Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Cures a Prominent Attorney.

MR. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 60. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, that bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

TRIUMPHANT BOODLE.

Mark Hanna has again proved himself a good "business man." After a hard and personally conducted fight he has secured the "delivery of the goods" he had bought. He was yesterday elected Senator from Ohio for seven years.

This result is the most shameful and scandalous triumph of corruption ever known in our political history. Seven Republicans members of the Legislature united in charging bribery upon Hanna and his agents and in demanding an investigation of the charges. Five of these pledged themselves to vote for Hanna, in spite of their determined opposition to his election, if the charges of bribery were shown to be untrue. Yet by a single vote in joint session the demand was ignored and the great boodler was elected.

It was a fitting climax to this brazen performance that the Republican members, who had to be kept under guard to insure their "staying bought," joined in singing "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," when infamy was consummated! Smug hypocrisy and Pharisaic plutocracy are represented in the Ohio Republicanism of which McKinley and Hanna are perfect types, touched the lowest depths in thus celebrating with blasphemy the triumph of boodle.—New York World.

THESE ARE TALKED OF.

The political pot in Lincoln county is now fairly simmering and soon will be fairly boiling, with the conventions two months away. There are candidates a plenty talked of, but many a slate will be made and smashed before conventions meet.

Among the populists there has been but few candidates talked of. These parties have been discussing and meditating upon the union of forces, and individual candidates have been a secondary matter. The name of Lee Wade has been mentioned as a democratic candidate for clerk, A. B. Clark of Elk City and W. S. Whitten, of Newport, for judge, B. F. Jones for joint senator, Hurley Lutz for assessor, and Sam Logan for commissioner.

The populists have talked G. A. Landis and T. T. Reeder, for sheriff, H. N. Foster, of Chitwood, for county treasurer. There are not many populist candidates being talked publicly yet.

In the republican ranks there are many prospective candidates being talked of. For joint senator Hon. R. A. Bensell is generally recognized as a candidate, and it now looks as if he has a very good chance of securing the nomination. Capt. Henry Nice is frequently spoken of as a suitable candidate for joint representative. For clerk the names of Wesley Davis, of Newport, Judge Stearns, of Waldport, and M. E. Pairs, of Toledo, are being prominently mentioned. Walt Smith, of Yaquina, L. W. Deyoe and P. N. Lathrop, of Elk City, C. C. McBride, of Little Elk and Gene Williams, of Newport, are mentioned for sheriff. For county judge the candidates spoken of are C. H. Williams, of Newport, and Capt. H. R. Sturdevant, of Toledo, and D. H. Williams, of Toledo precinct, are mentioned for county commissioner. For treasurer the candidates will probably be J. L. Hyde, the present incumbent, and Dudley Perkins, of this place. The only republican we have heard mentioned for school superintendent is Prof. Geo. Bethers.

The above does not include all of the prospective candidates, and it is probable that some of those above are not candidates at all. We just give them as citizens that are being talked of in connection with the various county offices.

prisoned, according to the discretion of the court.

These and many other strange occurrences have taken place since the 'Ninety-eight was ushered in. The election will be on shortly, which will surely produce another sensation. There has been no deaths, births, marriages or elopements or divorces within the last week. I will try and keep run of things here and report to you and keep you readers posted on what is going on in our part of the moral vineyard.

There will be a meeting at Derrick's hall on January 29th, at one o'clock, p. m., to celebrate the birth of Thomas Paine. All are invited to attend and take part in the exercises.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Thomas N. Coombs, of Ona, Oregon, Archie McGinley, of Tolbens, Oregon, Jas. Gatens and Andrew Gallagher, of Ona, Or. 6th.

CHAS. B. MOORES, Registrar.

Meager reports come from Five Rivers, in Lincoln county, of a two round-bare knuckle-rough and tumble fight in which Theodore Crans and a man named Carr acted as principals and another party whose name was not learned officiated as referee.

The contest took place in the vicinity of Mr. Crans' house and the cause has not been learned. The first round began with a clinch and a fall. As the ground was steep both rolled over and over until they landed in Mr. Crans spring, with Carr on top. Here Crans begged for mercy, and after securing a promise to cease hostilities Carr let him up. But Crans, on regaining his feet and wind, forgot his promise to behave and seizing a board, made for Carr. That worthy, however, was on guard and soon had Crans down again and this time beat him severely. Mr. Crans came out not only badly licked but thoroughly ducked in his own spring.—Corvallis Times.

FROM LITTLE ELK.

Editor LEADER:—It has been quite a while since I have sent you a communication. As there is a general shaking up in this section I thought it necessary to inform you how matters are turning.

We have succeeded in moving the postoffice, but in so doing we had to take the name also, which leaves Mr. Eddy without a name, a circumstance very uncommon at the present time. It would seem that a name might be found to suit the changed state of affairs, some romantic name like "Wildwood," or "Wood," or some other name that would suit the occasion. Some of the patrons are greatly opposed to assuming the name of Eddyville, but however, we cannot have everything we want in this wild and woolly western country.

Lawsuits is another fad in our community. A man is in danger when walking across a man's premises of being arrested for assault and battery, and being fined or im-

A Cure For Lame Back.

"My daughter when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louben Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by O. O. Krogstad Druggist

DIED.

CONKLIN—At his home near this place, on Wednesday, January 19, 1898, Joseph S. Conklin, aged 73 years, 11 months and 15 days.

Joseph Smith Conklin was born at Damascus, Wayne county, Pennsylvania, February 4, 1824. He was married to Caroline C. Turner in 1846. Six children were born to them, one son and five daughters, of which three daughters still survive him. He joined the great throng of gold seekers and went to California in 1852, but returned to Pennsylvania two years later. He moved to Missouri in 1857, where his wife died in the fall of 1858. He was married to Catherine Golden November 22, 1860.

He enlisted as first sergeant of Company A, First Mo. Engineers on July 6, 1861, and was wounded while placing a cannon in position in June, 1862. He was mustered out of the service in November, 1864. For the wounds received in the service he was granted a pension of $4 per month in 1887, which was increased to $24 per month in 1891, which rate continued until his death.

He moved from Missouri to Kansas in 1874 where he followed farming until February 1889, when he moved to Eugene, Oregon, and in May of the same year he moved to Toledo, where he has since resided.

The funeral services which were held on Thursday, were conducted by Abe Lincoln Post, G. A. R., of this place, of which Post the deceased was a member. The ceremonies were simple and impressive. A short address was made over the remains by Comrade Wadsworth which was both touching and impressive. The remains were interred in the Toledo cemetery.

Gone, and the world to go on as before,
Gone with a smile from the dear homestead door,
Dear faithful heart to come back never, nor be sad any more.

Gone, and the seasons will still come and go,
Wreathing his grave with blossoms and snow,
Snow on the bosom that sheltered love so;
Cold and pitiless snow.

Home is not home for the dear one's not there,
Dark is his room and vacant his chair,
Now will he rest from his labors and care,
Till the resurrection morn so fair.

Sleep, dear one sleep, with your hands on your breast,
Poor, weary hands, they needed their rest;
Dearly we loved thee, but God loved thee best,
He has called thee home to thy rest.

T. T. Geer has launched his boom as candidate for the republican nomination for governor, and is now addressing republican clubs all over the state.
