LOCAL NOTES

Dressed up—Gowell's store.

For clothing see the Fall and Winter Stock just received at O'Brien's.

A fine line of Gents Hats of the latest shades and styles just opened at O'Brien's.

Gowell's trade is still increasing. The volume of business done reduces profits to the minimum.

Wm. Hall, Thos. Harrison, Robt. Rowin and J. M. Russell, made up a delegation from Beaver creek that visited Toledo last Monday.

Ex-Representative John D. Daly wants to be chief reading clerk of the house of representatives at Salem this winter. Hope John will get the plum.

The whole story of the wonderful cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla is soon told. It makes the blood rich, pure and nourishing. It cures scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism.

Lillie Miller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Miller, of Chitwood, who was so badly burned some time ago, has so far recovered as to be able to walk around the house again.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk yesterday to J. C. Dixon and Miss Lizzie Van Orden, two of Elk City's popular young people. We tender congratulations in advance.

We are informed that Jos. Gideon has a cargo of about 30,000 feet of lumber on board his little schooner at Waldport, and as soon as he can get favorable weather will bring it around to this bay.

A. O. Hooker was down from his farm near Storrs last Tuesday. Mr. Hooker has proven himself to be a first-class farmer, as is evidenced by the excellent condition in which he has put his little farm during the past two years.

We are under obligations to Dr. Wakefield, of Little Elk, for a sack of onions, received this week. Dr. Wakefield always raised a goodly supply of onions on his farm on Little Elk each season, along with the diversity of other crops which he successfully cultivates. The onions are well cured and an excellent article.

An Odd Fellows Encampment was organized at Yaquina last Monday night by A. W. Bowersox, assisted by brothers from Corvallis and Albany. The Encampment was very successfully organized, and as it is centrally located on the Bay there is no doubt but what it will soon number a large part of the brothers of all the Bay lodges among its members. We did not learn who the officers were.

A dance was given at the Newport opera house last Saturday night in honor of the captain of the steamer Farallon, and his friends. The Farallon took a goodly crowd of Yaquina people over and the opera house was comfortably filled. Wires were carried from the steamer at her wharf to the opera house and the latter was beautifully lighted by electricity from the steamer's dynamo. For the first time in Newport a dance was given under electric lights, and it proved to be quite a novelty.

Go to Gowell's for bargains for cash.

For Holiday sweets, go to Gowell's.

Gowell is selling the best goods for the least money.

Hood's pills act harmoniously with Hood's sarsaparilla. Cure all liver ills. 45 cents.

Dr. Akin came over from Philomath last Saturday to render medical aid to Mrs. N. P. Stevens, of this place, who is suffering from a cancer in the breast. Dr. Akin is something of a specialist in the treatment of cancer. He pronounced the cancer curable, but said that it would take considerable time to effect the cure.

Silas Howell was in town the latter part of last week closing up all his business in relation to the office of assessor, which he has filled during the past year. He got all of his business into proper shape to turn over to his successor in office, settled up all the accounts of the office and stepped down and out, a private citizen once more. He will reside at Waldport this winter, but has not definitely decided what he will do next year.

W. A. Fash, a furniture dealer of Woodburn, Oregon, was in Toledo last Tuesday looking over the town with a view of locating here and engaging in the furniture and undertaking business. He was very favorably impressed with the prospect for such business here and will, in all probability, remove to this place at an early date. If so he will buy business property on Hill street and erect a building thereon for his business. Mr. Fash is an old acquaintance of the editor's and we hope that he will conclude to locate here. He is an enterprising man, straightforward in business, and will be a valuable addition to our town. We also believe that the opportunity for the line of business in which he will engage in, is a good one here. He is an old and experienced man in that line of business, and is also a good workman.

Two logging outfits are at work in a limited way, getting out logs for the Toledo mill. Burns and Tillotson have been putting in logs in Depoe slough from the Kyniston timber, and Dye Wade and Stoney Wells are at work getting logs into the water for Wade and Waugh, from the Al. Waugh timber on Depoe. Frank Stanton and his sons have been putting some logs into the Olalla also. As soon as sufficient logs are in the boom at the mill we understand that Mr. Gregson will start up the mill and saw sufficient lumber to put a good stock of lumber on the mill yard, and then he will close down long enough to have the mill thoroughly repaired and put in good shape. Several improvements will be made in the mill, and when he is ready to start up again he will have the mill in shape to fill any demand made upon it.

Gowell buys and sells everything. Johny Akin returned from Portland last Saturday.

The steamers Farallon and Homer both sailed last Monday.

Jas. McDonald and Ed. Paine were down from Chitwood, last Monday.

H. E. Collins left last Monday on the Farallon for a short stay at Port Orford.

Just arrived—A fine line of Holiday goods; very desirable for Christmas presents. Call and examine our goods.

O'BRIEN'S.

A positive cure is attained in all cases of catarrh by using Prescription No. 1. Try it and be convinced. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

Geo. King was up from his ranch with Yaquina Bay oysters, which he found ready sale, for Christmas dinners. We return our thanks for a nice lot of them.

Newt. Williams, Frank Perry, Pat Nagles and Ora Copeland left last Monday for Victoria, B. C., where they will embark on another sealing cruise. They will go on the schooner Cox.

Prescription No. 1 is not a cure-all remedy. It is a scientific compound for the cure of catarrh only, which it does. You will say so yourself if you have catarrh and try it. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

We acknowledge a liberal sample of the bride's cake of the Landis-Nevers wedding, and return our thanks to the bride therefor. The cake was presented to the bride by a friend in Minneapolis, Minnesota, her former home.

J. H. McNeil, the Pioneer merchant will leave that place and return to Toledo at an early date. He will resume his old business here, and for the present will occupy one side of Fish's store. He finds Toledo the better business point.

Do Good Rebekah lodge of this place elected officers for the ensuing term last Tuesday night. The following officers were elected: Alice Waugh, N. G.; Eunice Akin, V. G.; Annetta Krogstad, secretary; Hattie Gaither, permanent secretary; Ella Stewart, treasurer.

Newport again has regular steamer connections. The Richardson going down last Sunday to take the run. The owner of the Richardson, Mr. Wulf, has received assurance from the railroad that he will be allowed the run next summer without any opposition on their part, and the citizens of Newport have also made liberal guarantees. This was a very proper thing to do. The Richardson is a safe, comfortable and economical boat, and will run the year round. The officers of the boat are Chas. Jahn, captain; Jack Cahill, engineer, and A. H. Hampton, purser. A gentlemanly and courteous set of officers.

The long continued suit of Murphy vs. Gorman, that has been pending in the county court for nearly a year was brought to trial last Tuesday before Judge Stearns and a jury of six men. The suit was brought by Murphy for $500 damages for being imprisoned as an absconding debtor at the instance of Gorman. Murphy was represented by Judge McFadden of Corvallis, J. R. Wyatt, of Albany, and H. Denlinger, of this place, and Judge Hufford, of Corvallis, appeared for Gorman. The suit dragged all day and far into the night before it was submitted to the jury. A verdict of $462 was returned for Murphy by the jury. An appeal will probably be taken.

The fiat has gone forth; there will be no lady clerks at Salem this winter—that is, hardly any.

That must have been an edifying sight to have seen J. N. Dolph, Geo. H. Durham and a few other members of the Oregon Road Club, telling how country roads should be made, at the road convention at Portland last week. Lots they know about how to work country roads.
