A party of Yamhill county people passed through town this morning with five teams, on their way to the beach on a camping expedition.

It looks like old times to see the campers going through with their wagons.

Persons from Toledo making a ten dollar purchase, or over in my store will be given a round trip ticket on the steam launch Claremont.

L. O'BRIEN, Yaquina, Or.

Mrs. N. L. Lambert, of Yaquina, has been appointed agent for the Wiley B. Allen Organ and Piano company.

Parties desiring anything in that line will do well to call on or address her.

Two prisoners, Scott and Hall, confined in the Benton county jail whittled a hole through the top of door and made their escape last Tuesday morning, but were caught that evening in a wheatfield near Corvallis, and returned to captivity.

An attempt is being made to get a mail route established from Detroit, at the end of the O. P., over the Cascades to Prineville. This is the natural outlet to that country and the route should be established.

The Portland Telegram in an editorial says: "The Telegram is not a democratic paper, nor a republican paper, nor a populist paper." Correct. It is merely an adjunct of the Morning Oregonian, and is only run to catch a certain patronage that the latter paper can't control.

The winning feature of the 4th at Toledo will be a fifty yards foot race between Bob Campbell, of this place, and Alec Catfish, of Siletz. The race will be a kind of catch-as-catch-can affair, and will be run under the Marquis of Strawberry rules. Considerable money is going up on the event with the odds a little bit in favor of Alec.

Ben Jones, county clerk elect, of the county west of us, was in town Friday. Hops, he says, are a coming crop of Lincoln county, experiments in their culture during the past two years having shown their adaptability to that soil and climate. He thinks the county seat will abide at Toledo permanently, on account of the opening to settlement of the Siletz, an event that promises to happen this season, and the two years before another vote on the county seat question becomes necessary, ought to add 100 or 500 votes to Toledo's strength.—Corvallis Times.

Wet weather for haying.

Eli Gaither's school at Chitwood will close tomorrow.

C. B. Crosno and B. F. Jones left last Saturday for a trip to the mouth of the Siletz.

Our thank are due S. A. Logan for some nice vegetables. Sam always remembers the poor.

Wm. Pepin and family, of Chitwood, who have been camping on the beach for a few days passed on their way up home on Monday.

Rev. Hewley, who visiting at Monroe, was prevented from returning home last week by illness, hence he did not fill his appointment at Toledo last Sunday.

None of the county officers have filed their bonds as yet at the clerk's office. One or two of the justices of the peace have filed. The county officers will probably all file theirs within a week.

The Franciscan Sisters have opened a Catholic school at Newport. This school will be first-class and worthy of the patronage of many. Its location also appeals strongly for its support.

O. C. Simpson was down from Elk City last Saturday. He informs us that he has placed a hack on the mail route from Elk City to Salado and is now prepared to carry passengers or freight at reasonable rates.

The Claremont took a gay party of excursionists to Elk City last Saturday evening. There was twenty-two on board when they started from Toledo. The entertainment at Elk City was said to be first-class in every particular.

We are informed that L. W. De-yoe has the lumber on the ground to erect a new store building at Elk City, and as soon as the building is completed he will put in a stock of general merchandise. Since Judge Burt has stopped business at that place it leaves a good opening for a store.

The county court convenes in adjourned session tomorrow. We understand that the object of this meeting is to close up some unfinished business, so that the new board will not be encumbered with the completion of some business which was originated before their term of office.

The Toledo ball club, the Invincibles, went to Newport yesterday and played the Newport boys. The Newport boys beat them by a score of 12 to 21 in a hotly contested game. The Invincibles played at a great disadvantage, being afraid to bat the ball in their usual sledge hammer style for fear they would knock it into the ocean and lose it, and thus break up the game. A return game will be played as soon as the boys get rested.

A dispatch to the Oregonian from Marshfield, under date of June 25, says: "Another chapter in the Kennedy family trouble closed today. Kennedy was formerly a conductor on the Oregon Pacific railroad, had been divorced from his first wife and married again. There was a dispute at the time of the divorce over the custody of the two children, who were in his wife's charge. The court did not give Kennedy the children, and he stole them away from his wife and took them east to an unknown place, and left them in the care of his relatives, until a short time ago, when he went east and brought them here, where he resides. Kennedy left last week for Yaquina, and his first wife, having heard of the fact, came to this place at once. In the absence of Kennedy, she demand her children from his wife. They were given up without ceremony, and Mrs. Kennedy, the first, is more than joyful over the possession of her two young sons."

The American Railway Union has gone on a strike against the Pullman Car company, and as a result nearly every western railroad is tied up, the Southern Pacific included.

Vaughn, Muller and Priest, of Newport, have their schooner, Leslie, rigged up and ready for the sea. She intended to make her first outside trip today but the weather would not permit.

The wholesale pardons of Gov. Penoyer can be productive of but one thing, and that is a corresponding wave of lynch law in Oregon. One is as sure to follow the other as sunset is to follow sunrise.

A special train was run from Albany to Yaquina today to bring over the Masons to officiate at the funeral of Tpos. Russell. About fifty Masons came over from Albany and Corvallis.

The continued cool weather in the valley retarded the starting of the regular passenger train last Monday as per announcement. It is useless to put on the train until the summer travel begins. Mr. Clark informs us that the train will probably go on about the 4th.

The school entertainment at Elk City last Saturday night was well attended, and those in attendance were well repaid for their evening. Quite a lengthy program, consisting of literary and musical exercises, was carried out very successfully. Noteworthy among these was the "pantomime," though all the features were worthy of notice.

After the literary entertainment closed several speeches were made by those present. These exercises were the closing features of a very successful term of school taught by Miss Denman. This is Miss Denman's second term of school in Elk City, and the people are greatly pleased with her efforts.

Governor Penoyer again made a lot of wholesale pardons to convicts on Tuesday. On that day he released six, as follows: S. F. Murphy, from Baker county, one year for embezzling $4,119; Jas. Hards, from Jackson county, sentenced in 1893 for 15 years for manslaughter; Geo. Newbill, from Yamhill county, sentenced last March for one year for grand larceny; Ed. F. Lewis, of Linn county, sentenced last March for three years for forgery; Georgia White and Jennie Morgan, from Portland, sentenced last February for two years for larceny from the person of a Yakima county, Wash., farmer. This makes twelve convicts liberated by Penoyer since election day.

The sweetest temper in the world can be ruined, and therefore I would have you take heed to your ways, writes "The Duchess" in answer to the question "What Constitutes a Good Husband?" in the July Ladies' Home Journal. If you have the luck to chance on a good-tempered man, and gain him for your husband, see that you prize the gift, and that you do not abuse it. Give him smile for smile, and bear with as he is sure to bear with you. I have seen one or two cases where a fretful girl, relying too much upon the sweetness of her husband's temper, has ended at last by turning that sweetness into gall. Therefore if God gives into your keeping a bright and kindly spirit, take care that you do it no injury.
