Eddyville Items.
Mr. Cockrell & Company are putting up a mill on Wilson creek at Eddyville, they raised the frame on the 16th. It is to be a broom handle factory, and any other furniture that may be called for in the line of wooden ware.
There was a dance the 16th on the other side of Jordan, at a famous place known as Little Elk, in Derrick's hall. There were quite a number in attendance; had the Wilson Creek string band. It went very well until the eljii music band usurped the place of the string band and the string band couldn't make their music heard and they left, thinking they were on the wrong side of Jordan and the sooner they left the better it would be. There was no damage done only the escape of gas, and the most of them rather dissatisfied with the performance and left in good time to get home and have a nap before morning.

The O. P. seems to be doing the freight business now better than when they run a freight. Now we can send freight every day and then it was only half as often or every other day.

There was a dance at Wakefield's schoolhouse at the time the sun crossed the equator and it went off very quiet, with about a dozen couple. The weather seems a great deal better. Nice and pleasant this morning. If it holds out the stock will appreciate the change.

Mrs. Margaret McCane is visiting her brother, C. C. McBride, on Little Elk.
There seems to be a little more stir among the settlers than usual, they are stirring to hunt up some money to pay taxes. But it seems to be hard to find any.

Mr. Zink is visiting his relatives on Hewitt creek; Mrs. Hewitt being niece of his. They made Eddyville a visit today, and seemed to appreciate the nice warm weather that has just begun.

There has been more trade of late than usual.
Mr. Cross sold three cows for $25 to Mr. E. D. Young. It seems like a small price, but it is a good price when you take into consideration that the money is all gone into bonds and hid away.

QUIDNUNC.
Nashville Notes.
Geo. Derrick, of Rock creek, is visiting friends and relatives on the Yaquina.
J. W. Bryant spent several days on Rock creek, catching salmon.
The dance at Derrick's hall the 17th of Ireland was fine, for what there was of it. But it did not last long, as there was so much noise that the fiddlers fainted. After they had been brought to life the crowd adjourned.
Everyone has begun to get impatient as it seems that the weather is never going to let them sow their grain.
Hay is getting scarce and cattle are beginning to look like they had seen some winter.
There was a brush cutting given at Mrs. Sarah Miller's Monday the 19th, and a dance at night. A good time was had.
There is a young man here who is very popular in society. Last fall he began going with the ladies of this place. But is at present associating in the kindergarten department.
James Fowler, of Hoskins, was in our midst the front of the week, swapping yarns with the boys. Come again.
W. M. Owen is at this place looking after his cattle. Mr. Owen is the loser of several head.
Fred Waggoner made the remark the other day that he thought it would rain. Fred is a great prophet, and we don't believe we can find anyone who will contradict his word.
R. C. Chambers, our late supervisor, has been greatly annoyed by various letters asking him to fix certain places in the roads. It is a long road that has no turn, so boys you had just as well shoulder your shovel and grubbing-hoe and go to work.

Our produce market might interest some of our readers. It is as follows: Oats 35 cents per bushel, potatoes 25 to 35 cents per bushel, onions $1.00 per bushel, butter 20 to 25 cents per lb., eggs 10 to 15 cents per doz., hay $8 to $10 per ton. Cattle are selling as follows: Calves $3 to $5 per head, cows $10 to $15, steers some little higher. Sheep from $1.50 to $2.00 per head. Hogs live 3 to 4 cents per lb. Chickens $3 to $4.50 per dozen. Ducks $5 to $6 per dozen. Geese $6 per dozen.
Dated March 19, 1894.
HARD TACK.

Glen Items
Snow on the ground, pretty rough for this time of the year.
Jessie Holland came in from the valley Friday and returned today. His brother Charlie accompanied him as far as Big Elk.
William Arnold Jr. went to Salado today.
The Glen P. O. is almost ready to begin business.

Quite a number of the Drift Creekers were out to the county seat last week filing on their homesteads.
S. J. Wilhoit Jr. came over from Salado Saturday where he has been employed on Hodges and Arnolds sawmill. They are progressing very slowly with it on account of the bad weather.

The populists held a meeting at the school house on Saturday last. Lost, strayed, stolen, or visiting, a young man of populist tendencies, was last seen at his home on Gopher Creek on last Friday evening, late; any one seeing him will please send him home as his mother would like to see him.

Mr. Curler, Jr. intends taking a claim on Drift creek. He is a son of H. A. Curler, an old settler here. He is lately from Wisconsin. In behalf of the settlers and residents of Drift creek and vicinity, we extend to him a most hearty greeting and welcome. Several claims have been taken in this country lately and still there is room. Come, come one and all that want to obtain a home without money and without price, we want those that mean to make a home here. Married men preferred. You are most heartily welcome.

MARRIED—Kiffer—Arnold, at the residence of the bride's father on Nettie creek, on Sunday, March 4, 1894, Mr. Fred H. Kiffer to Mr. William D. Arnold, the Rev. H. H. Curler officiating. The young couple spent their honeymoon on Big Elk attending a dance. They are well known in this place and their many friends wish them a prosperous and happy journey over the tempestuous sea of life.
Frank Mulvany spent last week on the creek, leaving on Friday for Toledo aiming to go from thence to Eddyville and from there to his former home on Big Elk where he is to meet his father, on Sunday, March 18th.

Wm. Mulkey, of Big Elk, passed through this place on Monday last, on his way home from Toledo, where he attended the the peoples party county convention as delegate. B. F. Wilhoit, delegate from this place also returned Monday. The peoples party is not quite dead yet, as Coll Van Cleave will be aware in the course of time. He calls them anarchists and all that sort of thing, but we are serene in the belief that right will win, regardless of the enemies of truth.
Dated March 19, 1894.

We are in receipt of a letter from some measly chump from San Francisco who wants to write us a weekly letter, in return for which we are to permit him to parade as our special correspondent, thus being enabled to work himself into the fair on a pass. We admire the fellows gall, and if we wasn't broke ourselves we would send him four bits.

When our genial friend Capt. Robertson writes an article for the Newport News he had just as well sign his own name to it, as his style of cross-cross talk is so well known on the Bay that it is utterly impossible for him to disguise it.

Populists Nominations.
Following are the state officers nominated on the populist ticket at Oregon City, Thursday March 15: For governor, Nathan Pierce. State treasurer, R. Caldwell. Secretary of state, Ira Wakefield. Superintendent of public instruction, T. C. Jory, of Salem.
Attorney general, M. J. Olmstead. State printer, Geo. M. Orton. Congressman, first district, Chas. Miller; second district, Joseph Waldrop.
Judge first judicial district, A. B. Axtell.
Prosecuting attorney, Samuel Dixon.
Members of board of equalization, second district, J. F. Amis; attorney, J. F. Weekly. Third district, S. R. Stott; prosecuting attorney, C. H. Dalrymple; board of equalization, John P. Robertson.
Judge fourth district, H. N. McGuire and A. S. Chute, attorney. T. A. Wood; board of equalization, J. C. Miller.
Fifth district, attorney, Silas B. Smith; board of equalization, A. L. Lacey.
Judge sixth district, Nat Hudson; attorney, Cal. Patterson; board of equalization, O. P. Goodall.
Seventh district, attorney, E. P. Stine; board of equalization, B. K. Seary.
Joint representative for Yamhill and Tillamook, J. F. Dyer.
Joint senator Baker and Malheur, Will R. King; Morrow, Grant and Harney, Geo. Gilbert.
Supreme justice, R. P. Boise.
At 12 o'clock the convention was wrangling over the appointment of the executive committee.

The Senate Again.
The bringing of that sturdy old seaman and navigator, Capt. Nate Stevens, forward as a candidate for joint senator has greatly rattled granny Matthews' crowd of "non de plume" writers. They want Capt. Winant for that place, but they well know that, although Capt. Winant is a royal good fellow, and has scores of good qualities, he will stand no ghost of a show when pitted against Captain Nate. A would be smart Alec who signs himself "Another M. M." (another Matthews' monkey) presumes to criticise the candidacy of Captain Stevens. Among the other things he criticises Capt. Stevens' seamanship. The ideal Capt. Stevens navigated the sea for years and never anchored his ship on the high seas to be picked up as salvage. He always brought his vessel into port. And when he is nominated and elected to the state senate, as all signs indicate he will be, he will navigate the ship of state with such ability and integrity as will bring here safely to port, with colors flying and anchor her in the harbor of peace and prosperity.

The questions of ratifying the contract made by the Modoc and Klamath Indian tribes and the Yahoo band of Snake Indians, of Oregon, and their agents, is pending action by the interior department. The contract stipulates for services to be rendered by latter in prosecuting the claims of the Indian against the United States, arising from an alleged error in the survey of the out boundaries of the Klamath reservation in Oregon. It is provided that one agent be given a commission of 12 per cent of lands which are valued at $200,000 to $400,000. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning recently recommended a reduction of the commission to 5 per cent. The out boundaries were established by a survey made in 1891, and, as a result of the contention which once threatened to end in a serious conflict between the Indians and settlers, the land commissioner recommended a resurvey. The case will be decided in a few days.

Senator Hermann has secured increased appropriations for Yaquina and Tillamook bays, and the Columbia and Willamette rivers.—Newport News.—How many senators does Oregon have? We had an idea that it had but two—Dolph and Mitchell.
