The stock of general merchandise of C. L. Gowell was sold at public auction last Saturday by Assignee Sweeny. The auction was conducted by Dr. Vincent as auctioneer. There were five or six bidders present, but the bidding was not very spirited. The stock invoiced about $1,600, and the first bid was fifteen percent of the inventory. From that sum it crawled up to $715 and was knocked down to the Yaquina Bay Mercantile company for $1,000.

The steam schooner Miami, of Tillamook, was in Yaquina bay this week. The owners of this vessel are Messrs. Mullaney, of Tillamook. It is the intention of these men to put the schooner in the coasting trade, running her between Nehalem and Coos Bay, touching at all way ports. Mr. E. H. Mullaney, one of the owners, was in this place one day this week interviewing the shippers and seeing what encouragement they would give them.

By an oversight and a misunderstanding the Union candidates for justice of the peace and constable in Toledo and Drift Creek precincts will not appear upon the official ballots. Their nominations were not properly certified to in time, and hence the clerk could not put them on the ballot. These candidates are O. O. Krogsstad for justice of the peace, and A. E. Aitree for constable. All persons desiring to vote for these men should be careful to write their names on the ballot when voting.

The election of Stearns will be just about like electing Uncle Charley Williams county judge. He stands sponsor for him in everything. They say that whenever Stearns goes to Newport Uncle Charley takes him in tow and takes him off up to his house and is very careful that no one else gets to see him. A hotel in Newport never gets to see the judge.

The annual payment of interest money on the Siletz begun last Tuesday. The payment to each Indian is a few cents less than that of last year. The whole payment will amount to about $5,000, and will be very gratefully received by the Indians. This payment was due the first of March, but for some reason it has been unavoidably delayed for three months.

Some of the best work being done for the Union candidate for county judge is being done at Newport by Uncle Charley Williams and his son David. They are fighting Stewart as hard as they know how and are making votes for him every day. They are urged to keep up their fight.

The figures given by the LEADER a few weeks ago about the county indebtedness is correct, and we defy and we defy any man to disprove them by the records. In round numbers the county had outstanding warrants in the sum of $22,000 when Stearns took his seat as county judge. It now has over $30,000 outstanding, an increase of over $8,000 in less than two years. And yet this is called economy. Some men have lots of nerve.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by O. O. Krogsstad Druggist.

Ball Supper.

Supper will be served at the popular Toledo House next Monday night, after the ball. A fine supper will be served for only 25 cents.

MEMORIAL DAY.

It Was Fittingly and Appropriately observed in Toledo.

The Memorial exercises at this place last Monday under the auspices of the G. A. R. Post and the Woman's Relief Corps, were very successful and interesting. The war in which our nation is now plunged with a foreign foe lent a deeper feeling of solemnity to the occasion than usually prevails.

The exercises were held at the Court House, owing to the rain making it impossible to hold them at the cemetery, as was first intended. The Court House had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting, and flowers were in a plentiful profusion. The exercises consisted of musical and literary numbers. The old soldiers then deposited their tributes of flowers upon the mound prepared in the room in honor of their fallen comrades. The school children then marched by and laid their tribute of flowers upon the mound in memory of the unknown dead. After these exercises the oration of the day was delivered by Hon. R. A. Bensell, of Newport. Mr. Bensell's address was an able, patriotic effort, and was closely listened to by the large crowd present.

Several old soldiers from different parts of the county were present and assisted their Toledo comrades in the exercises.

One of the touching and patriotic incidents of the day was the presence of some of the boys who wore the gray, and who took part in the exercises. It brought vividly to mind the glorious fact that there is no North or no South, but only one country and one flag.

Death of Mrs. Gillette.

Last Monday, while attending the Memorial exercises at the court house, Mrs. Edwin Stanton and her sister Miss Gillette, received a telegram announcing that their mother Mrs. Gillette, of Corvallis, had suddenly died of heart disease. The daughters were severely shocked by the sad announcement. On Monday night they started by team for Corvallis, driving through, arriving at Corvallis on Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock.

The Corvallis Times gives the following account of the sudden death of Mrs. Gillette:

The usual solemnity of Memorial Day was deepened in the evening by the announcement that Mrs. F. J. Gillette had died at the residence of Mrs. Wright, near the ice factory, having been attacked by heart disease while on her way to the Masonic cemetery. Feeling somewhat distressed she sat down upon the sidewalk, thinking she would feel better, but instead her breathing became more difficult, and her daughter Lua, who was with her, called assistance and hastily summoned her father who was at his blacksmith shop not far distant. The stricken lady was conveyed in an unconscious state to the residence mentioned and in a few minutes afterward she passed away apparently without suffering.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock today, June 1, at the congregational church. Rev. Krause officiating. Interment occurs in Crystal Lake cemetery.

Abigail Elenor Taylor was born in Plymouth, Ind., and at the time of her death was aged 55 years, 11 months and 9 days. At Horican, Wis., March 7, 1867, she married F. J. Gillette. In 1882 they came to Oregon and located at Buena Vista where they remained several years, coming to Corvallis in 1887, where Mr. and Mrs. Gillette and their estimable family have since remained. Mrs. Gillette was much beloved by her acquaintances. She was a most devoted wife and mother and was richly endowed with those qualities of disposition and purpose which go so far to make an ideal household. Her example and her influence was for good always, and she ever disregarded her own convenience to lighten the burdens of others.

Silver is going to win in Oregon this year.

Vote for the Union ticket and you will make no mistake.

Mrs. Harry Denlinger came over from Corvallis this evening.

Bob Johnson, of Corvallis, spent a couple of days in Lincoln county this week.

If you vote for the candidates on the Union ticket you will have a good administration of affairs.

The election of Blue and Clark to the legislature means two solid free silver votes in that body. It also means two votes for an economical administration of state affairs.

Harry Denlinger will arrive home tomorrow evening from his campaigning tour over the district. He has made a hard fight and we hope that it will prove to have been a successful one.

Look out for the campaign lie that will bob up at the last minute, when it is too late to make a denial or a defense. It is the meanest kind of campaigning, and should be frowned upon by men of all parties.

The Newport News says that Stewart got more than he was entitled to for publishing a delinquent tax list in 1893. If he did the bill was approved by J. O. Stearns, who was then a commissioner and voted to allow the bill. If there was anything wrong about it Stearns was a party to it.

The ball game between Elk City and Siletz was a victory for the Siletz boys. It was a fine game and everything went for a good time. At the end of the game the usual complaints were given, and each one of the Siletz boys said we won this game for Hanky Lawson and not three cents for Lutz. And from the unanimous response: We can't imagine Lutz in the county clerk's office.

A side track is under construction at this place. But the workmen were stopped work this morning by Mrs. Winkler who owns the land along the river. It seems impossible to show her that it is for her personal interest to have it there. But it takes all kinds of people to make up the world of opinions.

The United Artisans will hold their regular social meeting on the 8th. A good program has been arranged and the public are invited.

BATTLE AXE PRE-TIM

June 1st, 1898.

Venom of the Partisan.

With characteristic venom, bitterness and intolerance the Oregonian denounces democrats and populists as traitors because they will not vote the simon-republican ticket. It uses the war with Spain as a mean and contemptible pretext for declaring that patriotism means the support of its own ticket in this county and state. How narrow and bigoted is this counsel! How stupid and nearsighted! Votes are not won by calling men traitors. How absurd is it to maintain that partially half of the people of Oregon are their country willing that Spain shall win!

Happily the American people, irrespective of politics, democrats, silver republicans, populists and republicans alike in this state and in the nation, men who vote for Geer or for King, are united in support of the president. There is not a break in the ranks. The distinctions of politics have been swept aside by a loftier patriotism. The president will have all the men and all the money that he needs for the war. The gallant men who will march through Cuba and the Philippines and the bold sailors of the sea are patriots, not partisans.

For, is not Dewey, the greatest of them all, the hero of the war, a democrat?—Portland Tribune, (Republican.)
