S. TAYLOR JONES, OF PORTLAND, SUCCEEDS W. F. MILLER

Arrived Here Last Evening to Become Assistant Superintendent of This S. P. Division

S. Taylor Jones, of Portland, has been appointed successor to W. F. Miller, as assistant superintendent of this division of the Southern Pacific. He arrived last evening from Portland and is today acquainting himself with his new duties.

At one time Mr. Jones had charge of the Salem, Falls City and Western railroad, being stationed at Dallas. Later, when this division was taken under the direct supervision of the Southern Pacific, he went into Portland as train dispatcher. He has been in the railroad business for a great many years.

On Monday Mr. Miller intends to go to Portland. His appointment does not go into effect until June 1, but he intends to go over his new territory in which he is now assistant freight superintendent of Oregon.

Mrs. Martha McClure of Englewood is seriously ill on account of a stroke of paralysis which she suffered recently.

FRANK TERRACE GIVES ADDRESS AT NORTH BEND

Large Audience Present to Hear Him Talk on the Subject of Good Roads

Last evening nearly five hundred people heard Frank Terrace, the noted good roads speaker give his final speech in his good roads campaign.

The meeting was preceded by several selections from the high school band. Charles Hall, of the Coos County Good Roads Association acted as chairman.

Mr. Terrace gave a fine talk backed by many important local arguments. No opposition was expressed during the entire evening of speaking.

The Golden West quartet gave several vocal selections. This was the 18th and the last good roads meeting to be held in the interests of the road bond issue.

STATE CASE AGAINST PLATT AND BURGESS

One Is Charged With Assault With Deadly Weapon and Both Will Be Tried Saturday

A state case has been brought against Platt and Burgess who had a fight in the Pitney Billiard hall night before last. They had been fined by the city recorder but District Attorney Liljeqvist investigated the matter and filed a charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Platt and assault against Burgess.

Both men were taken before Justice Shuster. Burgess was released on his promise to appear for trial Saturday and bail in the sum of $750 was required of Platt. It is alleged that the latter used a billy club when he struck Frank Mostellar when he was standing at the telephone.

Should the men be found guilty it will be a case for the justice to bind them over to await action of the grand jury.
