DISTRICT COURT.

A Short Docket, With but Little Litigation.

District court for the regular January term convened last Monday. The docket was not a very lengthy one and the court cleared up the business in two days and adjourned for the term. Not a jury trial was had, and the expense of securing a jury and the mileage and attendance of the jury was of no avail. The grand jury after being in session two days returned one true bill and one not true bills. The true bill was the State of Oregon vs. Geo. Crowder, on the charge of burglary. The defendant, which was a boy only a little under fifteen years of age, plead guilty and on Tuesday was sentenced to one year in the reform school.

The grand jury made a final report as follows:
 To THE HONORABLE J. C. FULLERTON, Judge:
 The grand jury would submit the following report:

That in accordance with the law and your instructions to us we have examined into all cases held for appearance before this grand jury and made due report thereof to the court; that we have been in session the past two days and have given due attention to all other business presented to us, reporting when necessary; that as per instruction of the court the grand jury have considered the matter of the sale of intoxicating liquor to Indians, and we would recommend that liquor dealers from this date discontinue all sales of liquors to these people, although there may be some doubt as to the law governing the sale of liquors to such persons.

We have visited and examined all the county offices, and from the short investigation given we found everything in good order, but inasmuch as several citizens and taxpayers have so requested, we would recommend that all the books of the county officers be examined by an expert accountant and report thereof made, the expense of the same to not cost more than $150 or $200.

Having finished all business presented, we respectfully submit this our final report, and ask to be excused from further attendance.

Merit Talks

"Merit talks" the intrinsic value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses actual and unequalled curative power and therefore it has true merit. When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, and take it according to directions, to purify your blood, or cure any of the many blood diseases, you are morally certain to receive benefit. The power to cure is there. You are not trying an experiment. It will make your blood pure, rich and nourishing, and thus drive out the germs of disease, strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.
