Daily Oregonian on sale at this office. 5 cents per day or 25 cents per week.

Our fishermen are now bringing in some very fine strings of trout.

Mort. Lollis and Wm. Ennis were up from Newport last Monday.

It is reported that F. M. Stanton will start a livery stable in Toledo this summer.

Dr. Carter was called to Newport by telegram to attend a case of sickness in Mr. Holcombe's family last Monday.

The Corvallis Times will be run as a semi-weekly until June 1st, as experiment. It will be issued in half of the former size.

The republican club held a jubilee at the court house last Monday night. They were quite ably addressed by Hon. R. A. Bensell, of Newport.

Rev. Chas. Booth was called home from this place last Saturday night by the serious illness of his wife, and so there were no services at St. John's Episcopal church last Sunday.

A Catholic priest from Corvallis made a trip to the agency this week. While on his road to the upper farm on horseback, he attempted to ford a stream and got into deep water and came near losing his life.

A government surveyor has been inspecting the survey of township 12 range 9, made by A. L. Porter. The inspector reported the work good and will no doubt be promptly accepted, and this township thrown open for filing.

The democrats have nominated O. C. Stakely for justice of the peace, and Chas. Ruhl for constable for the joint precinct of Toledo and Drift creek. The republicans have nominated J. A. Hall, the present justice, and Clark Copeland for the same offices.

The case of the State vs. J. M. Applewhite was successfully demurred to by the defense at Corvallis last Saturday. The ground of the demurrer was the technical point that the complaint of adultery should have been made and sworn to by the wife of the defendant. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Many of our readers will remember an old suit on, the docket of Benton county which has been carried there for years. It bobbed up serenely in the present term and will probably continue to do so for years to come. It is Marie Armstrong vs. Sol King, and is an action to recover money. It met the same fate as heretofore, being continued for the term.

There seems to be a determination among the voters of Lincoln county, and we believe more or less all over the state, to totally ignore party lines as far as county officers are concerned, and to vote for the most capable and fit men. If this be carried out it will certainly fill the offices with competent men, and strike terror to the hearts of a few political hacks that have succeeded in crowding themselves forward to a nomination.

Word reaches us that Bert Waugh, a former brakeman on the O. P. passenger train, was recently shanghaied, at Coos Bay, where he had gone to work. It seems that Bert was working on the vessel helping to load it. Just before the load was completed the mate sent him down in the hold to work, and while he was down there the vessel got under way and sailed with Bert an unwilling passenger. The vessel was San Francisco bound, however, and it is more likely that Bert was perfectly satisfied to be shanghaied after he got over his scare.

Dr. Rich had business in Albany the latter part of last week.

J. N. Arnold has sold his place here in town to Mrs. T. P. Fish.

Fred Chambers went out to Philomath on a visit to relatives last Tuesday.

Rite Dedrick launched a handsome and substantial small boat for Judge Blue this week.

A letter from Roll Chambers to his mother informs her that he is now in Salt Lake, Utah.

A bluer sky nor a brighter sun no country ever had than Lincoln county people are enjoying today.

Robt. Campbell has been on the sick list this week. That tussle with the steer nearly got away him.

Jack Kirk, an old time resident of the Bay, but now of Corvallis, went though to Newport Monday evening.

J. K. Weatherford and J. R. Wyatt, of Albany, have formed a law partnership under the name of Weatherford & Wyatt.

A man who is always ready to die and don't care how soon death comes, generally sends for four doctors when he gets sick.—Ex.

Charley Miller, the young photographer, of Elk City, has been in Toledo this week taking some pictures. Charley does first-class work and deserves encouragement.

Oscar Taylor and family started for Salem last Sunday, where they will make their future home. They drove through in a wagon. May success and prosperity attend them.

Toledo again has a barber shop, a brother of Wm. Ennis, of Newport, starting a shop here this week. He is a first-class workman and will no doubt do quite well.

Lester Waugh had the misfortune to lose a valuable milk cow today. She showed some symptoms of poisoning, but not enough to determine that to be the cause.

Robt. Campbell has moved his butcher shop into the little building on the east side of the railroad track opposite the postoffice. He has it quite neatly and tastily fixed up on the inside, and it makes a very presentable shop.

The L. O. O. F. lodge of Newport, will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the order in a fitting manner on the 26th inst. It is intended to have a parade in the day time and a grand ball at night.

Toledo now sports a member of the famous industrial army. It is a son of Coll Van Cleve, and came in last night. He left the balance of the army at Eugene and came to this land of plenty.

Workmen are busy tearing down and removing the old house belonging to Miss Elizabeth Graham, longside the railroad track. We understand that a new and commodious residence will be erected on the site of the same.

Five additional coal land leases have been filed in the office of the county clerk during the past week. They are from R. F. Rains, W. H. Logan, C. H. Williams, W. P. Ford and John J. Nye, and run to R. A. Bensell and J. M. Ayles.

Dr. A. H. Diven and his estimable daughter, Miss Anna M. Diven, were visitors to our thriving community this week. They were well pleased with their stay here and returned to their home in Waldport, Lincoln county, on the Roberts.—Florence West.

To the Albany Democrat. We once heard of a man who made a fortune by attending to his own business. You, perhaps, can get the full meaning of this by reading our bit of a lecture to the editor of the Newport News in another place in this paper.

Last Tuesday was O. P. payday. It was a good 100-cents-on-the-dollar pay day, and not one of the Hadley kind. When you come to look the matter over you can see that Receiver Clark's administration of the O. P. is not putting on so much dog as the former one, but it is rapidly building up the business that the dude managers lost.

A gang of land locaters have been making their headquarters at Toledo for several weeks. They have been looking up all the desirable pieces of vacant land in the county and taking the numbers of the same. We understand that the result of their efforts will be the location of several new settlers in Lincoln county.

Mrs. Ethel Esterbrook is employed temporarily at the agency in the capacity of cook.

A very enjoyable party was had at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rosebrooks last night.

Miss Susie Layton who has been visiting friends here for some time, departed for Philomath this morning.

Col. T. Jay Buford returned home Tuesday evening after a protracted trip through the Valley, and to the state and congressional conventions.

Chas. Kenndey, the well-known ex-conductor of the O. P., came up last week from Coos Bay, where he has been stopping for some time, and is renewing acquaintance with his hosts of friends along the road. Mr. Kennedy expects to go east to see his children in a few days.

A company has been formed in this city to put up and operate a telephone line connecting Yaquina and Toledo with this city, and will probably extend a line down to the Alsea during the summer. The necessary material is expected up from San Francisco.—Newport News.

Our young friend Hurley Lutz returned yesterday from an extended visit to relatives in Illinois and Kansas. He expresses himself as better pleased with Oregon than ever, one freezing Kansas winter being a plenty, thank you, for him. He returned via San Francisco, coming up on the steamer Homer. He made the usual contribution to the fishes while coming up.

There is just no use talking. The nomination of J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, is the strongest one that possibly could have been made, and he will run Binger Hermann the race of his life. Mr. Weatherford is extremely popular and is a just, honest, upright and conscientious man, and a man of great ability. The republican majority is an immense one to overcome, but Mr. Hermann can just thank his lucky star that it is just as large as it is, for he is going to need everyone of them.

Belle Cosper has filed a suit in the district court of Lincoln county, through her attorney, J. R. Bryson, to secure a divorce from her husband, J. Mead Cosper. She alleges that more than two years ago she came to Corvallis on a visit from her home in Pullman, Washington, and although she wrote to her husband desiring to return he made no such provision, and that he deserted her and has continued such desertion up to the present time. She prays for the usual abrogation of the marriage contract, but does not ask for the restoration of her maiden name.

There are two or three boys living in town who are not attending school. They need the learning that is slipping by them day by day. There may be, and probably are, sufficient reasons for the boys staying out, but these obstacles can be over come without a doubt, if attention is paid to the matter. We are aware that this is a delicate subject, and one we would not approach were it not for the fact that no community can afford to allow children to grow up in their midst without giving them all the education the common schools can afford. Let some of our kind hearted people turn their attention to this matter at once.

S. J. Wilhoit returned from the Valley the first of last week.
The United States land inspector was in this vicinity last week inspecting the recent survey of A. L. Porter, township 12 south, range 9 west. We are in hopes that this survey will be accepted in the near future as there are a number of settlers on this land that can prove up shortly if this survey is accepted.
Frank Wilhoit and sister Cora went to Yaquina Monday, from thence they intend sailing on the next steamer to San Francisco.
Quite a crowd consisting of Wm. Arnold and wife, Mrs. Banks, H. H. Curler and son, Mr. and Mrs. Kiffer, Mr. and Mrs. Neal and family, and Miss Butler, our lively little teacher from Toledo, visited the falls up Drift creek today. Quite a nice time was had in playing games of different kinds until evening when the party separated, going to their several homes, well satisfied with the day's pleasures. I must not forget to mention that these people were entertained by Billy Griffith, on whose claim the falls are located. The falls are not so grand and majestic as those of Niagara, but they are still worth looking at when there is none other greater near.
There is abundance of spring salmon in Drift creek at the present time, also many fine trout.
Dated April 15, 1894.
