has purchased the Roy Wernich residence in North Bend.

MILL CLOSES TODAY

The Buehner Lumber Company mill at Porter was closed today on account of so much lumber being piled on the dock that there was not room for more. It will start again as soon as some of the lumber is loaded on vessels.

NEED MORE MUSIC

Engineer Zachary, of the bridge builders on the Umpqua, came down last evening to attend the meeting of the Masonic lodge in North Bend. This morning he went back, taking with him a "talking machine" for the boys at the camp.

HAVE RETURNED

After visiting for a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Platt, of North Bend, the Rev. Davis and wife left this morning to their home in Oak this morning, returning to their home in Oakland.

BALL GAME SUNDAY

The Knights of the Grip and the fraternity boys will play a game of baseball Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the North Bend grounds.

STAGE STATION SOLD

ROSEBURG, May 17.—The Ohlala stage station, which was for years a stopping place for stages operating between Roseburg and Marshfield, was sold today to C. N. Dudley, of Arizona. The ranch formerly was owned by J. O. Newland, of this city. It contains 127 acres adapted to general farming and stock raising.

EUGENE, Ore., May 17.—"Uncle" Robert Campbell, one of the best known early pioneer farmers of Lane county died at his home a short distance northwest of Springfield. He had lived for 65 years on one place—the farm upon which he located when the first came to Oregon in 1851. He acquired the land from the government, having taken it up as a donation land claim.

RESIDENCE IS SOLD

George A. Baines has sold his residence on South Fifth street to A. L. Kohler, of the Hub Dry Goods store, who expects very shortly to take possession. Mr. Baines and family are said to intend leaving Marshfield, at least for a time. Mr. Baines will probably go to Portland. They do not yet know when they will locate.
