Harry Denlinger returned last Monday from a two weeks' outing at Newport, Nye creek and Yahats.

The Labor Exchange is organized for your special benefit and invites your co-operation. Come, investigate and join.

H. B. Peairs, supervisor of Indian schools, went to Siletz in his official capacity last Tuesday. Mr. Peairs is a brother of M. E. Peairs, of this place, and occupies a prominent position in Indian school work.

Miss Addie Brooks left last Tuesday for Attanum, Washington, where she will attend the fall and winter term of the Attanum academy at that place. The academy is under the management of a sister of Prof. Brooks, of this place, and her husband, and is said to be quite an able and prosperous school.

Dr. Fox, of California, was a visitor with the family of W. A. Fash last Sunday. Dr. Fox was a passenger on the ill-fated steamer Mexico that was sunk in Alaska waters a few days ago. He gives an interesting account of the striking and sinking of the ship, and speaks highly of the coolness and quietness of the crew and passengers.

A sort of Bachelor's co-operative union is said to have been organized in this community. The object of the union is to secure female housekeepers for the lonely bachelors. The first trial was made by O. Nelson, a rancher near this place, but the arrangement was not satisfactory for some reason and now Nelson is out of a housekeeper. Nelson can give the particulars.

L. Waugh, who for the past seven years has occupied the position of section foreman on the railroad at this place, has retired from railroading, and his place is taken by Henry Gannon. Mr. Waugh has been a faithful man for the company for several years, and they will find it hard to fill his place. He will be kept busy looking after his other interests here for a time, after which he may engage in business here.

County Assessor Lutz has given notice of the meeting of the county board of equalization, which meets on Monday, September 13. The work of making out the rolls will probably be completed by the first of the month, as it has been made more expeditiously than the assessor hoped for. The assessor did not give notice of the meeting of the board until he knew that the roll would be completed in time. When the board meets it will have a fully completed roll to work on.

Paints, oils and glass at Gowell's. Gowell appreciates your cash trade.

Peter Tellefson, Yaquina, has a full line of fresh fruit, and are selling same at low figures.

You can at any time find a full stock of flour and feed, oats and wheat at Peter Tellefson's, Yaquina, and these goods are sold at reasonable prices.

The merry music of the saw and hammer are heard from morning until night in Toledo. This is glad music to any town, and the results of it are plainly observed at this place.

Gov. Lord and wife were passengers on Tuesday's train, bound for their summer home at Seal Rock. The Governor stated that the heat in the Valley for the past few days had been terrific.

With the thermometer at 106 degrees in the shade the people of the Valley have had a taste of the hot waves of the east. All this time the weather on the coast has been delightful, the temperature rarely rising above 80.

K. O. Peterson, of Fosstown, Minnesota, is in the city, the guest of Otto O. Krogstad. Mr. Peterson is looking over the different locations on the coast with a view of settling, and to gather information about agricultural lands.

Edwin Stanton forwarded his bond as postmaster at this place to Washington several days ago and his commission is expected to arrive at any time. As soon as it arrives Mr. Stanton will at once take charge of the office. The office will remain in its present location, for a time at least.

A jolly crowd of United Artisans went from this place to visit the Elk City lodge last night. They chartered the launch Mascotte and Capt. Clark made the trip pleasant and enjoyable to them. The Elk City lodge had some new members to initiate, and the Toledo Artisans went up to help them do the job in a manner befitting a genuine Artisan. And if reports be true, the job was not slighted in the least.

The testimony in the case of Howell & Howell vs. The Pioneer Stone Company, was taken before Referee Carson at this place this week. The testimony of the witnesses was quite voluminous and required a day to take it. Attorney General Idleman appeared for the plaintiff and Geo. Bingham represented the defendants. The testimony was taken down by stenographer J. C. Rutenic, of Salem. The witnesses examined were J. M. and J. H. Howell, Barney Morrison, Fred Wittenstrom, Elmo Davis, Ferd Brown, Wm. Powers, G. W. Davis and B. F. Jones.

The railroad company, so we understand, will soon extend the switch at this place and connect it with the main track, the connection being made at a point about in front of Henry Lewis' store. A crossing has been put in at the foot of Fourth street, and when the grounds around the depot are graded and leveled this street will be the main approach. The sidewalk on the south of the depot will also be moved back from the track and placed even with the business buildings. When these changes are made it will greatly add to the appearance of the town along the railroad track.

M. Gregson went to the Valley the latter part of last week to look after his business interests at that place.

Wm. Alexander is in Kings Valley helping to harvest the grain crop on the old Alexander ranch. The crop is very good this year.

Fred Horning returned from a visit to Corvallis last night. He drove a team through and will take the family back to pick hops.

Mrs. Forman, of Portland, a sister of John Robertson, of Yaquina, has been visiting friends in this place during the past week.

Miss Hallie Darnell, daughter of Dr. Darnell of this place, arrived here from Ilwaco last Friday evening and will make her home here with her father.

Gus Woodward and wife, nee Jessie Alexander, arrived in Toledo from Portland last Saturday for a week's visit with relatives at this place. They will return to Portland next Monday.

A new steamer has been secured for the San Francisco-Yaquina route. It is the Noyo, and is a staunch vessel of about the size of the Truckee. It will make the regular trips between Yaquina and San Francisco and way ports.

A regular hegira of people will leave this place during the next few days for the various hop yards of the valley. It is impossible at this time to give a complete list of all who will go, but if all go who say they intend to the town will be almost depopulated.

Albert Meaker made another shipment of cattle from this place to Corvallis yesterday. The shipment consisted of two carloads of mixed cattle, and all were in prime condition. They go direct from Corvallis to Portland. Most of them came from the Beaver creek country.

Cattle buyers are still scouring this county in quest of cattle of all grades. In addition to those bought and shipped by Albert Meaker during the past two weeks, J. L. Lewis, of Corvallis, has bought nearly 100 head over the county and will ship them to Corvallis at an early date. A large part of Mr. Lewis' purchase was made on the Alsea.

The Martin Brothers prominent stockmen of Harney county, accompanied by their mother, were in Toledo last night. They have been spending several weeks camping at Nye creek and Otter rock. The ladies of the party took the train this morning from this place, while the gentlemen will spend a few days hunting around Elk City.

Frank Tillotson and wife, Renuis Arnold and wife, John Akin and wife, Gus Woodward and wife, Al Waugh and wife, Dan Hurley, and two or three others were the members of a camping party that went to the wilds of the Siletz last Monday for a hunting and fishing trip. They are still in the woods, but a message over the LEADER'S private grape-vine telegraph line announces the slaughter of one head of deer by them.

Messrs. Krogstad, Crosno and Jones returned from their trip through the Siletz country last Thursday. They do not report having discovered any Klondike, but they did bring some very good specimens of ore and stone back with them. The ore they have forwarded to an assayer at Portland to ascertain what it contains. They discovered a whole mountain of campenite, a peculiar kind of stone resembling granite. A sample of this stone was sent from from this county a couple of years ago to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington. They pronounced it of commercial value, and also stated that the sample sent them was of good quality.

H. W. Vincent was up from Otter Rock the first of the week.

The launch Mascotte seems to be illfated. Its last mishap was met with early this morning while returning with the Artisans from Elk City. In the fog and darkness that prevailed the boat was run onto a log near the water tank above Toledo, and the best efforts of crew and passengers were not sufficient to get her off. The passengers walked the rest of the way to Toledo. Just how bad the launch is injured we did not learn. It was thought that she would float off of the log at high tide. It is to be hoped that the injuries to the little craft, if any, will prove slight.

M. Goldberg and Al. Brickman, a couple of gentlemen from Philadelphia, are in Lincoln county looking over the country with a view of finding a location for a colony of Jewish farmers. They wish to find a location for a colony of from 100 to 150 Jewish families. Of these families thirty-five are now in San Francisco awaiting the results of Messrs. Goldberg and Brickman's investigations. Mr. Goldberg went to Siletz today to look after the lands of that country and Mr. Brickman will go over tomorrow. Both of these gentlemen are highly pleased with the soil and climate of Lincoln county and it is only a question of whether a sufficient amount of land can be found for these people to settle on. They do not expect, of course, to get the land all in one body, but they wish it to be as near contiguous as possible.

BORN.

HARMON.—To the family of Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Harmon, of Depoe slough, on Friday, Aug. 21, 1897, a daughter.

DIED.

CASE.—At his home in Newport, Oregon, on Wednesday night, August 25, 1897, Samuel Case, of cancer of the stomach. The deceased has been in ill health for some time, and this summer has been particularly low. All that was possible was done for him but without avail, and death relieved his sufferings last night. He was an early settler of the Bay, and was one of its prominent citizens. When the news of his death reached Toledo general expressions of regret was heard on all sides. The body will be buried in Newport cemetery at 10:30 tomorrow. A full obituary notice will be published next week.
