LOCAL NOTES:

County Assessor T. H. Parker moved to our town.

Judge B. D. Ries went to Minersville county on Thursday.

We would not have to travel to Tulelake, many settlers are making applications.

The county offices have been burnt and qualified for their replacements.

Mr. Plam was given a start and demoralized on his horse.

A wedding announcement was made for Thursday.

If you can't beat the Indians, you must join them.

Submissions are always welcome.

M. Taylor, one of our school teachers, has been in Tulelake several days.

May T. Vincent's dairy is now in full swing and gives us a sight of about 20 cows on Wednesday of this week.

If M. Taylor is on our side, he will probably arm our country on Thursday. He will wear white.

M. Taylor, the foreman of Tulelake, has been surveying new town, and reports a large number of valuable sites is in the first mile.

An interesting specimen of the Tulelake district was given us by a gentleman from that place, and we will publish it on Thursday.

We have permission to be quoted on the following:
