Judge Stearns went to his home on Alsea Bay last Tuesday evening.

John and Eli Gaither, Rite Dedrick, Jesse Reeder and Role Chambers will go to the upper Siletz on a fishing expedition tomorrow, and will be gone three or four days.

The ball game at Newport last Sunday between Philomath and a picked Lincoln county club resulted in favor of Philomath by a score of 8 to 2, six innings being played.

B. F. Jones took command of the steamer Richardson last Sunday, Capt. Davis being temporarily transferred to the tug Resolute, which was run on that day.

E. B. Horning and family, of Corvallis, stopped off the excursion Sunday evening and visited with his brother Thomas and family, returning to Corvallis on Monday.

Elk City Lodge of Odd Fellows will install officers for the term at that place tonight. The ceremony will be a public one and will be witnessed by a goodly crowd of people.

Jos. Schirmer, of Pool's slough was in town yesterday and left at this office a bucket of nice strawberries of a new variety. They are large and handsome, and are perfectly hullless when they come from the vines. They are excellent berries.

Thos. Horning and Jas. Snow brought a raft of logs up from Tillotson's logging camp on Pool's slough last Tuesday. The raft was a small one, containing only about 40,000 feet. The men at the camp have been delayed by the recent rains, but with fair weather they will put logs in the slough at a lively rate.

Some young fellows with more whiskey down their throats than brains in their heads, came very near furnishing the material for a drowning item last Sunday on the trip of the boats from Newport to Yaquina with the loads of excursionists. In their pranks with a small boat they managed to tip it over and spill themselves into the water. They were drawn out in time to save them from anything but a severe ducking, and they managed to keep still on the rest of the trip.

Fourth of July celebrations will be rather scarce in Lincoln county this year. There will be no regular celebration at any of the towns on the river. Siletz is preparing to celebrate on the 5th, which is the only celebration we have heard of in the county so far. There will be several small picnics at various points in the county on Saturday. The picnic at Toledo is to be a "Poor Man's Picnic," and will be held in the beautiful grove on Krogstad's farm just across the Olalla. This picnic will be on the old-fashioned social order, where everybody gets in and has a good time. The picnic promises to be quite largely attended, and if the weather is pleasant no doubt a very enjoyable time will be had.

Mrs. Maybel Bethers is up from Yaquina on a visit.

Peter Telleison sells sugar and coffee, tea, bakingpowder, etc.

Bert and Leonard Miller were down from Big Elk, taking in the clambake at Newport Sunday.

Mail orders for anything on earth will receive prompt attention. Address Gowell, Toledo, Oregon.

M. E. Peairs, of this place, will run Mr. Jas. Booth's store on Nye creek this summer. He expects to go down and open up the store in a few days.

Mr. J. H. Kern and family are now at Kernville on the Siletz, and Mr. Kern is getting things at the cannery up in shape to have them all ready for the fall fishing. He does not expect to start up the cannery until about the 15th of August. The salmon pack on the Siletz ought to exceed that of last year. The river will be freer of snags, and the fishermen will be better acquainted with it. If the season is favorable a large pack ought to be assured.

A new postoffice has been established on the upper Siletz river about half way between Siletz and Kernville, at Thos. Root's place. The office will probably be known as Rootville. It will be supplied with carrier from Siletz. There is also talk of a small store being put in by a new settler near the post-office, which if done will prove quite a convenience to the settlers of that community. This would indicate that the upper river country is booming a little.

W. H. Cook, the Ross precinct justice of the peace, has almost concluded to apply to the county court for a new lawyer to practice in his jurisdiction. The duly qualified and acting attorney for Mr. Cook's court was Mr. A. S. Austin, who just at present is an inmate of the insane asylum. Mr. Cook feels the need of some one to take his place, as he wants the dignity of his court upheld. If the county court does furnish Mr. Cook's court with another lawyer we would suggest that he be not allowed to stray away from home, as Mr. Austin was allowed to do.

A boy with a revolver is reported to have done some pretty reckless shooting on the railroad near the bridge just north of town last Saturday. It is reported that altogether he fired three shots, one of which was intended for another boy with whom he had had some words, and two of them were for Will Webber, of Newport, who had prevented his first shot from taking effect. Fortunately all of the shots missed, and the boy ran off down the track. Mr. Webber reported the matter to the sheriff, who is giving the matter an investigation. The boy who did the shooting appeared to be only about 12 or 14 years of age. He seems to be a promising candidate for the reform school.

Al. Waugh was one of the players in the recent game of baseball between the married men of Toledo and Newport, and as a consequence of being on the winning side got to feeling pretty big, and thinking that he could play ball with the best of them. Tuesday evening he went out to show some of the boys how to catch flies, and the very first fly that came his way caught him on the end of the third finger on the right hand and laid it right back at the first joint. It was turned so square back that the flesh was broken on the front of the finger. Druggist Krogstad pulled the finger back into place while Al. clinched his teeth and stood it. It is quite a sore hand now, and that accounts for the slight limp Al. has in his left leg.

All popular brands of goods at Gowell's.

You make a mistake if you don't trade at Gowell's.

Mrs. Wm. Bogue returned Monday evening from a visit to relatives in the valley.

You live well and cheaply when you trade at Gowell's, for cash or its equivalent.

Judge Stearns returned from a trip to Portland and other Valley points on Monday last.

The only laundry soap made under the U. S. patent is Hoe Cake. For sale at Gowell's.

Hurley Lutz has bought the Collamore piece of land on Depoe slough, and will probably develop out into a regular bloated land holder.

Fred Ross left for Salem this morning where he will play with the Salem baseball club in a series of games which that club is matched to play. Fred will occupy the pitcher's box, and he will surprise some of their crack batsmen over there in the valley.

A boy of the tender age of 14 years staggering under the influence of liquor, with a couple of bottles of whiskey in his pocket, is certainly a horrible sight. Yet this is said to have been the condition of a youth from Toledo at Newport last Sunday. Where he got his liquor is not known. It is not at all probable that he bought it at any saloon, and any person who is low down enough to buy for or give young boys liquor ought to go to the penitentiary for life.

As will be seen by a notice published elsewhere in this issue County Treasurer Hyde has made a call for warrants drawn upon the general fund of the county and presented on or before January 1st, 1895. Mr. Hyde has paid all the state taxes and interest up to date, and all taxes collected now will apply on the outstanding warrants. Mr. Hyde thinks it very probable that he can make another call by the 15th or 20th of this month. There is a good portion of the taxes yet unpaid, and all of these will apply on the redemption of warrants. If taxes are paid as anticipated by the county officials it is very probable that the treasurer can redeem all outstanding warrants issued before January 1, 1896.

Sam Hill and J. M. Bowers, of Beaver creek, were in Toledo last Saturday on business. In a talk with Mr. Hill he informed us that the people of Beaver creek and Alsea were quite anxious to have the road from Beaver creek to Toledo opened up and made a good road. He states that the demand for this road is almost universal down in that part of the county. A good part of this road has already been opened, and the expense of finishing the same would not be heavy. If it was opened up it would be a great convenience to the lower part of the county. As far as the people of Toledo are concerned we do not hesitate to state that they will cooperate with the Beaver creek and Alsea people to the full extent of their ability to open this road. Our people have already made some liberal donations on this road, and we do not doubt but what they will do more. Mr. Hill states that a part of the road is badly located, and should be relocated. We would suggest that some of the practical road builders and leading citizens of that section of the county go over the route and make an estimate of what is necessary to do, and what changes should be made, and the probable amount of labor or other costs necessary, and report the matter to the people. The road is an important one and should be put on the best route possible.

Wm. Woods, the foreman for the past two years at the Pioneer stone quarry, will leave with his family for California on the next steamer, where he will make an extended stay. He goes on account of failing health of himself and wife. The position of foreman will be filled by Mr. G. E. Davis, the present bookkeeper.

The excursionists on the Mascotte last Sunday were certainly out of luck. They left Toledo at about 7 o'clock with colors flying and band playing. Their first ill luck met them when they got stuck on the mud next to the old steamer Walluski, and had to wait for the tide to float them off. After they again got started they journeyed along till they got to Boone's point, when their wood and water gave out and they had to go ashore for these much needed articles. After great tribulations they finally got to Newport. The trip back was made without mishap and in a reasonable length of time.
