Gowell's stock and prices are all right.

A couple of Al. Taylor's children, near Yaquina, have been down sick.

S. A. Logan, the Newport merchant, was up from that place today.

Flour and feed will be sold at a low price at the store of Peter Tellefson, Yaquina.

Now is a good time to make your wants known, and trade with Gowell.

For the best groceries and fresh fruit call at Peter Tellefson's, Yaquina City.

The steamers Tillamook, Homer, Farallon and Robarts arrived, unloaded, reloaded and departed from this port since New Year's.

Prescription No. 1 is not a patent medicine, but a scientific compound lately discovered, which acts as a specific in nasal catarrh.

Don't be disappointed if you fail to get an appointment, for Gowell will make it easy for you to live, if you buy goods of him.

There was a pleasant taffy-pulling given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wade last night. A good time was enjoyed by all.

A New Years dance was held in the school house in the Parrish district New Years eve. A good time is reported by those who attended.

The suit of Murphy vs. Gorman which was tried in the county court a short time ago, has been appealed, and will be given another hearing in the district court.

We are prepared to do all kinds of blacksmith and wagon work, horse-shoeing, and all kinds of repairing. Give us a call.

Ross & Rice, Toledo.

Jas. Eglin, a liveryman of Corvallis, mysteriously disappeared last Friday night. The evidence and circumstances seem to warrant the belief that he was drowned in the Willamette.

Do you know that if you neglect catarrh in the head it will bring on other troubles that often terminate fatally. Stop it now and be cured from that disagreeable disease, by using Prescription No. 1. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

Wm. Boone brought a curiosity to this office last Monday, in the shape of a petrified foot of some animal, which he discovered in one of the old shell beds near Oyster-ville. The foot has eight claws, all of which can be plainly discerned. In other respects it resembles a bear's foot.

A lot of the young folks, and some of the old ones, danced the old year out and the new year in at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Huffman, north of town. A jolly good time is reported by all who attended, and especial mention was made of the excellent supper served.

Gowell's all right.

R. A. Miller came down from Big Elk yesterday.

Judge Wm. Alexander went out to the valley on business last Monday.

E. F. Gaar, the butcher, returned from a business and pleasure trip to Philomath Tuesday night.

Gowell will not send anyone to Salem this year, but he sells groceries for spot cash at knock-down prices.

A telegram from Yaquina called Dr. Parent to that place last Saturday to give medical aid to Luke O'Brien, who was quite seriously ill. At last accounts he was on the road to recovery.

A positive cure is attained in all cases of catarrh by using Prescription No. 1. Try it and be convinced. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

These extra warm days should be looked on with considerable suspicion. They are liable to start out fruit buds that will "meet up" with a keen and nipping frost before the spring time comes.

Prescription No. 1 is not a cure-all remedy. It is a scientific compound for the cure of catarrh only, which it does. You will say so yourself if you have catarrh and try it. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

A little scrap occurred on the reservation last Friday, between Capt. Geo. Harney and Fred Harney, a cousin of the former. According to our information clubs and a hatchet figured in the scrap, but no real serious injury was done.

The New Year's dance at Elk City is reported to have been a complete success. A large crowd was in attendance, and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present. The elegant supper served at the Elk City hotel was also a very pleasant feature of the evening.

The wave of prosperity must have struck Attorney Denlinger, judging from the amount of improvements and renovations he has made in his office lately. He has had the room repainted and repapered, and fixed up, besides adding several new volumes to his law library.

If your wife's aunt's second cousin by her step daughter knew the third cousin to the great-grandfather of the step-uncle of Mrs. McKinley's washerwoman, you are a pretty important personage and can afford to put on airs over it. You stand right in line to give out good solid endorsements for fat federal positions.

A delicate surgical operation was performed on J. R. Bryson at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday. The operation consisted in the removal of a tumor as large as a man's hand from the lower intestines. The news late yesterday afternoon was to the effect that the patient was doing nicely and, as the danger period was almost passed, it was expected that the operation would prove entirely successful.

Over across the Olalla, where the new settlers have been buying land, things begin to take on a more prosperous aspect. Mr. Ratche has just completed a new residence on his new farm there, and Mr. Peterson has about got his new residence completed. These men have worked bravely on through storm and sunshine, and already their efforts are beginning to tell. Mr. Muszynski, the gentleman who bought the Denlinger home place, has gone to work with a vim and vigor that is bound to tell. Each one of these new comers are well pleased with the country and say that several more of their countrymen will come and locate in this country during the present year.

Rev. Wm. Snow has concluded not to return to the east this spring.

Hood's pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, headache. 25c.

M. S. Woodcock, the Corvallis banker and attorney was over on business last Tuesday.

G. T. Smith is trying ranch life for a time, having recently moved up onto his excellent farm near Storrs.

Larkey Logan was sued in the justice court at Newport last Monday by holders of claims against the estate of Wm. Megginson, deceased.

City Council failed to convene last Monday night, that being the regular meeting night. The new council will hold its first meeting next Tuesday night.

You can be well when your blood is rich, pure and nourishing. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood rich and pure and cures all blood diseases, restoring health and vigor.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, the Albany attorney, was over on business last Saturday. Mr. Weatherford was a prominent figure in the free silver fight in Oregon during the last campaign.

To the allegation that the dogs got after him while up the river on New Year's day Henry Lewis sets up a vigorous and general denial, claiming that he just happened to pass along there just as the dogs run a deer to the river. And we believe Henry is telling the truth.

The meetings continue with interest. Presiding Elder John Parsons will preach for us Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock; Saturday at 7:30 p. m., and Sunday at 11 a. m. Quarterly conference Saturday at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation to all to attend these meetings.

W. H. MYERS, Pastor.

A lodge of the Knights of the Maccabees was instituted at Waldport last Saturday night. Dr. Carter went down and acted in the capacity of medical examiner. We did not learn the particulars, and wish that some of our friends down there would send us name, number of lodge, the officers and the regular night of meeting.

There will be a grand dance given at the court house Monday evening, February 23, 1897, Washington's birthday, under the auspices of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. of this place, the proceeds to go to the relief funds of these two worthy orders. These orders have been extending help to the families of some of their members who have been visited by sickness, and their funds have become exhausted. The object of the dance is a worthy one, and we believe will be liberally patronized by our people. Further particulars will be given later on.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. of this place had a joint installation of officers for the ensuing term last Saturday. Comrade Thos. Stakely acted as installing officer, and the following officers were installed: G. A. R.:—H. R. Sturdevant, post commander; T. J. Ewing, senior vice commander; Thos. Stakely, junior vice commander; Chas. Dick, quartermaster; F. M. Carter, surgeon; J. S. Conklin, chaplain; C. C. Kubler, officer of the day; C. M. Brown, officer of the guard. The W. R. C. officers were, Mrs. Eliza Ewing, president; Mrs. Ina Sturdevant, senior vice-president; Mrs. Judith Vincent, junior vice-president; Mrs. Nellie Campbell, treasurer; Mrs. Elma Hyde, chaplain; Mrs. Matilda Espey, conductor; Mrs. Rebecca Dick, assistant conductor; Mrs. Mary Arnold, guard, and Miss Eva Ewing, assistant guard. The ceremonies were public to the members' families.

Try the new remedy for catarrh—prescription No. 1. Price 75 cts. a bottle, at Krogstad's drug store.

Stop that catarrh in your head before it reaches your throat, by using Prescription No. 1. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

Agent Gaither, of Siletz, stopped over night in Toledo last Tuesday night while enroute home from Newport where he had been as a witness in the Logan case.

How often consumption has been traced to its starting point—catarrh,—and how many people are now suffering with nasal catarrh, and how many can be cured by using Prescription No. 1. Inquire about it at the drug store. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

A letter from J. H. Kern, written from Portland, informs us that the tug Tonquin is expected to go into the Siletz next week after the last load of salmon, at the Kernville cannery, about 900 cases. The season's pack has been all sold and the business for the year has been satisfactory, all things considered. He is somewhat discouraged over the fact that the summer was allowed to close without opening the trail to Kernville from Toledo. This was a mistake, but we have full confidence that the trail will be opened up early next summer.

Mrs. N. P. Stevens met with a very serious misfortune last Wednesday night, a week ago. She was standing before the fire on a rug, and was bathing one of her legs with some liniment for some slight ailment, when all at once her limbs gave way under her and she fell to the floor, falling on one of her legs in some way as to fracture it a short distance above the knee. Drs. Parent and Carter were summoned and reduced the fracture. The chances of recovery are not the best owing to the patient's age and general ill health.

Ones by ones and twos by twos members of the three houses of the Oregon legislative assembly are beginning to arrive in Salem, preparatory to the grand opening on Monday of next week. Senators and representatives are engaging quarters for the session, as are also members of the lobby and laborers in the vineyard senatorial. Applicants for every position from clerk and janitorship to United States senator and minister to Turkey—not omitting the railroad and sundry other commissions—are prominent among the number. The Willamette lobby is as yet enjoying a calm—but it is one of those peculiar calms that precedes a certain storm.—Salem Statesman.

Why the Lily Didn't Bloom.

Mr. George Stimpson, the accommodating driver of Wells, Fargo & Co's express, has been carefully nurturing a plant which he supposed was a Chinese lily. It was presented to him by Mr. W. M. Toner, express messenger on the Yaquina train, and looked like a fine specimen. But in fact Mr. Toner had peeled a big Oregon onion and nestled it artistically among some pebbles in a glass bowl. The plant, under George's tender care, acquired a splendid growth, but it refused to show any sign of blooming. A critical examination revealed the true state of facts, and now George is laying awake nights to invent a plan for getting even.—Albany Herald.

Oculist.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, of Portland, specialist for refraction and defects of the eye, will be in Toledo on January 7, and will remain four days. Dr. Vogel comes highly recommended as an oculist, and all suffering from weakness, or any disease of the eye, should consult him while here. At the Blake House.
