In the notice of the dance at the court house on Washington's birthday in our last issue, the type made us say Monday the 23rd, when it should have been 22nd. A natural consequence is, that we have received considerable "joshing" about not knowing the date of Washington's birthday.

"Rev. Levi Ruhl returned from his extended stay in Pennsylvania on Thursday last. He did not get the estate fully settled. Lands are very much depressed in value in Pennsylvania and it may take some time to dispose of all the property advantageously. Brother Ruhl is looking finely and enjoyed his trip and visit among his old friends greatly."—The Union, Belle Plaine, Iowa. The gentleman referred to above is a brother of C. H. Ruhl, of this place, and the property is the estate of which Mr. Ruhl is one of the heirs.

Messrs. Armstrong and Cox, the gentlemen who have had the Crosno-Jones beach mine near Otter Rock leased, have been compelled to surrender their lease, owing to the sickness of Mr. Armstrong, who has been compelled to return to the Valley. The mine has again been leased to Mr. Cox and Mr. S. A. Logan. Messrs. Logan and Cox agree by the terms of their lease to work the mine day and night. Heretofore the working of the sand has been seriously interfered with by the high tides, but that trouble is now overcome by hauling the sand upon a point of land out of reach of the high tides with a team and scraper. Enough sand can be taken up out of the way of the tides during low tide to keep the flumes running day and night, and the work can be kept going regardless of the tides.

THE MOCK LEGISLATURE.

Now Assembled at Salem, and are Engaged in a Dead-Lock.

The 18th biennial session of the Oregon legislature convened at Salem last Monday. The senate speedily organized by electing Joe Simon president; S. L. Moorehead, chief clerk; J. E. Blundell, door-keeper and C. B. Crosno, sergeant-at-arms. This was all according to program, and was done without friction.

The house, when it attempted to organize found themselves in trouble in short order. Davis of Umatilla county, was elected temporary speaker, and a committee on credentials was appointed, and they have "never done anything since." After being out nearly two days the committee finally made three separate reports, none of which were adopted. Filibustering tactics have been employed by a faction of the republicans present, assisted by some of the populists and democrats, and the house finds itself powerless to organize for business.

The whole fight, of course, is on the senatorial squabble. The fight is anything to beat Mitchell, and it looks a like they have it accomplished.

How long the squabble will keep up no man knoweth.

In the lower house of the legislature there are forty-three republicans and four democrats. Nevertheless Somers, a republican representative from Linn county, solemnly introduced a resolution arraigning the democratic members for their revolutionary actions in holding up the organization of the legislature. Somers ought to have a dose of paregoric administered at once to quiet his nerves.

On The Sand.

The little schooner, Edith, owned and commanded by Joe Gideon, of Waldport, lies on the sands of the south beach of Alsea Bay entrance. The schooner was loaded with lumber for Yaquina Bay, and on last Friday evening Capt. Gideon and the crew set sail for the voyage. All went well till the vessel reached the bar where she was met by contrary winds, and in a short time the vessel was driven on the sands. The schooner is not damaged and the lumber is probably all taken off by this time. The crew walked ashore at low tide.

LATER.—The schooner was got safely into deep water yesterday, and is not seriously damaged. The cargo of lumber was taken off and sold on the beach to Josiah Reynolds.

Try the new remedy for catarrh—prescription No. 1. Price 75 cts. a bottle, at Krogstad's drug store.
