LOCAL NOTES

C. L. Gowell moved to Newport last Tuesday.

Dr. Carter was down from Elk City yesterday.

Milt Butler and family are visiting his parents at this place.

Charley Winant was up from Newport Tuesday evening.

Walter Kisor and wife are over Philomath to spend the Fourth.

Twenty-five teams passed Pioneer headed westward last Tuesday.

Mr. Gray, a brother of Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Bethers, is visiting at this place.

Attorney F. D. Carson made a business trip to Corvallis the first of the week.

Wm. Alexander stepped in a hole in the mill yard yesterday and as a consequence is carrying his leg in a sling.

F. M. Stanton was appointed administrator of the estate of Geo. W. Jackson, Sr., deceased, by Judge Burt last Saturday.

John Leabo, of Salem, a brother of Noah Leabo, of this place, is sojourning in this county, and will probably locate here.

T. C. Jackson, the Siletz photographer returned from Florence on the last trip of the Roberts, and is again holding forth at the Siletz.

Our people will make a general hegira today to Newport and Siletz to celebrate. The present prospect is that the crowd from Toledo will about equally divide between the two places.

A car of lumber will be taken to Eddyville to repair the county bridge at Little Elk. A scow load will also be taken to Pioneer to repair the bridge over Simpson creek.

Coquille Jim, a Siletz Indian, was in Toledo Tuesday and got full of red liquor, and on the road home he fell out of the wagon, and the wagon run over him breaking one of his jaws, and otherwise bruising him up. He was taken on to the Siletz and his wounds were dressed.

We come out a day earlier this week in order to give our large corps of reporters, editors, business managers and typos a chance to celebrate the great and glorious Fourth of July according to the dictates of their own conscience, and the size of their respective purses.

A couple of young men living in the country near Toledo were foolish enough to let some meddlesome persons work up a brutal personal encounter between them, which took place on the wharf at this place last Tuesday. Both young men are now heartily ashamed of their action, as they properly should be. We trust the boys will never be guilty of such disgraceful conduct again.

Joe Morrison, of Siletz, had an experience with a wild pony last week which he will remember for some time. He had a wild horse tied up to a tree with a rope, and went up to put a halter on him. He caught hold of the rope near the tree, when the horse swung round, catching one of Morrison's fingers against the tree. The horse swung back and so did Morrison, and both shut their eyes and pulled. Pretty soon Morrison felt something give way and opening his eyes he saw one of his fingers sticking against the tree. It was the third finger and was taken off at the last joint. Joe got his finger dressed and thinks he will be able to work again in a couple of weeks.

Troy Mays was in Toledo Monday.

Wm. Toner was up from Yaquina Sunday.

Miss Effie Crosno has a vacation at her school this week and is at home on a visit.

Robt. Schweibold came in from Portland yesterday evening and will stop on the bay a few days.

Geo. Bethers and M. E. Peairs with their families, are stopping at a cottage in Newport for a few days.

Johnny Steel has built a new hay and stock barn on his ranch north of town. Johnny is not going to have his hay get wet nor his cows stand out in the rain this winter.

The Siletz school closed for the term last Thursday. An entertainment was given by the school Thursday night, and was attended by many Toledo people, who all unite in speaking very highly of the affair. The term of school just closed is said to have been the most successful ever had at that place.

The contract for grading the cross sections on Hill street were let to J. H. McMurray, except that of Hill and Fourth streets, which was let to F. M. Stanton. The successful bids were as follows: Hill and Second, $18; Hill and Third, $25; Hill and Fourth, $7; Hill and Fifth, $35. The total cost of grading the crossings will be $85.

In the recent Ager and Klamath Falls stage robbery H. V. Gates, formerly connected with the O. P. construction, but now of Washington county, which county he represented in the legislature last winter, was of the victims. This was clearly a case of just retribution. Gates knows now just how the people of Oregon felt when he and his pals, in the guise of a legislature, were robbing them last winter. About the only difference was that the robber was brave enough to run some personal risks.

We understand that Messrs. Strong & Bain, of Salem, of whom mention was made last week, will put a cannery on the Siletz, instead of at Toledo. They expect to locate the plant at Skunk creek, about a mile below Medicine Rock. It appears to us that it would have paid the gentlemen to have located further down the river. It is very probable that a cannery will also be located down the river near the bay, and in case one should be so located, the cannery so far up as Skunk creek would get but few fish.

Married.

FANT-BUTLER—At the residence of the bride's parents near this place, on Sunday, June 30, 1895, H. R. Fant and Miss E. B. Butler, Rev. F. J. Strayer, officiating.

The contracting parties are well and favorably known in this community, and the LEADER joins with their many friends in wishing them a long life and a full share of conjugal bliss.

Some Little Things.

A philosopher once said that it was the little trials of life that killed people, and he was right. Individuals when confronted by large trials and vicissitudes rise above and conquer them in many instances, only to succumb to some smaller and petty trial that wears them out. These wise and terse remarks are made only to lay the foundation of a short screed upon the absence of many of the small trials and tribulations in our country. A brief list of a few things we are not troubled with in Lincoln county will be of interest to many who may happen to be suffering with a visitation from one or more of them. In Lincoln county there are no potato bugs, no bed bugs, no horse-flies, no house flies, no screen doors because you don't need them, no mosquitoes, no gnats to bite you while you are fishing, no poisonous snakes of any kind, no bugs or worms to destroy any kind of garden vegetables, no fruit pests, no wolves, no coyotes, no hot nights so that one cannot sleep, no sunstrokes, no scarcity of good spring water, no hog cholera, no grasshoppers, no crickets and no chintz bugs.

Tidewater Items.

A light shower of rain fell here Sunday, which was welcomed by almost everyone. It was not enough to damage the hay and it did the gardens much good!

Clarence Barclay and a number of our young friends are going to spend the 4th at Alsea valley. "The Hermit" wishes them all a very jolly time.

We are sorry to learn that our genial mail carrier is going to leave us. Clarence will take the good wishes of his many friends with him and we hope we may see him back this fall.

I. R. Gault sold a fine cow last week for $20. This makes the fourth one this spring at the same price, which is not so bad for one year.

Mr. D. Strobe, formerly a resident of this place, but late of Washington, returned last week with his family. He says he has not found any place that beats Lincoln county, and will make his home here in the future.

M. Beems, of Scott creek, was in town the other day and was boasting of their community being in the lead in the way of conveyances. He says that Otto Thisell, who is the proud owner of a fine saddle horse, has just purchased a fine double-seated saddle, which he says is "just immense."

A dance was given at the residence of Miss Annie Barclay, at Scot creek, last Friday night. Notwithstanding the busy season there was a good crowd in attendance and a jolly time was had tripping the light, fantastic toe till the wee, small hours of morning.

Miss Ina Depew, "school-marm" in the upper district is studying botany. She says of all the plants that grow here she finds the "Thisell" the most interesting.

J. C. Smith has just finished slashing ten acres of brush on his place at Tidewater, which improves the looks of the place immensely.

We are pleased to note that our esteemed neighbor, Mrs. Seeley, is so far improved in health as to be able to visit her two daughters at Corvallis.

Mrs. B. F. Smith, of Canal creek, paid a visit of a few days to friends here last week. She is always so cheerful and full of life that we are always glad to see her come and sorry to see her depart.

Miss Allie Mulkey, who has been taking lessons in the art of boat rowing has so far mastered the art as to challenge any of her fair sisters to a race of two miles for a handsome purse.

The other day Otto Thisell fell from a load of hay, and suffered some bruises about the head and face, being, as he expressed it, "mashed up all over." After an examination by Dr. Wilson he was pronounced in no imminent danger and was taken to his home at Eckman's slough.

As my dog has just informed me that my hogs are in the garden I must close for this time.

Yours in haste,

THE HERMIT.

Tidewater, July 2, 1894.

The President as a Target.

One of the most disgraceful features in our modern style of journalism is that the president of the United States, whose very station should command respect for him, is made a constant target for disrespect, writes Edward W. Bok in the July Ladies' Home Journal. It makes not the slightest difference whether we admire or do not admire the man who occupies the presidential chair. He is placed there by the expressed suffrage of the people, and when he is so placed and is the occupant of the high office, he has a right to the respect of the people of the country over which he presides. But this is denied our president. The decent respect which we mete out to ordinary men is refused him. We excuse this by saying that he is not our choice, or that he holds the position by accident. No man elected to the office of president of the United States can be an accident. He is placed there because of his fitness for that office. And although we may not agree always that he is as able as some other man, it is only pure justice that we give him the benefit of the doubt.

TOO LATE! TOO LATE!!

It is too late to get an Abstract of Title to a piece of land after you have bought it and found out that there are judgements and tax liens against it. The proper thing to do is to have the Lincoln County Abstract Company, of Toledo, make you an Abstract of Title before investing your money. A business man now days never buys real estate without first obtaining evidence of a good title. We warrant our work to be absolutely correct. Address,
