A salmon, four feet long, weighing 55 pounds, was caught in The Dalles Friday.

Queen Victoria has ruled and reigned over the British empire for sixty years, longer than the average man's lifetime. Her diamond jubilee is being celebrated all over the entire world this week.

Ex-Governor Pennoyer has avowed that he will retire from politics as soon as his term as mayor of Portland expires. This probably means that he will be a candidate for United States senator.

One more Oregon appointment has been secured. This time it is the collector of customs for Alaska, and J. W. Ivy, a lawyer of Portland, is the man who gets the plum. Mr. Ivy was one of Mitchell's strong lieutenants, at the senatorial fight last winter. It would seem that Mitchell has not entirely lost his "pull" yet.

The enormous increase in public expenditures is an important factor in creating deficiencies. The federal government spent about $358,000,000 in 1890. Its total receipts last year were over $400,000,000. Had there been no increase in public extravagance there would have been a surplus last year of over $50,000,000, instead of a large deficiency. As we have so often and earnestly contended, it is even more necessary for government to reduce expenses than to increase its revenues.—Oregonian.

Junction City, Lane county, was visited by a disastrous fire on the 16th, that destroyed a whole block and did much damage. Among the other buildings destroyed was the one occupied by the Times printing office. Bro. Moorehead was fortunate enough to save all of his material, and yet his loss will amount to about $200. Bro. Moorehead exhibited the usual grit and nerve of the newspaper man, by setting up his office, straightening out the conglomerated mass of type, and getting out his usual interesting paper, being delayed only one day.

When politics and educational matters get mixed up it always makes a terrible mess. This is illustrated by the miserable condition that now exists at Eugene in the state university. The trouble does not lie there in the inefficiency of the president of the institution, but because a lot of politicians have got their intriguing hands onto the school and are seeking to further their own personal ends. It is to be regretted, but it cannot be helped. A lot of cheap politicians have to be cared for and they have fastened themselves onto the Eugene institution.

Anton Pfanner, the banker of Forest Grove, made the statement during the campaign last fall that every free silverite was a scoundrel or a rogue. Pfanner turned up missing the other day, and missing with him were several thousand dollars in deposits, some of which belonged to the "rogues" that voted for free silver last fall. An investigation of his affairs show that his liabilities exceed his assets. And now there are some people right in Washington county, where Mr. Pfanner used to live, that believe that a "scoundrel" of a free silver man is better than an "honest" gold bug with a penchant to run away with other people's money.

Communicated.

Toledo, Oregon, April 5, 1897. To Honorable County Court of Lincoln County, State of Oregon:

Having called upon each member of the county court, personally, and having written to each of the county commissioners, and they having refused to allow me any deputy at all or at any time or during court week of the county or Circuit court, you will please take notice that, as the law requires that the clerk shall keep his office open from 8 o'clock a. m. until 12 o'clock noon, and from 1 o'clock p. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. upon all judicial days, therefore, it is impossible for me to attend the terms of the county court or circuit court unless said court is held in the office of the county clerk, and if held there I shall perform all the duties thereof to the best of my ability.

Respectfully submitted
 B. F. JONES,
 County Clerk.

The above notice was duly docketed in the county commissioners docket at the regular April term of county court, and the notice handed to the court on Wednesday morning, the first day of court. No action whatever was ever taken in the matter or entry made in the commissioners' journal. In as much as there has been considerable street talk concerning this matter, and the LEADER having narrowed the thing down to a question of who has lied, we have decided to publish the record without comment.

B. F. JONES.

A Day's Proceedings in Congress.

Speaker Reed takes the chair and says:

"I will please come to order. 'I don't believe in the efficacy of prayer, so I will dispense with it today.

"The seconds of the preceding meeting are considered, read and approved.

"There is no unfinished business on hand, and even if there were, I do not consider myself a quorum at this stage of the game.

"Did I hear a motion to adjourn? Well, I should remark, for my hearing is very acute, and when it comes to adjourning I am a quorum from Quorumville.

"If I am in favor of adjourning, I will please signify it by saying 'aye.' If I am opposed, I don't know myself.

"I have it. I stand adjourned."
 —Birmingham Herald.

Ex-Senator Corbett, of Oregon, enjoys all the privileges of the senate chamber except making speeches, voting and drawing a salary. He has been assured of a favorable report from the committee on privileges and elections, but has been told that he will have to wait until after the tariff bill is out of the way before the case can be brought up in the senate. As it is pretty generally understood that congress will adjourn as soon as the tariff bill is out of the way, action by the senate on the question of seating Mr. Corbett upon his governor's certificate of appointment will undoubtedly go over until the beginning of the regular session in December.—Washington Post.

California was visited by a severe earthquake last Sunday, while Oregon was visited only by timely and bountiful showers. After all there is no place like Oregon.
