LOCAL NOTES

Do you know Gowell?

Did you get fooled today?

What do you want at Gowell's?

Peter Tellefson sells sugar and coffee, tea, baking powder, etc.

Judge W. S. Hufford was over from Corvallis on business yesterday.

John Robinson is up from Yaquina taking a lay off from the shops for a few days.

We file a motion right here that the weather clerk make the weather more definite and certain.

Ladies!—If you want a bargain in shoes try O'Brien's special sales he is selling a $3.50 shoe for $2.25.

Peter Tellefson, Yaquina, has a full line in flour and millfeed, and best wheat and oats. Call and see him.

N. Snow and Son have bought a parcel of land on Hill street from M. M. Hufford, and will erect a store building thereon this summer.

Prof. Geo. Bethers and family moved their household goods to Yaquina, at which place Prof. Bethers will begin teaching school.

Go to Gorman's, at Yaquina, if you want to buy latest improved Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines, at wholesale prices.

The prospect for a fruit crop this year in this county still remains uninjured, except some early pear trees that came forth and budded too soon.

Geo. Wadsworth and family arrived in this place from Portland last week, and will make their home for a time with Mr. Wadsworth's parents, near this city.

Jas. Booth, one of Yaquina's leading merchants, was up to Toledo yesterday paying his taxes. Mr. Booth is one of the heavy taxpayers of the county, and naturally feels the burden of taxes quite plainly this year.

A social dance will be held at the school house in the Parrish district on the night of Friday, April 9. The proceeds of the dance will be donated to the district for the purpose of fitting up the school house.

The Steamer Chilcat will arrive in at Siletz Bay this week with a cargo of goods for the Kernville store of Kern Brothers. It will consist of a full stock of flour, potatoes, all kinds of groceries, garden seeds, etc., and the store will then be prepared to supply all the wants of the settlers in that part of the county.

The family of Mr. Young, living on the Gowell place, is in very distressing condition. Mr. Young, his wife and two children are sick, Mrs. Young being very low, her life being almost despaired of last night. The children are all small, one of them being but a babe. Kind neighbors are caring for the children, and also doing all they can to help and care for the parents.

Gowell gives advice free.

Have you anything to sell to Gowell?

The dance given by the Woodmen last Friday night was quite an enjoyable affair.

Hurston Parks, a Big Elk farmer, was down last Monday adjusting his taxes.

Lee Wade is staying in the clerk's office this week in the absence of County Clerk Jones.

Peter Tellefson is still at Yaquina with a full line of General Merchandise. Call and see him.

Henry Burns, of this place, has been granted an original pension, but for what amount we have not learned.

Mr. W. V. Graves and family moved over from the Siletz last Tuesday, and will stop in this place for a time.

There is prospect of considerable building being done in Toledo this summer. Some very good improvements will be made.

The steamer Richardson took a scow load of fine building stone from the Rochester quarry down last Sunday. The rock is for the San Francisco market.

For the benefit of an anxious inquirer we would say that there is no close season on book agents. There is no bounty on their scalps, hence it hardly pays to kill them.

We are prepared to do all kinds of blacksmith and wagon work, horse-shoeing, and all kinds of repairing. Give us a call.

Ross & Rice, Toledo.

M. J. Allphin, of Little Elk, was in town Monday night. Jack replenished the county treasury to the extent of his own and five of his neighbors taxes. He returned home on Tuesday's train.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word. It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Speaking of walking, Harry Porter and N. F. Edwards, of Nortons, are not bad walkers themselves. They left their home yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, and walked to Toledo, arriving here at 11:40, covering the distance of 24 miles in four hours and forty minutes. This is at the rate of about five miles an hour, which is pretty good, considering the way the roads are.

B. F. Jones went to Alsea the first of the week, where he will try to secure water privileges and location for a salmon cannery on the Waldport side of the river. We understand that some Astoria parties are connected with Mr. Jones in this enterprise, and that if satisfactory arrangements can be made that Alsea Bay will have a second cannery before another fishing season opens.

Mr. F. J. McHenry lectured to a good sized audience at the court house last Thursday night in the interest of the Woodmen's lodge. His lecture was interesting and full of wisdom. In addition to the lecture a short program had been prepared, which was successfully rendered. The main feature of the evening outside of the lecture was a pie eating contest by several of the boys. The prize was won by Merril Van Cleve. This contest afforded considerable amusement, but it was just like running in a cold duck to allow the members of an editor's family to compete in a contest of that kind. In such contests in the future editors or the members of their families should be barred.

Call on Gowell for anything.

Dr. Carter was down from Elk City last Tuesday.

Tally one for today. The sun shone for a good part of the day.

Ira Wade will begin a three month's term of school in the Stanton district next Monday.

Among the Yaquina people who were in Toledo today were W. L. Smith, J. F. Huntsucker and B. F. Hahn.

We are informed that the Rochester quarry has secured a good contract to furnish stone in San Francisco. This is good news, if true, for the operating of a stone quarry means a large amount of money paid out for labor.

Do you know that if you neglect catarrh in the head it will bring on other troubles that often terminate fatally. Stop it now and be cured from that disagreeable disease, by using Prescription No. 1. For sale at Krogstad's drug store.

The county clerk has received from the supreme court the mandate in the Grady road case. The county will be called upon to pay the costs in this case, which are taxed at $379.95. To this can be added about $100 already paid by tounty to its own witnesses and it can be readily seen that lawsuits are expensive luxuries that few people can afford to indulge in.

A degree of Rebekah lodge was instituted at Elk City last Thursday night. Mrs. Anna Turnidge was instituting officer, and was assisted by a staff of grand officers from Do Good Lodge No. 70, of Toledo. Ten charter members formed the nucleus of the new lodge, but after the lodge was instituted the beautiful degree of Rebekah was conferred upon fifteen applicants. After the election of officers and conferring the degrees a recess was taken to the lower room of the building where the assembled brothers and sisters partook of a most bountiful repast, spread by the estimable sisters of Elk, in honor of the occasion. After doing full justice to the excellent supper, the brothers and sisters again reassembled in the lodge room, where the newly elected officers were installed into their respective chairs. The following were the officers installed: Mrs. Marie Miller, N. G.; Mrs. Olive Van Orden, V. G.; Mrs. Lillie Trapp, secretary; Mrs. Blalock, treasurer; Miss Maud Deyoe, warden; Mrs. Deyoe, chaplain; Mrs. Blair, R. S. V. G.; Mrs. King, L. S. V. G.; P. A. Miller, R. S. N. G.

Last Monday a complaint was sworn out by Ira Wade charging J. Long, a settler living about two miles from the Wade ranch, with killing a cow and a steer belonging to Mr. Wade. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Ross, who brought Mr. Long before Justice Hall's court. Mr. Long's son accompanied him to town and he was also arrested after arriving here upon the same charge. The preliminary examination of the father occurred first, being continued until two o'clock p. m. yesterday. The state was represented by District Attorney Yates and his deputy F. D. Carson, the former coming over from Corvallis Tuesday evening in response to an urgent telegram. The defense was represented by Judge Hufford, of Corvallis, and W. H. Alexander, of this place. The testimony was somewhat vague, but was deemed sufficient by the justice to warrant him in binding the prisoner over to await the action of the grand jury at the July term of court. The bond was set at $100 which was promptly furnished and the defendant allowed to go free. The case against the son was dismissed upon the motion of the district attorney.

Do you trade at Gowell's?

The steamer Farallon departed for San Francisco last Tuesday, and the Scotia arrived in after a load of stone for the 'Frisco market.

Considerable complaint is made of sheepkilling dogs, among the sheep owners around through the country. It is one of the most aggravating things on earth for a man to lose a lot of sheep by the ravages of worthless curs. Dogs ought to be kept close track of, particularly at this time of the year.

Mrs. A. Ivey, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Ben Jones is quite a secret society man. He belongs to nearly enough to keep him busy every night in the week, and his mind is full of grips, signs and passwords, but he took a degree last Sunday that was something new to him. It seems as though his boys took up a young steer that was nearly dead a couple of weeks ago, and shut it up in the barn, where they have since been feeding it. As the steer got strong the boys trained it to fight. All this was unknown to Ben, and when his wife asked him to go to the barn last Sunday for some potatoes, he walked right into the part where the steer was shut up, and closed the door without even seeing his steership, which was laying down in a dark corner. The steer was astonished and at once proceeded to make himself known—and felt. The first round ended with Ben on his back on the floor, and the steer in his own corner not even touched. By that time Ben had decided that it was not an earthquake nor a cyclone he had got mixed up with, and so he began to put up a defense. On the second round both sparred for an opening, but the opening that Ben so ardently desired was on the other side of the steer. After a little preliminary work they clinched and at the call of time Ben retired to the manger, from which place he managed to escape through the hay loft. The referee decided the contest in favor of the steer, but Ben claims it on a foul, claiming that the steer struck him several times below the belt, particularly when he was trying to climb into the high manger.

BORN.

PARENT.—To the family of Dr. R. A. Parent, of this city, on Sunday, March 28, 1897, a daughter. Mother and child both doing well.

MARRIED.

KING—RADER.—In this city on Sunday, March 28, 1897, Grant King and Miss Maud Rader, both of this place. 'Squire Hall officiating.

DIED.

WHITE.—At his home near Mill Four, on Tuesday, March 30, 1897, Wm. White.

"Bill" White, as he was commonly called, was one of the early settlers on the Bay, coming here in 1870. For many years he carried the mail on the river from Newport to Pioneer, carrying it in a small boat and making the round trip each day. He will be well remembered by all the old settlers, and his death only too surely recalls the fact that these old pioneers are passing away.

Spring Millinery Opening.

I will have my grand opening Spring Millinery goods and Spring Hats, at my store in Toledo Saturday, April 10, 1897. Then display a full line of millinery goods and hats of all the latest styles and shapes. Call and see them and get prices.

Yours to serve.

Mrs. T. P. FISH.

H. N. Foster, of Chitwood, was in Toledo yesterday.

Mrs. T. E. Parker and Mrs. M. Millan were up from Oneatta today. Three new home-stead filings of government land on Drift Creek this week.

Wool ought to bring a good price this year, not less than 15 cents per pound at any rate.

District Attorney Yates came over from Corvallis Tuesday in answer to a telegram, to assist in the prosecution of the state case tried before 'Squire Hall yesterday. He returned this morning.

"Under Both Flags," is the title of a book for which Mrs. W. H. Alexander, of this place, has secured the agency for Lincoln county. The book is a handsome, well-printed volume of about 500 pages, and is profusely illustrated. It is a series of incidents of the late war as observed by participants on both sides. It is a very interesting book and is sold at a low price.
