Scott Lane received a new Plano binder last Monday and took it over to Siletz where it will be put to work in the oat fields of Mr. Lane and his neighbors.

J. C. Hess returned from the Columbia river last Saturday evening, where he has been during the fishing season. He will go to his homestead on the Siletz, and will fish during the season there.

This season has been one of the best seasons for honey that this part of the state has enjoyed for many years. Bee keepers are universally loud in their praise of the great amount of extra fine honey stored up by their bees this year. The honey also has an excellent flavor this year.

The steam launch Mascotte is now making daily round trips between Elk City and Newport. Capt. Jorgenson is at the wheel and Ed. Allen at the engine. The launch is prepared to do all kinds of business in the light freight line, towing, etc. Capt. Jorgenson is an old hand with the boat, and it is now making good time and quick trips on the river.

A postoffice has been established at Kernville, and John H. Kern has been appointed postmaster. The office will be supplied from Toledo, and services will begin as soon as the contract can be let. This will be a great convenience to a large body of settlers in that part of the county, and will be especially so to Kern Bros. Packing company who have their cannery at that point.

At the official meeting of the board of the M. E. church last Monday night it was decided to proceed with the erection of a church building at once in this place. The building will be 26x44 with 14 feet corner posts. It will be put on the lot generously donated by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bethers just across the street in front of their residence. It is hoped to complete the building at an early date.

W. L. Nelson, representing the J. K. Gill company, was in Toledo Tuesday.

The bridge gang of the O. C. & E. is repairing bridges in the vicinity of Toledo.

Everybody is gone camping to Newport or some other place on the beach these days.

The State teachers' association meets at Newport next week. There is a promise of a large attendance.

Mr. B. Stilwell, a former teacher of Siletz school, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the Yainix, Arizona, school.

District Attorney Yates came up from Newport where he is rusticated with his family, and spent yesterday in this place.

Gov. Lord returned to Salem last Monday from his cottage at Seal Rocks where he has been enjoying his usual summer outing.

R. A. Miller and son Charles, of Elk City, left for Kernville last Tuesday where they will be employed during the fishing season.

A good sidewalk should be built from the Copeland corner to the court house before the fall rains set in. And that time is not far distant.

County Superintendent Irvin has appointed Rev. J. A. Townsend and Prof. L. K. Brooks as his assistant examiners for the ensuing year.

The crop of oats on the Siletz is not so good this year as last, owing to the lateness in getting the crop sowed, and the dry weather of the past month. The crop will yield fairly well, but there is a marked difference in the length of the straw.

The lumber has been sawed for the bridge across the Olalla near town, and the neighborhood on the other side of that classic stream will soon be able to drive into town with their teams. This will be a great and much needed convenience. The road will probably be extended on to Elk City inside of another year.

In speaking of the appointment of a county judge for Lincoln county, the Salem correspondent of the Oregonian says: "The governor has not yet made the appointment of a county judge for Lincoln county, and the contest waxed warm. The two principal candidates seem to be C. B. Crosno and J. O. Stearns. Numerous signed petitions in behalf of each have been sent in. The qualifications of both seem to be established. As an additional reason for the appointment of Stearns, his friends urge that the portion of the county lying south of Yaquina bay has no representative on the county board."

In connection with the contest for county judge the statement has been made that Mr. J. O. Stearns was made the victim of a trick last spring when a petition asking his appointment was forwarded to Governor Lord while Judge Burt was yet alive, and that the editor of the LEADER was responsible for the origination of the report that Judge Burt was dead. We wish to say that such statement is absolutely false, and the person who started such statement is guilty of a wilful, malicious and outrageous lie. We will give $10 to any person who will bring a reputable person that will testify that the editor of the LEADER ever told anyone that Judge Burt was dead at that time, or led anyone to believe that such was the case. Now let the parties who give circulation to this report produce their authority or stand branded as wilful liars. And again, we will give $5 to any person who will bring any reputable person that will testify that the report of Judge Burt's death at that time was started or originated by any person living in Toledo. Now let us have some credible evidence.

It pays to trade with Gowell. For cool drinks,—temperance—call on Gowell.

The sea trout are biting freely now at Elk City, we are informed.

It is reported that salmon have begun to make their appearance in the lower bay.

Governor Lord returned to his summer residence at Seal Rocks yesterday evening.

If you don't trade with Gowell now you will when you learn his quality, price and quantity for spot cash.

O. O. Krogstad has leased his farm east of town to a gentleman recently from the east. We did not learn his name.

Chas. Diven and wife, of Waldport are visiting at Silas Howell's. Mrs. Diven is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howell.

To the inquiries about the clam-bake to be given at Newport this year, we would say that no time has yet been set for it.

The republicans of Toledo precinct are talking of reorganizing their McKinley club, which has been allowed to languish since the last campaign.

Among the Toledoites that are camping at Newport are Mrs. B. F. Jones and family and Miss Effie Crosno, Prof. Brooks and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hall and Mrs. C. C. Kubler.

The east has been visited by a hot wave that left death and destruction in its wake. Hundreds of persons were prostrated by the heat in the large cities, and numerous fatalities occurred. All this is in striking contrast to the cool climate of the Pacific coast.

Col. E. Hofer, the editor of the Salem Capital Journal, passed through to Newport the other day and will spend a month or so there. The Colonel is an ardent free silver man, and an effort will be made to get him to make a free silver speech at this place in the near future.

County Assessor Howell, and his assistants, Mrs. T. E. Parker and Mrs. Geo. Bethers, are busily engaged in making up the assessment rolls for this year. They hope to complete the work in two weeks' time and have the roll ready for the board of equalization that meets on the last Monday in August.

Last Friday John McDowell was released from the Oregon penitentiary a free man. It will be remembered that Mr. McDowell was sentenced to two years imprisonment for the killing of his son-in-law John McCaleb, at the July term of court a year ago. Shortly after his incarceration he was made a "trustee" at the penitentiary, and by a system of credits for his good behavior he earned sufficient time to secure his release after a little over a year's imprisonment.

Two mighty nimrods from Toledo made their way to the head of Simpson creek last Friday and camped on the head of that classic stream that night in order to get a lot of good early shooting at the numerous deer that make that region their feeding ground. Bright and early they were out and sure enough they soon sighted game, both of the hunters sighted the game at the same time, and two shots rang out at once. The game dropped all right, and the two hunters rushed up to cut off a slice for breakfast. They were somewhat astonished to find that they had killed a fine Angora goat, and they were more astonished when the owner appeared and wanted pay for skinning the dead animal. The hunters compromised the matter and returned home without game of any kind. This story may be doubted by some, but if anyone don't believe it let them ask Ben Jones or Al Waugh about it.

Try Gowell for groceries. Gowell buys and sells everything. Everything on a cash basis at Gowell's.

The premium list of the 36th Oregon State fair has been issued. There are about $15,000 offered in premiums, and of this about $6,500 are offered in the speed ring. The fair will be held on the state fair grounds at Salem, opening Wednesday, October 7, and closes on Tuesday, October 13.

The sheriff informs us that unless the county court issues orders to the contrary at its meeting on the 19th, that the tax rolls will be immediately closed and the delinquent rolls made out preparatory to a collection of the balance of the taxes by levy and sale of property. In this event the costs will in many cases exceed the original taxes.

Since last week's issue we have taken a new census of the list of candidates for county judge. The revised list seems to be about as follows: C. B. Crosno, J. O. Stearns, Jas. Booth and Wm. Alexander. Mr. Booth is a passive candidate, and Mr. Alexander seems to be a kind of a dark horse in the race. He claims to have the endorsement of the county central committee. Just how many other aspiring candidates have their lightning rods hoisted the deponent sayeth not.

One Fred D. Carson, of Toledo, sets up a wail in last week's Post that he "cannot longer reconcile himself to living in Toledo, as under the guise of public improvement, churches as well as private individuals are robbed in a wholesale manner." Now as far as the church is concerned, there is no robbery of churches in Toledo, and whoever states that there is is a deliberate falsifier. There is but one piece of church property so far in Toledo and that, we understand, was donated by a citizen of Toledo to the church. And Toledo has pride enough to take care of her schools and churches; and we do not doubt but what the street in front of the Episcopal church will be graded without inflicting a burden upon the church society. As far as the gentleman reconciling himself to living in Toledo, we have only to say that he can do just exactly as he pleases about it. The same road that he came into the town on is still open and he can go out the same way, or any other that he wants to. He can even go to West Yaquina if he wants to, and nobody at Toledo will object. As far as the burden of taxation has fallen upon him the records show the following taxes paid by him:

State tax.....	0.00
County tax.....	0.00
School tax.....	0.00
Poll tax.....	0.00
City tax.....	0.00
Total, oo.oo

Should this burden be doubled we would not blame the gentleman for immediately leaving the town.

The railroad pile driver is work replacing piles under bridges above town.

The chittim bark industry has fallen off a little. The bark does not peel so freely now, and price is down a little also.

When the Governor appoints county judge, and the county court in turn appoints a stock inspector then the political atmosphere in Lincoln county will clear up sufficiently for us to decide between silver and the gold standard.

One of the best arguments to use, politically, when the fellow is getting the advantage in an argument is to call him a populist and an anarchist. That is always a regular clincher. It proves beyond a doubt that he could easily worst him in the argument if you only wanted to.

Poor Economy

By all means be economical. Don't be too economical where health or life is concerned. The matter of a few cents should never count between the old, standard and reliable preparations and the new, obscure and in many cases, almost worthless substitutes.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphite is as much the standard for all conditions of wasting in children and adults where the lungs are weak, affected, as quinine is the standard for malarial fevers. When you go to the store to get Scott's Emulsion, be fooled into taking something else they say "is just as good." It is Scott's Emulsion has gained its reputation by its superior merit, and nothing of its kind has ever equalled it. Your doctor will tell you that.

All druggists sell Scott's Emulsion. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.
