

Chronic Rheumatism.

The Patient Had Suffered for Over Thirty Years and Now Enjoys Perfect Health.

From the Industrial News, Jackson, Mich.
The Industrial News, ever on the alert to bring its readers all items of interest, has recently published an account of the entire cure of one of the prominent citizens of Jackson county's prominent citizens, Mr. Lorenzo Neeley, of Liberty township, who had suffered with the twangs and pangs of rheumatism for over thirty years.

In order to give authentic facts, an Industrial News representative interviewed Mr. Neeley and elicited the following facts:

Mr. Lorenzo Neeley is 56 years of age, and actively engaged in farming. When 17 years old by an unfortunate accident he hurt his shoulder, and a few years after that he commenced to have rheumatic pains in his shoulders. This would not always trouble him, but on taking a slight cold or the least strain, or sometimes without any apparent cause the trouble would start again and he would suffer the most excruciating pains.

For over thirty years he has thus suffered, and for the last decade has suffered continually so that he was unable to do any work. To this the frequent occurrences of dizzy spells was lately added, making him almost a helpless invalid.

He tried the best physicians but without getting any help, and has tried several specific rheumatic cures, but all without any appreciable relief. About one year and six months ago he read in the Jackson Industrial News of a case somewhat similar to his which was cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and he concluded to try this remedy.

After the first box he felt somewhat better, and after taking three boxes the pains entirely disappeared and the dizziness left him, and he has now for over a year been entirely free from all his former trouble and enjoys better health than he has had since his boyhood.

Mr. Neeley is loud in his praises of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and will gladly corroborate the above statements. His postoffice address is Lorenzo Neeley, Horton, Jackson county, Michigan.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature. Pink Pills are sold in boxes (never in loose bulk) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

A man who has tried it says that two or three dandelion leaves chewed before going to bed will always induce sleep, no matter how nervous or worried a man may be.

Two cows, two pigs, eighteen hens, a greyhound pup and a bull were given to an agent by an Abilene (Kansas) farmer for a cabinet organ.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

JUDICIAL ESTIMATE OF THE VALUE OF A BICYCLIST.

It is only within the past year the cyclists of the country have been finding out what really important persons they are. Generally all around the country, ever since the wheel began its whirling career, they have been thankful they were allowed to live. They claimed no favors or privileges, but were content to give the right of way to every rattle trap of a vehicle that came along—milk wagons, ash wagons, garbage vans, street cars, pushcarts—almost any old thing, whether on wheels or off of them. The imperious masters of these have always felt that the entire street belonged to them wherever a mere bicycle only was concerned. To run down a wheelman, smash his machine and break his neck into the bargain has been just a little bit of innocent sport for the festive-minded wagon drivers. Those of them who merely crowded a wheelman up against the curb, took the bark off his shins or a pedal off his wheel have gone off to wonder at their own humanity and toleration in allowing the humble cyclist to live when he really had no right to. If a luckless cyclist ever got into the courts it was only a question of how much fine and costs he could stand. But that is all over now. The cyclist citizens are in the jury box. The cyclist judge is on the bench. That tells the tale. They have changed all the old order and given the wheelman his true standing in the community and the courts. It is in New York and New Jersey particularly that the great change has made its appearance. There recently a cyclist who was riding in the cable slot of a street car track was awarded $15,000 damages against the street car company because one of its cars bumped into his wheel and smashed it and gave it and gave the cyclist a fall. Milkmen and express wagon drivers who have incautiously frightened wheelmen or forced them off assigned pathways have been heavily fined. In some fifteen or twenty cases cyclists have recovered damages in the New York courts from persons who caused them to fall or deprived them of their rights in any way, and these damages have amounted to thousands of dollars. Whenever a bicycle is smashed on the New York Central Railroad the company pays without question or demur $100 for it. And President Chauncey Depew, of that road, has remarked on the very marked coincidence that only these $100 wheels are smashed or damaged. The facts and figures involved in cases of personal injury to cyclists have been tabulated and used as a basis for estimating the aggregate value of the entire anatomy of a full-grown veteran wheelman. The result will doubtless surprise the public. Every cyclist, taken from the top of his cranium to the sole of his pedalers, is worth $100,000. That is, he represents just that much value as determined by the unerring judgment of the law. In the diagram and cut is given the separate value of each particular part of the cyclist's anatomy. It deserves study.

PHILANTHROPIC BRITISHER.

E. T. Hooley Will Devote $2,000,000 to Relieve Widows and Orphans.
E. T. Hooley, the noted London promoter and floater of great financial enterprises, has taken opportunity of the approaching jubilee of Queen Victoria to devote $2,000,000 of his fortune to philanthropy. Mr. Hooley, by his ability as a financier, has built up a colossal fortune. He is not unknown to American financiers, who regard him as one of the ablest operators on the London Stock Exchange. Having made himself immensely rich, Mr. Hooley has now de-decided to spend much of his time and money in helping his suffering fellow countrymen. The sum above named will be wisely invested and the interest money from it will be spent in relieving widows and orphans in the vicinity of Mr. Hooley's big estates in Derbyshire. But this is only one of his philanthropic schemes. He has attracted the attention of the socialists with his plan for pensioning every old man in Great Britain, or, say, every man who is no longer able to earn his own living. Mr. Hooley proposes to do this in a manner which will not tax the rich in excess of the poor. His purpose is to levy a tariff of 5 shillings a quarter on all corn imported into the country. This tax, he argues, would fall with scarcely any effect whatever on the well-to-do, and would in no wise inconvenience the workingman, who would, in the end, be benefited by it when he would reach an age at which he was no longer able to earn a livelihood. The millionaire promoter says that with twelve good men to aid him in the work he could carry his scheme through in less than six months. Mr. Hooley has lately turned his attention to the pursuit of agriculture. He is one of the greatest sheep breeders in England, and is also a cattle raiser. He is only 38 years old.

Isinglass.

The name isinglass is supposed by Edwards to be derived from a corrupted form of the German name of the sturgeon, hausenblas. It has probably received its English name from some improper association with the word icing and the French glace, ice. The substance itself is the dried membranes of certain kinds of fish. Formerly only the air bladder of the sturgeon was used, but in the last few years it was discovered that many other portions of the body of the fish yielded isinglass of as good quality as the air bladder, and now isinglass is procured from many different quarters instead of, as formerly, solely from the Russian fisheries of the Baltic Sea. Isinglass is nearly pure gelatine, the case with which this substance is separated from the membranes of the fish constituting the value of the material in the arts and sciences. The most remarkable variety of isinglass comes from the mouths of the Amazon, resembling reddish brown grapes growing from a thick, apparently woody, stem, this variety being the dried eggs of the Sudis gigas, a fish abundant in the Amazon.

Italy's Next Queen.

Italy's next queen will be the most remarkable woman ruler in the modern history of the world. She has the courage of a lion, the physique of an Amazon, the spirit of Joan d'Arc. She is perfectly at home in the saddle, and is an expert with the rifle. The princess, moreover, takes a keen delight in shooting birds with a revolver, and so great is her skill with that weapon that even the smallest animal falls an easy prey to her unerring aim. The number of languages with which she is thoroughly conversant is half a dozen, and she knows the political intricacies of Europe as well as a prime minister. Though a lover of the wild and ferocious, she has enough intelligence and training to make her a finished woman of the world.

DON'T TRUST IT.

Because the weather is mild and the air balmy we cannot count on being rid of rheumatism or neuralgia. The very sudden changes of temperature or exposure to draughts are both likely to increase rather than diminish both complaints. For this reason it is wise at this season to be well prepared for sudden attacks, and to have ready what is known as the best remedy for all visitations of aches or pains. All well regulated households ought to have a nook or corner for a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. There are other reasons also why this Master-cure should be kept at hand; rheumatism and neuralgia are chronic, acute or inflammatory, but to whatever degree of suffering they may come, the old reliable cure is the best for treatment and the surest to give permanent relief.

PHYSICIANS WISE IN THEIR GENERATION.

The above class of scientists recognize and have repeatedly borne testimony, to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy and preventive of fever and ague, rheumatism, want of vigor, liver complaint, and some other ailments and infirm conditions of the system. Experience and observation have taught them its value. They but echo the verdict long since pronounced by the public and the press. Only the uneducated now are ignorant of America's tonic and alterative.

HERE IS A LATE CURE.

After suffering tortures from rheumatism, lame back and weak kidneys, I was induced to try your belt, and I would not give it up now for $50 if I could not get another. My troubles had annoyed me for years, and my back was so weak I could not lift twenty-five pounds. The belt knocked the pain out in six weeks and the rheumatism in three, and I have not felt a return of either since then. I laughed at the idea when a friend of mine told me your belt would cure me, but I am changed now, and am talking for myself.—E. J. BONGE, S. F., Cal., April 27.

Year by year she was treated with various medicines, external applications and internal remedies, without result. Her sufferings were intense, and her condition grew steadily worse. All the so-called blood remedies did not seem to reach the disease at all until S. S. S. was given, when an improvement was at once noticed.
