Eighty-four degrees in the shade, fine weather for gardeners.

D. Kern left for Portland yesterday.

Saloon opened up Saturday night.

O. G. Dalaba returned from a trip to Portland through the Valley with a team. He reports the prospect for crops in the Valley to be fine. H. Terwilliger made the drive from Elk City to Portland in 22 hours.

The Tonquin will carry all who wish to go to the Fourth at Newport by water, round trip tickets fifty cents.

Valley people are commencing to come to a cooler climate along the coast.

Mr. Wilboit, of Drift creek, came over yesterday. He reports a hard frost in that locality the last of the week that cut vegetables back to ground.

L. W. Deyoe is improving the appearance of the town by giving his barn and fencing a coat of white-wash.

One hundred and twenty gallons of strawberries were sold at Elk City and Pioneer last Friday.

Prospect for a big bet at this place—only eight thousand dollars.—between T. O. Mays and D. Kern. Steamer Tonquin must beat the Volanta five miles on the run from Elk City to Newport.

Gardens are very poorly for want of rain.

Miss Ella Benson returned home last week from Corvallis. We are all glad to see Miss Benson back again.

We have some new neighbors on Mr. Evert's place, Mr. Mohr and family.

pleasant time reported by all present.

Mr. John Thissell is paying a short visit at Tidewater this week. There is at least one of the water's fair ones is always glad to see "Johnny come marching home."

Miss Nettie Gault returned today from a visit to Scot creek. She says it is one of the most delightful and attractive places it has ever been her happy lot to visit.

We came near having quite an accident here yesterday. Squire Wilson has a buggy and a span of blacks, of which he is justly proud, and feeling somewhat lonely, he hitched up and went to the sing at the school house. Just as he was assisting his fair companion from the buggy someone opened the door and frightened the team. They started down the road and the Judge made a flying leap and got on the seat but did not get them stopped until they reached the postoffice. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Gault made a trip to Waldport today and report that place all life. Another schooner is loaded with lumber and the tug was in waiting to tow her out. This makes two loads in the last week, and another is expected in soon.

Our jovial constable has discarded all flowers except one daisy from his bouquet.

The ruddy glow of many campfires are to be seen nightly on the banks of our beautiful river, as pleasure seekers are arriving almost every day. Fine hunting, fishing and cheap living makes this a very desirable place to spend the hot months of summer.

Mrs. Jas. and R. Barclay are entertaining friends from near Monroe this week.

There is talk of a store being started here soon. We will all be glad to see it.

dead and covered up with fern leaves.

Wm. Hosford is hauling lumber from Harrison's mill preparatory to building a barn on the Yahats.

Oscar Peterson went to the Yahats Sunday. There seems to be an unusual attraction for him down there.

The schooner Mary Gilbert is moving toward the bay at the rate of 200 feet per day, under the supervision of Capt. Jorgenson.

The Harrison Bros. are building a new wharf on the water front to pile lumber on by the shipload.

Mr. Bolton, C. Evans and daughter, Addie, came in from the Alsea valley today to get a breath of ocean breeze.

Clams and crabs are in in abundance these low tides.

The tug Robarts brought in two loads of freight this week for the merchants.

Mr. O. Thompson is supplying the Waldport market with the choicest variety of strawberries ever brought into this market.

C. S. Gideon has sold his shoe shop residence on First street to Harrison brothers, and is building another place of business in New Addition.

ANCIENT GREEK.

Norton Notes.

School closed last Friday and gave an entertainment in connection with the strawberry festival at the residence of H. S. Porter. Miss Laura Wright won the prize in arithmetic.

Andrew Porter is over from Sunshine to help in the construction of the new wagon road bridge between Nashville and the Summit.

Grandma Ady is very sick at the home of her son-in-law Mr. M. Huffaker.

The ninth annual meeting of the Oregon Press association is called to meet at Newport on Saturday, July 20, 1895, at 8 o'clock p. m. All arrangements have been made for hotel accommodations for the press and the general program of the session is being prepared by the executive committee. Those desiring transportation should notify the president, J. R. Beegle, St. Helens, not later than July 1.

The ways of the transgressor prove to be terribly hard and rough at times. McLaughlin, the police commissioner of New York city, in his Sing-Sing cell finds it so. And the defaulting clerk of the police court of Oakland, California, who took the money advanced to Honolulu, discovers the same fact. Just at present he is dangling between an insane asylum and the penitentiary, with one of those institutions as a sure resting place. All of which indicates that the old maxim of honesty is the best policy is constantly receiving exemplification.

Mrs. Fred Baker, about whom the LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER recently published the charge that she had induced a girl from Albany to run away with her, going to Newport, denies the charge. She says she offered the young lady the same wages she was getting at the restaurant, to work for her, either to stay with her mother in Albany or go to the bay with her sister and herself, the young lady chose the latter. Also that her son had secured a place to work in Jefferson, so sent Mr. G. W. Tyacke from that city to take them over. She also stated that she would have returned to Albany in a few days with the young lady in question.—Albany Herald.
