It may have been an accident that blew up the Maine, and if so it was a deplorable one, but a great majority of the people of the United States are bound to believe that Spanish trickery, or treachery had something to do with it.

A warrant was sworn out in the justice court of this precinct this week by Henry Curler, of Drift creek, charging Geo. Hodges and W. D. Griffith with larceny of a cow. It is claimed that the defendants killed for beef a cow belonging to the complaining witness. Constable Altree and his brother Oliver as deputy, went to Drift creek yesterday and brought the defendants in. The preliminary examination will be held before Squire Hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

One of the early and sure harbingers of returning prosperity to the country along the Corvallis & Eastern railroad, is the reappearance of Wm. M. Hoag in Albany, with the avowed intention of building a large brick building, and repairing and operating the Magnolia mills of that place. There is not a safer or shrewder investor or speculator on the Coast than Mr. Hoag. He generally knows where, when and how to make paying investments. Notwithstanding the terrible slump in real estate values in Oregon during the past few years Mr. Hoag held on to his investments here, and will no doubt realize handsomely on them in the end.

Wholesale and retail—Gowell's.

You can get what you want at Gowell's.

Why don't you trade at the only cash store in town?—Gowell's.

Lots of goods have been sold in the last month at TELLEFSON'S Yaquina, but the store is just as well filled up. Get your supplies while you can get a bargain.

Mr. Randall, an O. R. & N. conductor, is in town today. Mr. Randall has property interests at Newport that he is looking after.

Rev. Ellsworth will begin a revival meeting at this place tomorrow night. He requests that all Christian people of every denomination attend the meetings of Saturday night and Sunday.

B. F. Swope, the new attorney, has fitted up an office in the Y. B. M. Co. block. He has also purchased property, buying the residence property of J. S. Akin. His wife will soon arrive here.

Fred McMurray, who but recently was in the toils of Lincoln county's criminal court, passed through Corvallis Monday on his way from Toledo to Portland, where his parents reside.—Corvallis Times

Jack Chambers started home Monday to develop his new found mine, and was accompanied by Roll and Fred, sons of Mrs. C. G. Copeland of Toledo, and who are nephews of the prospective gold king. Upon reaching Corvallis from a visit in King's Valley Mr. Chambers received a letter from his daughter at home stating that the boys at work in the mine had taken out a thousand dollars the day the letter was dated. Mrs. Copeland went as far as Portland with her sons and brother-in-law, and will there purchase a large quantity of general merchandise which, together with the stock she already has at Toledo, she will ship to Siletz. Mrs. Copeland has under construction at the agency a commodious store building which will soon be ready for the reception of her goods.—Corvallis Times.

A few months ago, Mr. Byron Every, of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerable and the second bottle effected a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes are for sale by O. O. Krogstad Druggist.

A Big Transfer.

It is no longer the proper thing to say "the Oregon Central & Eastern" when speaking of the Yaquina railroad line. The Oregon Central and Eastern like the railroad company it succeeded, is a thing of the past. The deed conveying the railroad line, together with all telegraph lines, steamboats, cars, locomotives, shops, rights, franchises and every other species of property or appliance common to railroads has been executed, and is of record in Benton county. It was filed the latter part of last week, and in spite of the fact that it transfers from one company to another a large block of property, is a very unpretentious instrument of four or five pages. The figure named in it as the basis of the transfer is "one dollar and other valuable considerations." It was executed by A. B. Hammond president, and Edwin Stone, secretary, of the old company. The blanks in the general offices and in use along the line as way bill and expense bills all bear the euphonious label Corvallis and Eastern, which is henceforth to be the official name of the road. In the deed of transfer it is stated that the Corvallis and Eastern railroad company is located at Albany, Oregon.

A Salem dispatch says: "It is rumored about Salem that Secretary Kinclid, who has always been a silver republican, will abide by his convictions and go over to the silver forces. The recent action of the state league of republicans has had the effect of causing many conscientious silver men to leave the old party where they are no longer given any consideration."

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—GEO. E. WOLFF, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla.
