

Rock Creek Ripples.

Mrs. G. W. Kneeland and her son Harry have started for San Francisco, where he has work. Mr. Kneeland will probably join his wife if he finds sale for his cattle.

Miss Edna Miller, of Nashville, and her nephew, June Edwards, were on Rock creek this week looking her brother's cattle.

Geo. B. Trotter has returned after a week's sojourn at Independence and Fall City.

Oscar Belcher had a very troublesome tooth extracted while at the Agency. On his return he paid a visit to the families of A. W. Skinner and G. B. Hampton.

Linn Skinner is hard at work on his ranch. His father is still teaching in Eastern Oregon, and his health is much improved.

Miss Ida Skinner and Miss Maggie Hampton, two of our "school ma'ams," visited the Steer Creek school Wednesday afternoon, and were much pleased with the little school under the management of Miss Edith Lillie.

Rock Creek is still making improvements. Now it is a good trail over the hill opposite Rocky Point which will save twice fording Little Rock creek. Andrew Porter and the men who helped him deserve much praise and the thanks of everyone who has to travel from Rock Creek to Nortons. A good wagon road could be put on this pack trail at no great cost and it is much needed.

Glen Happenings.

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Marriages—none.

Deaths—none.

Births—none.

The health of the people is exceptionally good, with the exception of colds and other minor ailments.

Drift Creek is coming to the front in the matter of dances. The one at Mr. Irven Holbrooks Christmas Eve, was quite well attended and enjoyed by all those in attendance, especially the supper which was excellent, consisting of chicken, pork, beef, several kinds of pie and cake, and other good things too numerous to mention, all of which were very good indeed.

The Christmas tree and dance at Mr. John Watkins' on Xmas night was the most enjoyable affair of the season. Prof. Banks had a well arranged program which was well executed. B. F. Wilhoit called off the presents. The tree was beautifully arranged and well loaded with nice present, many hearts were made glad, especially Mr. John Watkins and Mr. C. M. Brown, who each received a mince pie. The dance after the Christmas tree was well attended and enjoyed by all present. The supper could not have been better. The music was first-class and was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arnold and David Shipley. Messrs. Lester and Willis Grant, David Shipley, Ben Young, Lee Chapman and George Simmons, and Misses. Bernice Grant and Millie Young were present, and enjoyed themselves so well that they promised to come over again New Years to attend the dance at the same place.

Billie Jenkins and Herbey Brown, of Toledo, spent Xmas with us. We hope the boys enjoyed themselves. Come again boys.

Mrs. Cora McDonald is visiting friends on Drift Creek.

The Glen Sawmill is again repair and will start up again as soon as the creek raises again.

M. Irven Holbrook has his new house almost completed.

Merit

Made and Merit Maintains the confidence of the people in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It a medicine cures you when sick; if it makes wonderful cures everywhere, then beyond all question that medicine possesses merit.

Made

That is just the truth about Hood's Sarsaparilla. We know it possesses merit because it cures, not once or twice or a hundred times, but in thousands and thousands of cases. We know it cures, absolutely, permanently, when all others fail to do any good whatever. We repeat

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills cure nausea, indigestion, biliousness. 25 cents.

For Sale.

Since McKinley is elected I have several fine places for sale cheap. Some well improved farms. Some good sheep or goat ranches. If you want good bargains come and see Dated November 23rd, 1896.

GEORGE A. LANDIS, Sheriff of Lincoln County, in the State of Oregon.

Notice of Sheriff's Sale.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT UNDER and in pursuance of an execution and order of sale of attached property, issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County, under seal of said court, bearing date November 23rd, 1896, upon a judgment duly rendered by the said court, in an action in which J. R. Bryson was plaintiff and Arthur St. Clair was defendant, on the 11th day of December, 1896, in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendant for the sum of $72.21, with interest at eight per cent per annum from the 11th day of November, 1895, and for $27.25 cents cost and for the sale of the real property hereinafter described, attached to the said action; and when said judgment was duly docketed in the judgment docket of said court on the 11th day of November, 1896, and which said execution issued thereon, to me directed and delivered, and commands me to satisfy the said sum of money due thereon by the sale of the real property hereinafter described, the same having been heretofore duly attached by me in the said action. Now therefore, in pursuance of the said execution and order of sale I have levied upon the following described real property, belonging to the said defendant, Arthur St. Clair, to-wit: The west half of the southeast quarter and the east half of the southwest quarter of section thirty in township ten, south, range nine west of Willamette meridian, in Lincoln county, Oregon, and containing 160 acres, excepting, however, therefrom two acres sold off by Arthur St. Clair to J. J. Pippin. And on Tuesday, the 5th day of January, 1897, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the Court House door, in the City of Toledo, in Lincoln County, Oregon, I will offer, for sale, and sell at public auction to the highest bidder in cash in hand the above described real property and all the right, title, interest and estate of the said defendant Arthur St. Clair, of, in and to the said real property, to satisfy the amount due on the said judgment and execution, costs and accruing costs. Dated December 2nd, 1896.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS

Monthly

Illustrated

Edited by ALBERT SHAW

"If only one magazine can be taken, we would suggest the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as covering more ground than any other magazine."—Board of Library Commissioners of New Hampshire, 1896.

THIS magazine is, in its contributed and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable." It is profusely illustrated with timely portraits, views, and cartoons. Its original articles are of immediate interest, by the best authorities on their respective subjects. The Editor's "Progress of the World" gives a clear, rightly proportioned view of the history of the human race during the current month. The "Leading Articles of the Month" present the important parts of the best magazine articles that have been written in every part of the world. The newest and most important books are carefully reviewed. Indexes, chronological records, and other departments complete the certainty that the reader of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS will miss nothing of great significance that is said or written or done throughout the world.
