LOCAL NOTES

For Men's, Boys' and Misses' Straw Hats go to O'Briens.

Mrs. Whiteford came up from San Francisco on the last steamer.

The steamers Farallon and Arcata were in at Yaquina the first of the week.

J. W. Brasfield is expected to arrive in this county shortly, being now in Pocatello, Idaho.

O'Brien's Spring and Summer Stock is the most complete ever shown in this county. Call and see for yourself.

S. A. Logan and family drove up from Newport to help decorate today. Sam drives a pair of high-stepping mules these days.

A. L. McFadden is down from Chitwood this evening on business. Mac has been doing a good deal of law business out at Corvallis lately.

Messrs. Bamford & Hahn have purchased three yoke of oxen for use in their logging camp near Mill Four. The boys will toll logs in great shape now.

Ed. Dunn, of Portland, was visiting relatives on the Bay over Sunday. While here he also took occasion to do some business for the dry goods house he represents.

Mr. J. G. Holcombe, the U. S. engineer in charge at Newport, will make a new survey of the harbor. The tug Gen. Wright, now at Coos bay, will be used in making the survey.

John Klingsley came up from the Alsea country to-day and will make proof on his homestead tomorrow. He was accompanied by Carl Schimmel and Wm. Tellask, who will act as witnesses for him.

L. O'Brien says he will meet any catalogue or price list with his stock and prices. Call on him when it need of anything in his lines and see what you are buying. We are sure you will profit by it.

A. J. Rader and Jim Miller started on a voyage of discovery in the great Siletz country the first of the week. If their compass don't jump a cog and they can find any cougar meat there is a fair hope of their return in the dim and misty future.

The fifth annual association of nurserymen of this state will be held on June 5, at Woodburn, commencing at 10 a. m. An interesting program has been prepared and it is expected that action will be taken on several questions of importance to every nurseryman in Oregon. All nurserymen and florists are asked to attend.

Messrs. C. B. Crosno, A. O. Krogstad, John Lucas and J. F. Stewart have returned from their trip to the Siletz country. They returned one at a time and each seemed to have something on his mind. They report having a nice time, the rain preventing the sun from shining too hot on them. It is pretty safe to say that they will have to have a guarantee of good weather before they ever start on such a trip again.

We would call especial attention to O'Brien's new advertisement in this issue. The fact of the matter is, Mr. O'Brien has an immense stock of new goods just unpacked and he wants to sell them. He is too shrewd a man to think that he can do this unless he puts the price as low as they can be bought for in Alsea, so he has put the price so low that Mr. O'Brien is a close buyer and seller. He has had the clothing and furnishing goods, trade of the Bay country for some time, and if price and quality count for anything he going to keep it.

Monroe Butler brought the first strawberries of the season to town. County Judge Burt made a trip to Elk City last week on county business.

The old flag pole in front of Fish's store has been cut down and a brand new one raised just south of the sidewalk.

Notice.—Patrons and all others interested in the Creamery are requested to meet tomorrow, Friday, at Grady's hall. Business of importance will be discussed.

The testimony in the case of Moss vs. Richardson, involving the ownership of the steamer Richardson, was taken before Referee J. Fred Yates at Newport last Tuesday.

The LEADER next week will contain an exhaustive writeup of the Siletz country. The article will be a valuable one to send to friends who contemplate coming to Lincoln county.

A co-operative exchange society has been organized in Toledo. It is proposed to do business through the medium of labor exchange checks. The venture will be watched with considerable interest.

Wm. Ennis, a former resident of Newport, and now of Jacksonville, Oregon, is in the toils of the law. A man by the name of Neathammer lost $7,000 which he had buried in an oat bin on his place, and a step-son of Neathammer and Ennis are accused of taking it. Ennis is now running a gambling outfit in Jacksonville.

The session laws of the recent session of the legislature have been received from the secretary of state by County Clerk Jones. They do not make so bulky a volume as the laws of 1892-3 did, and the general laws in them are very short. In fact the largest is the general appropriation bill, and the cost of printing them.

The principal attorneys in the O. P. appeal case on both sides went to Salem in a body to ask the supreme court to advance the case on the docket that it might come to a speedy hearing. Taking the importance of the case into consideration, and the further fact that both sides are clamoring to have it advanced, it is very probable that it will be done.

They had a city election out at Corvallis last week, and from all accounts it must have been one of the wild and woolly kind. As a kind of an aftermath warrants have been issued for five different individuals charging them with illegal voting and it is said that there is more coming. It does look like a revision of public morals in Corvallis would not be amiss.

Decoration Day.

Decoration day was duly observed at Toledo today. The program as prepared was carried out as far as possible on account of the inclemency of the weather. The exercises in the forenoon consisted in sending a committee with flowers out to decorate the graves at the cemetery. At one o'clock in the afternoon the exercises began at the court house. The usual ceremonies of the Grand Army were gone through with, interspersed with music. Recitations by Anna Alexander, Emry Bridgman and Leon Rosebrooks, and songs by the choir preceded the address of the day. The address was delivered by Hon. R. A. Bensell and was a very patriotic and fitting one. After the address the song "America" was sung, benediction pronounced and the exercises were over.

Not so large a crowd as usual was present, owing no doubt to the inclemency of the weather. Geo. Sylvester and R. A. Bensell were the only G. A. R. men up from Newport, and B. F. Hahn, from Yaquina.

Elk City Items.

All quiet at the stock exchange. H. Terwilliger, of Portland, is with us for a few weeks. His family will come the last of next month to spend the summer.

Roscoe Mays has charge of the cooking department at the Elk City hotel.

Two men were slightly injured

at the quarry Tuesday.

Two men with their household goods, Bancroft and Vonderlist, are up Big Elk for the same claim. One made filing at Toledo, the other at Oregon City. Who does the claim belong to?

Contractors have both derricks in place at the quarry to commence loading rock.

Mrs. O. G. Dalaba went to Minnville yesterday on a two week's visit.

E. M. Mays, of St. Helena, California, is thinking of re-locating in Lincoln county, and engaging in the general merchandise business.

Robert Campbell, the Toledo butcher, makes us a visit twice a week.

Married men are on par with single men just now.

Will Arnold, of Drift creek, bought a lot in Elk City last week.

Judge Burt was up Monday looking after the county road at the rock quarry.

There is talk of a twenty-five cent dance at Terwilliger's hall next week.

JACK.

Chitwood Chips.

Weather nice today after the refreshing rains of the last two days.

Crops of all kind look well, and health generally good.

J. E. Wilson has recovered from his late illness.

Archie Pepin, son of L. F. Pepin, cut his knee quite badly with a drawing knife, and it was feared it would injure the joint, but it is healing without any injury.

Rufus Chitwood, son of D. J. and Lena Chitwood, was taken suddenly ill last Sunday evening with strangulated hernia, and was very bad, but Dr. Carter brought him out all right.

I. F. Eddy had the misfortune to loose his house by fire last Saturday. The fire had gained such headway before it was discovered that nothing of any value was saved. It was partially covered by insurance.

E. D. Young had the bad luck to lose a fine cow a few days ago by drowning.

The people around Chitwood are mending their ways, i. e., the highways by working the roads. L. F. Pepin, our supervisor, is doing substantial work. We believe he is the right man in the right place.

I hear that Uncle Jack Allphin has changed his mind about going to the Sandwich Islands to escape being the next democratic president and concluded to join the populists. He says there will be no chance of election if the nomination is forced on him. A good idea Jack.

Decoration is to be observed here by working on the cemetery. We hope that all will turn out.

I. & L.

May 28, 1895.

Norton Notes.

Wednesday afternoon when the teacher left to attend the institute at Toledo the pupils gave the school house a good scrubbing. The directors erected a much needed out building about a week ago.

A dance was given at Mr. Benj. Beers' place Friday night. Mr. Glass furnished the music. The proceeds of the dance were donated to Mrs. Booth, who remains quite ill. The amount was about four dollars.

The organization of a literary society was announced for last Saturday evening, but owing to the inclemency of the weather no one came to the school house.

Norton Sunday school had election of officers yesterday, incumbent to serve until January 1, 1896. They are, Geo. Croxford, superintendent; Clyde Huntington, Assis. Supt.; Sallie Huffaker, secretary; Mrs. Porter, treasurer; Mrs. Croxford, choir leader, and Mrs. F. Wagner, librarian.

Mr. Jas. Huntington has received his commission, and the postoffice of Nortons will soon be in working order.

Eddyville Items.

It has been rather rainy for the last few days, but not enough so but what the dwelling house of Israel F. Eddy burnt down with nearly all the contents on the 25th day of this month. Mr. Wilson was the first to see it burning, but it was beyond saving when we saw that it was on fire.

There is quite a number looking for places around here now days. There was four claims taken the other day, all of section number 8.

The folks have mostly got their gardens planted, and some have had new potatoes.

Gardens look well, also all other crops seem to be putting in their best licks at growing.

Bees seem to be doing fairly well considering the wet weather.

There is considerable of a business going on in the chittim bark business that seems to hold its own though it is rather hard to get it dry.
