BORN

STADEY—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stadey, of Norway, on May 18, a son. JOHNSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson at their home in Eastside, Friday evening, a baby girl. Mother and child are doing well and the happy father, who is in the east on business will be delighted with the good news of the arrival of his first child. Grandfather Walter Robertson shares with him in the happiness brought by the little stranger. Left on Adelina.—Aboard the Adelina for Oakland were the following passengers, Marie Data, Elmer Grosovich, John Trokiss, Stanley Goswoki, B. L. Knox, Mrs. Knox, Ruth Knox and E. Schroeder. Baby Christened.—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Maloney was formally christened Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Father H. J. McDewitt, Joseph Michael being the name conferred. Mrs. Mair Dano and F. W. Powers were the sponsors. Takes Charge of Camp.—But Metcalf left this morning for the Siuslaw country where he will take charge of a logging camp for the Reynolds Shingle Mill which was recently established at Acme. Few at Beaches.—In spite of the uncertain weather of yesterday there were quite a few visitors at the beaches. Those who returned from Sunset Bay said that it rained heavily in the morning and later turned off very nicely. The roads were a trifle slippery for the autos. Would Destroy Mail.—John Holger, aged 81, was taken into custody Saturday afternoon at his home near Acme on the Siuslaw. The old man seemed to be suffering from an hallucination that he should destroy all the mail that he could get in contact with and worked himself into a fury while tearing up the missives. Went to Roseburg.—Representatives from the local I. O. O. F. and the Rebekah Lodge left for Roseburg to attend the state convention that convenes there tomorrow. Among those going today were Mrs. Kato Lando, Mrs. J. Lee Brown, Miss Carrie Ross, Israel Lando, A. Hagemeister, Herbert Phillips and William Bach. Buys a Residence.—Frank Horton has recently purchased from Roy Carpenter a neat little bungalow in Englewood and on Tenth street, South. The lot is 50 by 150. Mr. Horton expects to do quite a bit of repairing on the place though he says he is not figuring on moving out there, at least for the present anyway. Races Called Off.—Ross Smith announced this morning that the races scheduled for Decoration Day by the Coos-Curry Auto Racing Association have been called off. The day is to be observed as one aside from all sports. The Association members, as soon as they saw there was a feeling against the races, immediately gave them up. Few Were Fishing.—Deputy Game Warden J. M. Thomas went up to Powers this morning to look over the game situation up there. He said that at Ten Mile yesterday he saw only two men out fishing, all the remainder being women, of whom there were quite a number. He winked when he said this, inasmuch as women do not have to pay for their fishing licenses. Nann Smith Spoken.—In the waterfront news of the San Francisco Examiner appeared a note on Friday telling of the arrival here of the U. S. Transport Sherman from the Philippines. Sherman reported that on April 9 he spoke the Nann Smith of Coos Bay, outward bound country where he will take charge of a logging camp for the Reynolds Shingle Mill which was recently established at Acme. Few at Beaches.—In spite of the 5 and is not expected back on Coos Bay until July. Are Making Survey.—Capt. J. H. Polhemus came up from Empire this morning and left on the early train for Coquille. Between the county seat and Bandon a survey is being made of the river depths. He said that the rain makes it difficult to get accurate depths because the river is swelled. Up to Saturday evening the dredge Michle had taken 100,000 yards of sand from off the bar since she has been back. During the last week she was delayed two days because of inclement weather. Papers Are Served.—Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird today served papers in connection with the contest of the recent recall election held in Eastside. There are two cases, one of the state, with W. F. Byerly, former school director as relator, versus Will Steckel and also the state, with Eleanor Hadlock as relator, versus Neils Nelson. The complaint states that the recall election of the two school board members was illegal and declares that the defendants "unlawfully and without right usurped the offices of the school directors" and it is asked that they be restrained from holding the offices. Personal Mention H. B. RING was a week end visitor here from Lampa. EDWIN M. HARVEY, from Point Terrace, spent his week end here. RAY BENHAM is here today on business from over at McKintey. HAROLD T. LEWIS was here over Sunday from his home at Gardiner. A. TUESTROM and Jake Tuestrom came in Saturday evening from North Lake. FRANK STOCK was among the visitors in the city yesterday from Sumner. E. C. RAYMOND was down yesterday for a short visit from his place at Templeton. J. E. PAULSON, of Coquille, came over this morning to look after some matters of business. WILLIAM VAUGHN went out to the Beaver Hill camp of McDonald and Vaughn this morning. J. H. FLANAGAN and Herbert Lockhart have been enjoying a few days fishing at Ten Mile. FRANK CATTERLIN left on the morning train to call on the trade in Coquille Valley points. J. E. BURNETT and Gus Westland were down from Blue Ridge to spend the week end in the city. R. G. SMYTHE, of Medford, has arrived here on business in connection with the Kinney properties. DEPUTY SHERIFF W. C. LAIRD came over this morning from the county seat with some papers to serve. MRS. ROSA PREUSS, who is teaching at Beaver Hill, spent the week end in the city visiting with friends. MRS. LORENTZEN, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, were arrivals here Saturday from Medford. MISS EDNA HARVEY, of Eugene, spent the week end with Miss Laura Ruth, who is teaching at Millington. DEAN WILLIAM HORSFALL passed through from Bandon this morning enroute to Portland for a few days. E. G. PERHAM went back to his camp on the morning train. The rain has been delaying the work considerably. F. F. WAITE accompanied by Mr. Smythe of Medford arrived here Saturday evening to look after interests on the Bay. MRS. E. E. STRAW returned Saturday evening from California where she was called by the death of her mother. W. A. RUTH, Portland druggist, arrived in Marshfield on Saturday to visit his sisters Misses Laura and Hazel Ruth. C. A. SEHLBREDE and wife went out yesterday morning to Roseburg where they will attend the I. O. O. F. convention this week. PAUL STERLING of Coquille returned Saturday night from a few days fishing at Ten Mile, taking forty fine ones with him. POSTMASTER HUGH McLAIN went over to Myrtle Point on the morning train to look after some contract work. N. MOON and A. B. Gidley were callers at Coquille today. They have a contract for the laying of $3,000 street paving in the county seat. MISS ELVIRA FRIESEN went back to her work in the sheriff's office this morning after spending the week end with her parents. DISTRICT ATTORNEY L. A. LIJEQUIST went over to the county seat on the morning train to attend the monthly meeting of the county court. THE REV. ALBERT BASSFORD expects to leave about Wednesday for Seattle where he is now preaching. He arrived here Friday to speak Saturday at the funeral of Mrs. A. Z. Downs. JUDGE JOHN P. HALL, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. in Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. Hall, left yesterday to attend the state convention. REV. ROBERT E. BROWNING left on this morning's train for Eugene and later Portland. He intends to go east for a few weeks on a vacation, going to Washington, D. C. FRED GETTINS, D. L. Buckingham and George Haines went out to Ten Mile on the morning train, expecting to be there a few days on some surveying work. DAN E. MALONEY and wife and children arrived home Saturday. Mrs. Maloney and children were visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Paddock of Gladstone, near Portland, while Mr. Maloney made a trip to Iowa. MRS. GEO. GETTING returned Saturday afternoon from Portland where she was called a week ago by the illness and death of her brother. Blood poisoning resulting from a triple fracture of his leg was the cause of death. W. F. MILLER, until a few days ago superintendent of the local railroad, left this morning for Portland there to acquaint himself with his new duties as assistant general freight manager for Oregon. Mrs. Miller will probably go to Portland within a week. GEORGE BAINES left this morning for Portland. He intends to take a trip through the Northwestern states and probably will be gone for 10 days or more. On his return he will probably go with his family back to his old home in Sonoma county, California, and may locate there.
