The Youth's Companion Calendar.

The Youth's Companion Art Calendar for '97 has just made its appearance, and a delightfully original and artistic one it is, too. The Companion's yearly calendars promise to become a feature of every well-regulated household in the country. The one for '97 is the most costly one of its kind. The Companion has ever offered. It is printed in twelve colors, making a true reproduction of the original water-color paintings. The size is 10 1/2 by 24 inches. It is arranged in four panels, each containing the full length picture of a beautiful maiden most becomingly and appropriately attired for the season she represents. It is admirably suited for an ornament for mantel, centre-table or writing-desk. This beautiful Calendar is given free to all new subscribers to The Companion for '97, and to all old subscribers who renew and pay their subscriptions for '97. Illustrated Prospectus for the year '97 sent free on application. Address The Youth's Companion, 205 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass. It is currently stated that the senate now has more clerks employed than at any previous session.

SUIT HAS BEEN BROUGHT.

The Salary Question to be Passed on By the Courts.

Lincoln county will again enjoy the luxury of a lawsuit, the sheriff and the clerk refusing the salaries set for them by the county court at its December, 1896, term, and the matter is to be tested in a suit brought by the the sheriff for the same salary that the sheriff of Benton county receives. The action is a mandamus case brought against Lincoln county, J. O. Stearns, county judge, C. H. Williams and F. A. Godwin, commissioners, and the writ directs the defendants to appear before Judge Fullerton at Toledo, on January 25, 1897, and show cause, if any there be, why they do not audit and allow the claims of the plaintiff in the same amount that the same officer in Benton county receives. The only law in reference to the salaries of the clerk and sheriff is in the law of 1893 creating Lincoln county. In section 8, of that act, it is provided that "the sheriff and county clerk of said county shall receive the same fees as are now allowed by law to the sheriff and clerk of Benton county." In 1893, after the law creating Lincoln county had been enacted, the legislature enacted a law abolishing the fee system and placed the clerks and sheriff on salaries, but failed to provide any salary for the clerk or sheriff of Lincoln county. The legislature in 1895 again regulated the salaries of the various clerks and sheriffs of the state except those of Lincoln county, and no salaries were named for them. The supreme court has decided that the clerk and sheriff of Lincoln county were under the salary law and not under fees, and in the absence of any salary named the officers interpret their salary to be the same as the salaries of the same officers in Benton county, inasmuch as the law says their fees were to be the same. Service of the papers were made yesterday, and the case will be heard in court next week. Weatherford & Wyatt of Albany, and Judge W. S. Hufford of Corvallis, are attorneys for plaintiffs in the action, Judge J. R. Bryson was also one of the attorneys but was compelled to retire from the case by reason of his dangerous illness. Here's One Reason. The reason why the house has not yet been organized ought to be apparent to the people of Oregon. There is an effort to organize it in opposition to all remedial legislation, in opposition to all legislation in favor of economy and retrenchment. This is resisted. It includes the program for Mitchell's election. Yet the opposition to the election of Mitchell is not the cause of the failure to get a quorum to appear in the house. That matter could be and would be attended to at the proper time and in the proper way. But an organization of the house in opposition to remedial legislation is objected to. The Mitchell members are trying to force such organization, and it is resisted. This, plainly, is the cause of the delay of organization. It is resistance to organization of the house, on ring methods, for the prevention of retrenchment and for perpetuation of old abuses.—Oregonian.
