Text Books For The Oregon Public Schools.

At the meeting of the state board of education last week the final contest over text books for the use of the schools of Oregon was finally figured out and decided. The last bitter fight was between the two principal series of "Word Lessons," which was decided in favor of Reed's by a majority of one over Watson's. That makes the complete list of text-books as follows, all but the last six having been decided in January:

- Swinton's New Word Analysis.
- Barnes' New National Reader.
- Webster's dictionaries.
- Spencerian system and copy books.
- Fish's arithmetic, Nos. 1 and 2.
- Brook's Mental Arithmetic.
- Monteith's Elementary and Comprehensive Geographies.
- Smith's series of primary text-books in Physiology and Hygiene.
- Steele's Hygiene and Physiology for high and advanced schools.
- Barnes' Primary and Brief History of the United States.
- Loomis' series of Vocal Music.
- Barnes' General History.
- Monteith's Popular Science.
- Robinson's Algebra and Geometry.

Bryant & Stratton's system of Bookkeeping.

Ward's Business Forms.

Steele's Chemistry, Botany, Astronomy, Physics and Geology.

Maxwell's First Book in Language.

Maxwell's Introduction to English Grammar.

Maxwell's Advanced English Grammar.

Peterman's Civil Government (Oregon edition.)

Steele's Popular Zoology.

National Number Tablets.

Song Wave.

Gov's Moral and Manners.

Kidd's Elementary and Vocal Culture.

Johannot's National History and Historical series for primary and intermediate schools.

Geographical reader.

Irving's Sketch Book and Tales of a Traveler.

Scott's Ivanhoe, Lady of the Lake, Abbott, Marmion and Woodstock.

McCauley's Essay on Chatham.

Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, Julius Caesar, Merchant of Venice, and Midsummer Night's Dream.

Webster's Bunker Hill Orations.

DeCoverley Papers.

Arnold's Sohrab and Rustum.

Emerson's American Scholar.

Reed's Word Lessons.

Manson's Series of Spelling.

Electric Series of Drawing.

Smith's Studies of English Literature.

Waddy's Composition.

Electric Geography.

the decree provided that the purchase price might be paid in receiver's certificates, and the order under which the last sale was made required payment in cash only. They also urged that amount of the bid was inadequate, and that newspaper advertising was a part of the policy of the purchasers. It was asserted that Bonner and Hammond are only catspaws in the hands of the Blair-Wharton faction of bondholders.

Wallis Nash, representing himself, William M. Hoag and other creditors, and W. C. Watson, representing George I. Coe and others, argued in the same line as Bronaugh and Fenton, relative to the departure from the original decree, and inadequacy of the price, and that the bondholders who had furnished money for the construction of the road should have another opportunity to bid.

Judge Bryson closed the argument in behalf of the confirmation, claiming that the defendant companies, represented by Nash, had no appealable interest; that the other appellants were not parties to the suit, and had never intervened, and therefore had no right of appeal. Judge Bryson made a most able and effective argument.

The mass of briefs to read, and the looking up of the numerous authorities cited will require several days time, and a decision is not expected before the first of next month. There is a strong belief that the sale will be confirmed.

The Grady Road Case.

Judge W. S. Hufford, as attorney for C. M. Grady, has given notice of the appeal of the above case, which was recently decided by Judge Fullerton adversely to them, to the supreme court. The notices of appeal are now in Sheriff Landis' hands for service upon the interested parties. The cost bond has not yet been filed. The decree rendered by Judge Fullerton, divested of the title, reads as follows:

"The above entitled cause came on for hearing at the regular November, 1894, term of District court, upon the motion to set aside the findings of the referee, E. O. Potter, to whom the said cause had been theretofore referred to find the facts and the law therein. The plaintiff appearing by W. S. Hufford, her attorney, and the defendant by J. K. Weatherford, their attorney. After a careful examination of the evidence in said cause, and of the findings of fact made by referee in said cause, find that there is some evidence to support the finds of facts made by the referee, and that the conclusions of law reached by the referee would necessarily result if the facts in said cause are as found by the referee. Wherefore it is ordered and adjudged that said suit be and is hereby dismissed and that defendants have and recover from plaintiff costs and disbursements to be taxed.

Done at Chambers at Roseburg, Oregon, this 29th day of May, 1894.
 J. C. FULLERTON, Judge.

A scheme is on foot to raise $10,000 through the medium of the school children to furnish a solid silver dinner set, or other suitable testimonial for the battle ship Oregon. The amount levied against the school children of Lincoln county, so to speak, is $53. This is a small amount, and no doubt the donating of it would be very nice, but we believe for our part that if the officers of the battleship Oregon wish any $10,000 memento for their ship they should be allowed to purchase it. In the building up of our schools there are a needed worse than a chance to donate $53 for this purpose.
