

LOCAL IN BRIEF

No Doubt About It.

One step won't take you very far— You've got to keep on walking: One word won't tell folks what you are— You've got to keep on talking:

One inch won't make you very tall— You've got to keep on growing? One little "ad" won't do it all— You've got to keep 'em going.—[Stolen.]

How to Prevent Croup.

We have to children who are subject to attack of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

A few days since an intending bidder on the government works secured figures for lumber from M. Gregson. Later Mr. Gregson received a letter inferring that the writer was fearful that Mr. Gregson could not furnish the lumber for the work from live timber. What we wish to bring to notice is this: Why does some person wish to poison a contractor's mind in such a manner? Isn't it small business? Mr. Gregson's timber is as hve as anybody's timber. It is to be hoped the poisoner does not live in Lincoln county. He isn't needed here at all.

Isn't this A Chance.

The following notice was taken from the Oregonian and we copy it hoping some of our citizens may write and get full particulars and fill the order from Yaquina Bay. Even if but a few were sent this fall, it might prove a starter of a regular paying market for our peerless apples: "APPLES WANTED—Give size of package, quantity, condition, prevailing kinds and price. P. C. Sears, 121 South Water st., Chicago, Ill."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 39. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
