LOCAL NOTES.

E. L. Davidson, of Newport, was in the city last Monday.

O. V. Hurt and Jas. Gaither were over from Siletz this week.

Mr. Cressy, of Monmouth, formerly of Newport, was in town today.

Judge Blue went out to Corvallis on business Tuesday morning, returning Wednesday evening.

A very pleasant birthday party was given in honor of Will Rich's 34th birthday last Saturday night.

The Corvallis Gazette celebrated its thirtieth birthday last week, and gives promise of many more useful future years.

There is not a vacant dwelling house in Toledo that is for rent. This speaks volumes for Toledo in these dull times.

Marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk this week to J. E. Waugh and Miss Rosa Rader, and J. Burrows and S. S. Winans.

The republican committee held a meeting at Van Cleve's office Wednesday. The county convention is called for April 4, and the primaries for March 27.

Correspondents will please bear in mind that we want their own name with every letter. This name is not published except requested to do so, but our own rules must demand these names.

P. B. Gallagher, a shoe drummer of San Francisco, was in town today. Drummers have been a scarce article for some time and the appearance of one seems like a harbinger of better times.

Charley Williams started for San Francisco on the steamer Del Norte today, where he goes as a delegate to the Trans-Mississippi convention having been appointed by the Mayor of St. Louis to represent that city.

We understand that the tax injunction case against Sheriff Landis, which was recently decided in favor of the Sheriff, will be appealed by the Corvallis parties bringing the suit will be appealed to the supreme court.

The devil of this office had a job on his hands last week by losing an item about the party at Mr. and Mrs. Vincent's on Wednesday evening, a week ago. A very enjoyable time was reported by all who attended.

The columns of this paper are open very freely to the republicans for their convention and primary calls, and the publication of the same would cost them nothing. Still, if they do not wish to furnish us with the copy, we can't very well publish it.

Negotiations are under way for the purchase of a steam dredge or steam shovel to be used on this bay and tributaries for dyking and dredging out shallow channels. The party who is working the matter is an old hand with such machinery and thoroughly understands the work. He proposes to dyke the land on shares or for cash where the parties so desire. If the scheme is successful the tide-lands will all soon be substantially dyked and will be good, useful land instead of waste, as it principally.

Judge Blue informs us that the case of Benton county versus J. R. Bayson, assignee of Hamilton, Job & Co. has been decided in favor of the county, the court declaring that the funds of the county on deposit in the bank were trust funds and not applicable to a pro rata distribution among the creditors of the insolvent bank. This will directly affect our county and if the decision holds will assure our county against loss. The case will be appealed to the supreme court, where it will be further adjudicated.

A. T. Peterson was appointed road supervisor of Toledo district by the county court and has already got some men out to work on the roads.

Nate Petit, one of the O. P. bridge men, left his over coat on the west bound train some time ago. He telegraphed to Yaquina for it but the car sweeper at Yaquina reported that the coat had not been seen. Becoming suspicious Petit went down to Yaquina Tuesday and swore out a search warrant and searched the premises of Jeffreys, the car sweeper, and the coat was found in his trunk. A warrant was sworn out before Squire Parker and will have a hearing tomorrow.

Alsea Bay Notes.

It is rumored that Mr. Porter, Newport's meat market man, has purchased the late Peter Eckman's cattle from the administrator of the estate. If so, the cooks of that burgh may lay aside their steak mauls for a while.

The Waldport side-walk committee after doing some good work have suspended their labors, leaving part of the street crossings impracticable for traffic.

There is talk of Mr. Doty's new hall being dedicated shortly with a splendid program by the district scholars and a dance at the completion of the term.

Our esteemed pedagogue and county surveyor is to visit the county superintendent this week, it is said. His wife is to teach the school in his absence. Envious man, to have such an able mate.

The school literary society holds successful meetings every Saturday night. Last week the debate was as to the relative merits or values of the mathematician and the historian. The historian got there. Apropos of the historian, will not some of our politicians refer to the history of the panic of 1873 and the statistician's report in the Agricultural Report of 1878, pages 274 and 308, on average prices of animals and products of Oregon for that period, and may I ask if a democratic administration was responsible for that panic and the low prices of 1878. Is it not historical that honors are about equally divided between the two parties in the matter of hard times and panics?

The question is, who grabs the booty? Will some one kindly tell us the political professions of the following: L. P. Morton, John Wanamaker, Philip Armour, A. J. Drexel, Marshall Field, John D. Rockefeller, David Sinton, Geo. W. Childs, the Vanderbilts, Astors, Goulds, Huntingtons, Stanfords, Fairs, Mackays, Carnegies, Blairs, and many others credited with over $10,000,000 each. There are seventy-two men whose combined wealth is said to equal the national debt and now Astor probably acting for himself and the others has taken up his residence in London, most likely with the intention of owning Europe. Only we ought not to permit him, (without remonstrance) to risk good United States cash in the deal. He might get bit, then Europe would own us.

We had a sad bereavement last week. Our estimable resident preacher, the Rev. Briston, passed from our midst with his grip sack and cook stove, enroute for Corvallis, from whence he came, it is said. Funny is it not? The air of Lincoln county don't seem to agree with Bentonites. Omnia bona bono.

Does any one know whether we have a deputy county clerk in Lower Alsea precinct or not? We are hoping to have some good exponents of the political views of each party visit us during the coming campaign, and by their oratory logic, to say nothing of their dollars, convince us which party we ought to support in the race next June.

IMPRIMATUS.

Notice.
