O. G. Dalaba and wife and Ernest Dixon were down from Elk City last Monday night to visit the Artisan lodge at this place.

R. C. Miller, the barber, expects his family to arrive here from Ilwaco, Washington, within the coming week. They will live in the Bryson house, recently occupied by Mr. Denlinger.

Chas. and Frank Tillotson, of this place, received word last week of the serious illness of their father at Mt. Vernon, Missouri. The next mail brought them the sad news of his death.

Lee Wade has got the frame of a good big barn up on his farm on the tideland above town. The barn sits on the water front on Depot slough, and will be very convenient for hay and other feed.

You may hunt the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Mr. J. H. Rancourt brought a sample of ochre to this office last Saturday. The ochre was taken from a ditch which Mr. Rancourt was digging, and is of a dull yellow color. He has tried some of it with oil and states that it works very satisfactory. Mr. Rancourt has a large quantity of it on his place, but does not know whether it has a commercial value or not.

The appointment of a postmaster at this place must have jumped a cog some way or other. The present incumbent's term expired about the middle of June, but as yet no successor has been named. The hopeful candidates are Renus Arnold, J. A. Hail, Frank Stanton and T. J. Ewing, but who the fortunate man will be the deponent saith not. It is supposed by some that there will be no appointment made until the local endorsers of weight get together and endorse one candidate.

The LEADER stirred up a much larger hornets nest than it had any idea of doing, when it made a local item out of the Oglesby road matter on Fall creek. We are in receipt of another communication from that neighborhood, giving the Oglesby side of the matter. The communication is too long to publish, but the substance of it is that Mr. Oglesby is afraid that if the road is not opened up at once that it will go by default and become vacated. He thinks if such thing would come to pass then he would not be able to get another road viewed out and located.

The social given by the Woman's Relief corps of the place at the opera house last Thursday night was a very successful affair. There was rendered a short literary and musical entertainment in the first of the evening. The principal feature of this part of the entertainment was the flag and gun drills given by fifteen young ladies. This drill was delightful, and reflected great credit upon the young ladies who took part in the drill, their captain, Miss Emma Brooks, and upon Mrs. Carrie Peairs, who drilled them in the marches and Capt. Sturdevant, who drilled them in the manual of arms. After this part of the program was rendered the tables were spread and ice cream, strawberries and cake was served to the crowd. The proceeds of the evening were about $22.00, which will very materially help swell the treasury of the Relief Corps.

The Same as Robbery.

County Treasurer Hyde has remitted to the State treasurer the sum of $59.35, that being the amount of interest claimed by the state on the state taxes from Lincoln county. This demand for interest on state taxes may have a shadow of law to back it up, but it comes as near being downright legalized robbery as anything we know of. The state demands interest from the first day of March on the state taxes. Under the law the county clerk cannot close up and extend the roll until after February 1st, from the fact that the various school districts and cities may levy a tax any time up to and including the first day of February. This gives the county four weeks for the clerk to carry out the various levies and extend the roll and the sheriff to collect the amount of money due the state. It is an absurdity to even imagine that this can be done. In our county the sheriff did not get the roll until nearly March 1st, and the clerk expedited the work preparing it as fast as he could. Out of the first money received the treasurer paid the state taxes, remitting a part of it in May and the balance in June. And now comes the state with a demand for $59.35 interest. The treasurer paid it, but he ought not to have done it. The state has failed in some instances to enforce a demand for interest, and we do not believe that they should be allowed to collect interest in a case of this kind. It is nothing more nor less than robbery of our county to that amount under guise of the law.

Some day, we hope, we will get a legislature of the people, by the people and for the people, instead of by Joe Simon, of Portland, and against the people, and then it may be possible to get these obnoxious laws repealed. The state should be paid the money collected from the state levy, and no more, and it should be paid that from time to time as it is collected, and this should satisfy the state's claim.

Proposals for Furnishing Wood.

None of the crab apple or vine maple shall be less than 1 1/2 inches in diameter, and all wood shall be of the best quality. To be delivered at the court house.
