Here and There.

Interesting Bits of News Taken from all sources.

A second crop of apples has started to grow on the orchard trees of Farmer Stevenson of southern Curry county.

A good many cattle are being de-horned this winter in Clatsop county. The price of dehorning is 10 cents a head.

Two hundred and thirty bales of hops are ready for shipment from Independence, four car loads from Scio and one carload from Harrisburg.

The result of the trial of Brown in Roseburg, for the killing of Fred Kincaid, at Oakland, several months ago, was a verdict of murder in the first degree, which means that by law his life will be taken as a penalty for the rash act he committed.

News has been received the state building commissioners at the capital have purchased the site for the Eastern Oregon branch insane asylum, which is to be located at Union. The land bought consists about 600 acres of excellent valley land, lying southwest of the city.

The proposed new county to be formed from Western Lane and Douglass does not meet with much opposition. The Eugene Register, republican, and Guard, democratic, are willing. The plan is to leave the selection of county seat and officers to the next regular election.
 Blaine county is the name suggested two years ago.

Messrs. Cartwright and Le Masters have associated themselves to publish a new paper for the benefit of Harrisburg and vicinity. The name of the paper will be the Linn County Review, and the first issue will be on the 14th inst. They have a good field and it now remains for them to show what they can do with this opportunity.

Mount Rainier was smoking again today. The smoke was coming out of the crater in volumes and was noticed by several hundred people. The air was exceptionally clear from 9 o'clock this morning until 1 o'clock this afternoon, and the mountain could be plainly seen, but in the afternoon it clouded up and the mountain was only visible at intervals, and then the view was obstructed by mists and heavy clouds. There were no indications of an eruption at all this afternoon, but the mountain was plainly smoking and emitting jets of steam.
 The Post-Intelligencer expedition to explore the mountain will leave Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will endeavor to reach the summit.

The United States revenue cutter Richard Rush, has returned from her cruise along the west shore of Vancouver island in quest of news concerning the missing collier Ivanhoe, which sailed from Seattle for San Francisco, September 27. At Nettie Island a life buoy belonging to the Ivanhoe was obtained from the natives, who found it several weeks ago. The stern end of a ship's dingy boat and some other small fresh wreckage were found in the same vicinity of Barclay sound, but nothing further than the buoy to indicate that it belonged to the Ivanhoe. The Rush's cruise extended to Cape Scott. A succession of heavy gales were encountered. Captain Hooper, of the Rush, says he visited every settlement and trading post, making diligent inquiries and offering inducements to the natives for information, but he was unable to find any trace of castaways on the island.

The Bilyeu family has a member in four newly elected city councils in Linn county—W. M. in Jefferson, J. C. in Lebanon, J. M. N. in Brownsville, and Lee in Scio.

Deputy United States Marshall Bentley had a warrant for the arrest of John Heathman, a prominent saloon-keeper at Pendleton. The saloon man in a rage refused to go and threatened Bentley's life. Bentley waited until Heathman sobered and then took him to Portland for selling whiskey to Indians. The whiskey cases will be prosecuted the same as before Judge Bellin-ger's famous decision. The prisoners will now be taken to Port and held for indictment, instead of being held for information.

The board of election commissioners have met and announced the result of the official canvass of San Francisco's vote for governor and lieutenant-governor, as follows:

For governor—Bubbs, democrat ..... 32,069 Estee, republican ..... 20,615 French, prohibitionist ..... 500 Webster, populist ..... 6,459

For lieutenant-governor—Jeter, democrat ..... 27,432 Millard, republican ..... 24,009 Dunn, prohibitionist ..... 1,028 A. J. Gregg, populist ..... 4,709

Reports have reached the Pendleton Tribune of a terrible storm in the Birch Creek mountains. A farmer named Bissett, driving four horses, was overtaken by a blizzard at the High bridge. On the steep grade, he met a team, and in attempting to turn aside, the team and wagon were precipitated over an escarpment to the bottom of the gulch, 200 feet below. Mr. Bissett escaped by jumping off the wagon.
 Two of the horses broke loose and were found several miles distant in the morning. The wind blew fiercely and a large amount of snow fell, and the storm goes on record as one of the most severe ever known in that vicinity.

The people of Oregon would like to see the 400 convicts at the state penitentiary put to work. Since the legislature two years ago the prisoners have had nothing to do but take regular walks around the prison yard and the institution which costs the taxpayers about $60,000 has earned absolutely nothing. The question of road building by convict labor was agitated two years ago, but of late we have heard nothing of it. Oregon needs lots of work done on her roads and if some means of proper guarding the prisoners could be thought of, road-making would be the most appropriate work the prisoners could be put at. At all events our next legislature should terminate this period of pernicious idleness.— Rogue River Courier.

The following dispatch has been received in Portland from Fort Canby: "The light on Tillamook Rock was not burning last night. A storm of unusual severity has prevailed the last week. The wind here has a velocity of 77 miles per hour. Tides are higher than for years. The gale was unusually heavy all day Sunday. It is supposed here that the lighthouse at Tillamook Rock is greatly damaged." A dispatch was also received by Captain Farenholt, light-house inspector, from the keeper of the lighthouse at Cape Disappointment stating that no light was visible at Tillamook, and in the evening his assistant, Lieutenant Bliss, left for Astoria to investigate the matter. The Columbine is now at that port and will probably go over to the rock this morning.
 Captain Farenholt did not place much faith in the story from the fact that the light cannot be seen from the Washington station, except in clear weather.
