The further down hill the sled goes the faster it speeds.
If there is danger ahead stop at once, or soon you cannot.
Young girls often lose flesh, become very pale and weak, and can hardly continue their school work. Then is the time to check downward speed.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, acts as a brake to declining life. The downward course ceases, and the climb upwards begins. At the top awaits a new lease of life.
Prompt action brings prompt results.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.
Put up in 32 oz. and 64 oz. sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby.

A. B. CLARK, Master.

Nortons Notes.

Deaths—none.

Births—none.

Marriages—E. H. Bryant and Miss Lora Wright, of Sunshine, were united in the bonds of matrimony last Saturday. On Monday a dance was given in honor of the event which the young people enjoyed very much. May prosperity go with them.

The rain has spoiled much hay in this neighborhood.

C. Grover and Sene Young have returned from a trip to the beach.
They report a muddy trip.

A. E. Altree contemplates moving to Toledo.

J. W. Bryant is watching the tunnel for a few days for Eve Bryant, while the latter is off on his wedding trip.

Miss Maggie Dick was up from Toledo and paid Mrs. A. E. Altree a visit.

Mrs. H. S. Porter and sister are spending a week at Eddyville visiting their mother.

M. E. Huffaker will move back to Champoeg, Oregon, the first of September.

We will say to Miss "Pearl," our Norton correspondent, the matter in which she referred to in regard to there being two marriages soon is probably true. One of them has already come off and we think Miss "Pearl" will play an important part in the next one.

J. W. Bryant, of this place, and E. D. Young, of Eddyville, are having a time over the office of county stock inspector. Each of them are having petitions circulated asking the appointment of the county court.

Mr. Raley, of Portland, was at Norton last Sunday looking after the Sunday School at that place.
He left Monday for Portland and left a promise to call again at some future date.

Mrs. E. A. Porter has returned from a visit to King's Valley.

HARD TACK.

Nortons, August 5, 1896.

Chitwood Bark.

A nice moisture has been settling over the face of the earth for the last few days, and the farmers are very thankful. Most all the hay is in the barn and the rain will make lots of taters.

Health is good and all are happy and ready to speak a word for 16 to 1.

E. W. Durkee is having a shine put on his house. D. J. Chitwood holds the brush that gives it the finishing touch. It looks like a new house.

P. A. Miller, our genial section boss has a new house put up that adds much to the looks of his place.
H. N. Foster did the work.

E. W. Durkee has disposed of his fine blooded cows. L. F. Pepin is the lucky purchaser. The price paid ye scribe knoweth not.

Miss Maude Chitwood, of Albany, is out here enjoying the invigorating air and visiting relatives and friends. Master C. F. is happy.

Last week brought the mail that the Pops had swallowed the democrats head and tail, but later we learn that they only swallowed the head without the tail, and the head refuses to stay down unless they swallow the tail. Now it remains to be seen whether they will swallow the tail or puke up the head. If they throw up the head they will be in a bad fix. They will have a tail without a head.
Then through which organ will they speak during the canvass.

Prof. D. J. Chitwood, wife and son have returned from quite a visit through Yamhill and Tillamook counties. They say the Yaquina is a good country yet.

Everything so nice and green as ot what it is in the Valley.

Sharply Drawn Issues.

The Review of Reviews in speaking of the Chicago convention, and the nominees of the two great parties says:

"Whatever reason men may have believed they had for thinking that Mr. McKinley was more than half way a free-silver man at heart, he has since the Chicago convention made it sufficiently plain that he stands absolutely opposed to any propositions which look toward the shifting of the currency of the United States from the single gold standard, unless in consequence of an agreement with the principal commercial nations of the world.

A few weeks ago it seemed likely to the republican managers that the vote of the workingmen and farmers could be secured for McKinley to a very extent on the tariff issue. But Mr. Bryan is now competing for that vote in the most energetic fashion, upon the issue of the free coinage of silver. He and his managers at once adopted the policy of "carrying the war into Africa," and it was announced that Mr. Bryan's formal notification would take place—not in Lincoln, Nebraska, a where he lives—but in the great hall of the Madison Square Garden in New York City, in the presence of an audience of many thousands of people, where Mr. Bryan would endeavor to enhance his reputation as an orator to the greatest effort of his life. The indications are that Mr. Bryan will secure a very large support among the workingmen of the East. Nothing could be more erroneous than the assumption that he stands no chance of an election.
The effect of Mr. Bryan's nomination and of his manifest popularity soon began to make itself felt upon the stock market. The raids upon the Treasury's gold reserve began again, and on July 10 the fund fell below the one hundred million mark, and continued slowly but steadily to decline for some days thereafter.

It is within the range of possibilities that the administration may be compelled to resort to another bond issue before election day arrives."

—From "The Progress of the World," in August Review of Reviews.

An exchange says: "In a political campaign no man should permit himself to become angry. The moment he does so, he cannot argue his side of the question correctly, or successfully. We know from a personal knowledge that it is very hard to keep one's temper when some ignoramus will put forward a proposition of such dense ignorance that it would shame the worst informed individual during the "dark ages," when people gave a spoonful of live head-lice to cure the consumption. Nevertheless it's the best way to hold it down, and go right on with the argument in an unruffled manner.

Tom Reed says if McKinley is elected he can borrow five hundred millions on two minutes' notice.
What the people want is a president who will make it possible to pay, not to borrow. We owe too much now.—Salem Journal.

The hop growers of the Valley have agreed among themselves to pay only 25 cents per box for picking this fall. That gold standard price will not take many of our people over the mountains to pick hops this year.

The state school census, which has just been completed by Superintendent Irwin, at Salem, shows that there are in Oregon at present 129,623 children of school age.

TOO LATE! TOO LATE!!

It is too late to get an Abstract of Title to a piece of land after you have bought it and found out that there are judgements and tax liens against it. The proper thing to do is to have the

LINCOLN COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY, of Toledo, make you an Abstract of Title before investing your money. A business man now days never buys real estate without first obtaining evidence of a good title.

We warrant our work to be absolutely correct. Address.
