

Many Women Have Quietly Obtained Advice That Made Them Well.

My sister, if you find that in spite of following faithfully your family doctor's advice, you are not getting well, do you not try another course? I and many a woman have quietly written to Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., stating her symptoms plainly and clearly, and take her advice, which was promptly received. The following letter is pretty strong confirmation of this: "I had been sick for six months; one doctor told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would get well. I had complete troubles in their worst form, suffered untold agonies every month; my stomach tipped back to my backbone; had headache, hysteria, fainting spells, itching, leucorrhoea. My feet and hands were cold all the time, my limbs were so weak that I could hardly walk around the house; I was troubled with numb spells. I followed Mrs. Pinkham's advice. I have taken four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one bottle of her Blood Purifier, one package of her Sanative Wash, and am entirely cured."—Mrs. LOUISA PLACE, 650 Belmont St., Brockton, Mass.

DO YOU SLEEP SOUND?

Is your sleep refreshing or do you roll and toss and fret and worry about your trouble? If your nerves are healthy and full of vitality your sleep will be sound and you will wake up feeling vigorous and refreshed. If your nerves are weakened from excesses, dissipation, overwork or brain weariness, you will have noticed that your sleep is disturbed, you roll and toss, you dream or have night sweats. Then you get up in the morning, feeling about as bad, or worse, than when you went to bed. Your nerves lack tone and vigor. Your system needs bracing up. Your vital functions are weak. You may have been using a medicine to induce sleep. So much the worse for you in the long run. By its use you simply deaden the nerves. Of course it induces sleep, but how do you feel in the morning? How is your appetite for breakfast and your ambition for work? Don't you see the mistake of it all? You do not need medicine. You need the tonic and soothing effects of a mild current of electricity, such as you can get by applying Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt.

Famous Stamp Collections.
The London Golden Penny has an article in a recent issue on big postage stamp collections and illustrious stamp collectors, from which it would appear that the greatest collection in the world is that of Monsieur Philipp la Renotiere von Ferary, son of the late Duchesse de Galeira. It lines the walls of a moderate size room and must be worth $250,000. This collector buys about $4,000 worth of new stamps every year. The best English collection, apart from that in the British Museum, belongs to W. B. Avery of Birmingham and must be worth from $50,000 to $60,000. H. J. Duveen, of Duveen Bros., in Bond street, has a collection worth about $35,000. Another great collector is M. P. Castle, of Brighton. He once sold a collection of Australians for $10,000, and has since made a collection of Europeans which is worth a great deal more. Among the many distinguished collectors are the Duke of York, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Earl de Grey, the Prince of Siam, Mr. Vanderbilt and Prince Alexis Michaelovitch, who often buys $1,000 worth of stamps at a time.

THAT TERRIBLE SCOURGE.
Malarial disease is invariably supplemented by disturbance of the liver, the bowels, the stomach and the nerves. To the removal of both the cause and its effects Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is fully adequate. It "fills the bill" as no other remedy does, performing its work thoroughly. Its ingredients are pure and wholesome, and it admirably serves to build up a system broken by ill health and shorn of strength. Constipation, liver and kidney complaint and nervousness are conquered by it.

Noblemen in Berlin.
According to official statistics the city of Berlin has a little over 8,000 noblemen, of whom 4,700 are in the army, 600 in the civil service, 200 in trade and 150 day laborers.

The average taxation in Egypt is about $4.50 a head.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.
We are asserting in the courts our right to the exclusive use of the word "CASTORIA," and "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," as our Trade Mark.

I, Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. Look carefully at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought, and has the signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure by local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. SERMONS OF THE WEEK

Success.—If one but opens up his heart to the incoading of Christ he may have some possibility of success and quick returns.—Rev. W. R. Packard, Congregationalist, Cleveland, Ohio.

Woman.—Women should stand by women, instead of trampling upon them. They should demand the same purity of man that man demands of woman.—Rev. B. de Costa, Episcopalian, New York City.

Politics.—I am in favor of more politics and more politicians if we can govern ourselves, and if we will make the business of government our business.—Rabbi M. J. Gries, Hebrew, Cleveland, Ohio.

The Sabbath.—It is the duty of the Christian Church all over the world to use its greatest efforts in furthering a better observance of the Sabbath day.—Rev. J. Van Nass, Presbyterian, Washington, D. C.

The Curse of the Age.—The great curse of the age is the everlasting reaching out after something for nothing, which is true in the mercantile world, the political world, and the Christian world.—Rev. H. N. Conden, Methodist, Washington, D. C.

A Workingman's Church.—The church must keep the social, physical and material wants of the workingman, as well as the spiritual. I plead for a million dollar palace of religion in the interest of the toiling masses.—Rev. G. W. Mead, Presbyterian, New York City.

Youth.—The world in all its departments is mainly what young men have made it. Manhood and age have often taught, but it is youth that makes the disciple and spreads the doctrine.—Rev. W. C. Webb, Methodist, Philadelphia, Pa.

Do Unto Others.—We expect our friends to slave and crawl and grind and drudge for us, and we do nothing for them. The best way to keep your friends true to you is for you to be true to them.—Rev. Frank DeW. Talmage, Presbyterian, Pittsburg, Pa.

The Coming of Christ.—Christ has been coming and is coming and will continue to come. He is coming not as a man, not as a god-man, but as a divine idea, as a divine thought, as a living love, and as a reigning spirit.—Rev. Dr. Robins, Methodist, Atlanta, Ga.

Political Bosses.—Political bossism is crime; it is selfishness flowered out into tyranny; ecclesiastical despotism is blasphemy; it is an attempt to subordinate consciences to the empire of one conscience; it is religious despotism; it destroys individuality, which is the glory of man and woman.—Rev. F. R. Morse, Baptist, New York City.

Philanthropy.—We need wealth to endow our colleges, build our churches and carry on our foreign and domestic mission work; but if the giving of it is to stifle free expression of thought on economic and industrial questions, then better a thousand times that it be withheld.—Rev. W. H. Carwardine, Methodist, Chicago, Ill.

The Life Eternal.—This mortal life is but a beginning of the greater existence; it is but the dawn, the preparation for the eternity into which we must pass when the fetters of flesh have loosened their bonds and the immortal soul realizes that stupendous freedom known only in the eternal life.—Rev. J. H. Merchant, Methodist, Akron, Ohio.

The Open Book.—Common education has so brought people to a common level that they are no longer willing to accept the doctrines laid down by the preacher, as in the times when the clergy alone were the learned. The Bible is no longer a sealed book from which precepts are to be picked by the preacher.—Rev. Alfred Kellogg, Presbyterian, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Voice of Conscience.—If the voice of conscience still speaks to you, listen and heed it; for though you may smother conscience here, though you may gag your moral sense, though you may drown all serious thought until you are indifferent to all these things, there will come a time when they will wake to new life again.—Rev. C. S. Hearn, Evangelist, New York City.

Possibilities.—The possibilities of every young man's life are almost infinite. At least, there is no young man, whatever his condition, who may not be noble and true, who may not wear the image of Christ upon his soul, and grow into a manly man, even though he does not rise to any lofty height among his fellows.—Rev. J. R. Miller, Presbyterian, Philadelphia, Pa.

Demonstration.—The religion of Jesus Christ is not all worship and sentiment, but is in practical demonstration. Principles of love and sympathy are beneficent only when they rise above theory. A desire to be useful is the best part of a truly noble character, and quiet purpose in the heart is the essential beginning.—Rev. A. S. Yates, Episcopalian, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Successful Half-Minute DIPPING OF SHEEP.
And Gratifying Results on Governor Mount's Farm.

Under the Supervision of Dr. A. W. Bitting, of Purdue University, by Order of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. Agricultural Department.

USING CHLORO-NAPHTHOLEUM.

A MATTER OF GREAT IMPORTANCE to farmers, especially those who raise sheep for wool, is the dipping of the animals in the spring and fall of the year. The purpose is not only to kill the Ticks which infest sheep, but to destroy the scab, a disease which irritates the skin, causing intense itching, roughness and loss of fleeces. In the first one hour and twenty minutes sixty-two sheep had been dipped, the extra fifty minutes being consumed in draining the fluid from the animals, as the wool took up about two gallons, and this had to be returned to the tank. Examinations of each sheep as dipped showed that the Ticks were all killed, and ticks taken from undipped lambs and placed well under the wool close to the skin on those previously dipped died in three minutes' time.

The head of each animal was put completely under the water, while the rule is to keep the nose exposed. Careful observation failed to show any nausea or sickness among any of the lambs or sheep, a gratifying result, as most dips, especially tobacco and those of a senical composition, create great distress.

Governor Mount was informed by telephone as to the result. There were 160 lambs and 160 old sheep.

Dr. Bitting will forward his report to Washington the first of this week, when it will be officially promulgated for the benefit of farmers and wool growers throughout the country.
