Peoples Party County Convention.
Toledo, Oregon, Feb. 23, 1894.
The County Convention of the Peoples Party of Lincoln County, Oregon, is hereby called to meet at Toledo, on March 10, 1894, for the purpose of nominating candidates for County officers, to be voted for at the general election in June, and the election of 4 delegates to the State Convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The convention shall be composed of 22 delegates, apportioned as follows:
Newport Precinct, 3
Yaquina Precinct, 3
Toledo, 4
Elk City, 3
Little Elk, 2
Sandyville, 2
Big Elk, 2
Briff-Steele, 1
Lower Alsea, 2
Yakima, 1

It is desired, where it is sufficiently understood, that the delegates to this convention be selected by the preferential vote, and that the delegation be full and complete.
J. W. PARRISH,
Chairman Co. Com.

Notice.
The members of the Democratic county central committee are requested to meet at Toledo on the 27th day of February, 1894, for the purpose of naming a time to hold precinct and county conventions, and making apportionments for the number of delegates from the various precincts, and for the election of a chairman of the county committee; and for such other business as may come properly before the committee.
B. F. JONES, Committeeman,
Toledo Precinct.

Notice.
We notice that many of the counties in the state are having trouble with the printing firm of Ben C. Irwin & Co., and see by the published reports that their bills are being quite frequently cut or laid over. This county has had some trouble with the same firm, the court clipping an overcharge of $25 on a $25 order, or just doubling up on the price. We were present also when their last bill came before the panel and heard some good-sized kicks registered at that time. When a county goes outside for work which printers in their own county can do they get out nine times out of ten.

ROUSES A TORPID NERVE.
HENLEY'S TONGUE
CURES MALARIA, MAKES AN APETITE.

The Amity Popgun has shot its last wad.

A minister at Buena Vista kissed an unmarried member of his flock and a great to do is being raised about it. What did they expect him to do, go around kissing the married members?

L. V. Wilson announces himself as an independent candidate for clerk of Benton county, and gives as his reason for running that he wants the office. A good reason certainly, and a true one, probably.

E. H. Belknap, of Monroe, is mentioned as a probable republican candidate for joint senator of Lincoln and Benton counties. His strongest opposing candidate seems to be Geo. Waggoner, of Corvallis.

The Salem Independent does not believe in the efficacy of the "preferential" vote for offices higher than the county. It objects because it would be too cumbersome and would not express the will of the majority.

The order has gone forth from the Mid-Winter fair managers that all press passes to the fair must bear a photograph of the person to whom the pass was issued. A sort of Chinese register business. And also a standing insinuation that all newspaper men are dishonest!

The old gag about the supreme court decision in a dog case is going the rounds of the press and never seems to wither or decay. A Salem lawyer asserts that the Oregon supreme court never had a dog case before it and the so-called decision is simply the product of some fertile newspaper man's brain.

There exists in the minds of many of our people a firm belief that Col. Hogg will eventually control and run the Oregon Pacific. Upon what they base their fond hopes we do not know, but if Col. Hogg should again come into power we sincerely hope that it will be with "stuff" enough to complete the original scheme and bring the road to a full development.

The preponderance of testimony seems to incline to establish the charge that the so-called Mid-Winter fair is going to rapidly develop into a fourth-rate show. The evidences of a shrewd scheme to beguile away their money are plentiful. Mike De Young, the leading spirit in the enterprise, flees not add any faith to the fair.

In the coming election as far as county officers are concerned, political lines are going to be lost sight of to a great extent. Very few candidates are going to be successful simply because they belong to or affiliate with any particular party. The people generally are going to look to the fitness and capability of the candidates they vote for, and have more business and less politics.

The decision of Judge Fullerton last week that the county funds in the Hamilton, Job & Co. bank were trust funds, places the prosecution of the Job brothers and Davis in this county, who are now under indictment, in a very straightjacket. It would appear that a conviction can only be avoided by a reversal of the decision by the supreme court, or a failure on the part of the prosecution to prove the demand, for the money, as alleged by the County Treasurer Denlinger. Still there may be other loop-holes by which the prosecution may fail.

A lot of papers are grinding away on the old Hadley grist, going over stuff that has been gone over several months ago. The most notable feature of their yoiceferations is that they were as meek and servile as ever slave was to master while Hadley and Mulcahy were playing their desperate game. They did not dare print a line in favor of the laborer as against the men who were robbing them, for the fear that the high and mighty Mulcahy might get angry and take up their advertising contract and then they would get no more free rides over the great trans-continental Oregon Pacific. But, now Hadley and Mulcahy are removed from power and their free rides being no longer in danger they jump onto them with both feet. After all Hadley, who kept the men out of their wages, is about as much to be respected as the cowering crowd of newspaper lawyers who know of the devilry and had their mouths stopped with free trip passes.

A man near Springfield was recently fined $50 by a justice of the peace for killing a Chinese pheasant. He will appeal the case to the district court.

The next session of the legislature is going to witness a strong fight for the division of Lane county, and the prospect at this time looks as if the fight would be successful.

The republican county convention will be composed of thirty-one delegates. Should there be the usual number of proxies the convention will be controlled and nominations made by a very few delegates.

The man who lives in the country yearns for the city. The man who lives in the city yearns for the country. The farmer would seek the pent up precincts of the town, and bend over ledgers; the clerk, already bent double over ledgers, craves the free air and unconfined horizon of the country; the distant hills and the broad acres between; But the rule is, wheré either one has an opportunity to make the desired change they heartily wish themselves back to their original occupation.

C. N. Scott, ex-receiver of the Oregonian Railway Company, R. A. Butsch and Albert J. Ray have interested themselves in a dairy enterprise in Washington county. They have leased the Colonel T. R. Corneliuss farm of 500 acres, on which they will begin to operate a creamery about March 1. At first they will milk 100 cows, and gather milk from neighboring farmers. Mr. Ray is a son of John Ray, and is well known in Benton and Lincoln counties, having been a merchant in Corvallis and a banker at Newport.

F. D. Smith, formerly of Wagner, who drove the big Examiner prize last year, died recently at Lakeview from the effects of amputation of a broken limb. The broken leg was received in a runaway, and from exposure gangrene set in. Smith never lived on his orange farm, but sold it soon after he won it for $6,000. This he managed to get rid of by dissipation in a few months, and he died penniless.

He was in his cups when the accident happened which resulted in his death, and what he thought his great good fortune proved to be his undoing.—Fossil Journal.

The Capital Journal, of Salem, has been threshing over a lot of O. P. straw and the most of their utterings have been vapid and nauseous, but they have made one accusation against Judge Fullerton that should be denied, if untrue, and the paper punished for its utterance thereof. We refer to the charge that W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, was appointed attorney for Receiver Clark, to pay for political services rendered the Judge during the last campaign. It is this charge only affected the Judge in person it would not matter, but it affects the very truth and purity of the court itself, and if allowed to go unchallenged by the court, it is a tacit admission of guilt, and thereby robs the court of much of the respect of the people, which it should hold.

A lot of papers are grinding away on the old Hadley grist, going over stuff that has been gone over several months ago. The most notable feature of their yoiceferations is that they were as meek and servile as ever slave was to master while Hadley and Mulcahy were playing their desperate game. They did not dare print a line in favor of the laborer as against the men who were robbing them, for the fear that the high and mighty Mulcahy might get angry and take up their advertising contract and then they would get no more free rides over the great trans-continental Oregon Pacific. After all Hadley, who kept the men out of their wages, is about as much to be respected as the cowering crowd of newspaper lawyers who know of the devilry and had their mouths stopped with free trip passes.

Harlan Notes.
Snowing this morning.
Jerry Banks was at Harlan visiting friends. Look out C. G.

Ben Young is slowly recovering from a serious wound on his hand.
L. W. Mulvaney has returned to his home in Fairmount, Oregon, after about a month's stay at Harlan.

If the minister and his wife move on Big Elk in March, his wife will teach the school and then we can have church and Sunday School every Sunday. Hig Elk will be in heaven before fall.

Rain, rain plenty of rain.
Albert Wadkins passed through the town of Harlan the other day. George Simmons and his son returned to this town last week.

What is the matter with our Sunday School, brothers and sisters? News scarce this week.
MISS FORTUNE.

Nashville Notes.
We still continue to have plenty of rain and snow.

Spence Gershond came down Sunday from Hoskins after his sister, Miss Alice Gershond. He reports the snow nine inches deep at that place.

Miss Lucy Eddy, of Chitwood, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. S. Porter, of this place.

A. L. Porter made a flying trip to Corvallis the first part of the week.

Mr. Irish and family has now arrived and are now in their new home as happy as a clam at high tide.

There was a party given at the residence of H. S. Porter on the 14th. A good time was had.

Mr. Rhuendolf, of Portland, has moved in on his ranch at Norton.

The sheep men of this place are talking of organizing, and paying bounty on bear, panther and wild cats in a district which they will form. The cattle men are also talking of organizing and try and effect some plan to stop people from drying cattle from one neighborhood to another.

Mr. E. H. Bryant thinks the climate on Steer Creek much milder than on Yaquina, so of course he spends most of his time over there.

We scribble had the pleasure of attending the literary at Little Elk last Friday night. Everyone performed his part in good shape. It is a good thing for the community.

Among the people that are being talked of for officers is A. S. Skinner, for school superintendent and Jas. Hamar, Sr., for commissioner.

HARD TACK.

Elk City Items.
(Received too late for last week.)
R. F. Simpson is sacking his spuds for a shipment; will ship 300 sacks.

Two of the Elk City boys made calls on every house in town with saw and saw-horse all who were lucky enough to have wood to saw, received their compliments and especially Mrs. S. V. Huff.

Chester Dixon made the run down the river, with his raft, all O. K.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Logan are in town today.

Bridge meeting was well attended yesterday. Everyone seemed to be willing to give the matter a lift. About $200 in work was subscribed within a few minutes. This is a shipping point for a large portion of Lincoln county, and the old way of handling freight four times to get it three hundred feet across the river will be given up with joy to all.

Valentines were quiet numerous up town yesterday.

An old fashioned surprise party at M. W. Simpson's Thursday evening. About fifty neighbors and friends with baskets filled with all the good things known to the culinary department. Everybody was made happy, old folks with whist and the young folks with dancing. Everyone seemed to forget the hard times until past midnight.
