In the city today.

Mrs. W. F. Webster, who has been on a visit for a few days, is back in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Read and Mrs. Daisy Hoolihan, of Siletz, are visiting in Waldport and vicinity. As they formerly resided here in Waldport, they are enjoying the "Auld lang syne".

October 16, 1921.

Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jones are returning to a visit to their parents in Independence.

Misses Hess, Chas. and J. E. Allan and families returned to their farms from the Valley of Tears.

October 16, 1921.

Railroad Engineer.

"Dr. Miller's" Remedies.

An advertisement for "Dr. Miller's" Remedies, including titles such as "Even the greatest climate of California cannot surpass today," "Felix Fremont, the Portland beroo expert, was in town the first week this month," and "Where to visit in Portland and vicinity." The text is a mixture of typographic errors and oddities, making it difficult to discern coherent sentences.

When in Corvallis,

and examine our line of 88.90 and teals. They can't be beat for price.

Also a complete line of BOYS' YOUTH'S and

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING, MENS' BOOTS and SHOES. HATS AND CAPS, TRUNKS, VALISES.

Suites Made to Order.

F. L. MILLER, Corvallis, Ore.

[Address and telephone information]

Toledo Hotel,

A STYLIZED FIRST-CLASS HOTEL

For Courtship, Honeymoon and wedding Trips.

Suites for Governor and Mrs. Coolidge and $1.50 per week.

M. G. HALL,

Land Commissioner, Toledo, Oregon.

INDIAN COUNTY LEADER.

-W. L. DELEON, Edtor.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1921.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

A woodshed Sell.

Jane Jones went to the Waldport store Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. F. Jones went to Waldport Tuesday morning.

Mrs. H. J. Turner came over from Hemp agency yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Arnold returned to the visit to Portland Friday morning.

Her Guther and wife spent Sunday with their son, J. S. Gauthier family.

At Mrs. E. W. Owen dropped for Independence home yesterday.

Forest Jones went to Waldport about twelve days ago.

The Sandusky family in this city held religious services in the Methodist church yesterday. The fish are still biting well and better than usual.

Mr. J. B. Arnold and Al Warneke's girls returned from their visit to friends in Eugene Friday morning.

Mr. H. L. Newman is home from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Owen departed for Independence home yesterday.

It was a very fine day, and we are glad to have our guests here.

Mrs. E. F. Jones went to Waldport Tuesday morning.

Miss Julia Taylor stayed with the Folts, Monday night and returned home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ed Folt's position in the community.

Mrs. Fred Sackett and daughter, of Liberty, were in town Wednesday morning.

Mrs. J. B. Arnold and Al Warneke's girls returned from their visit to friends in Eugene Friday morning.

Shaw fishing will soon be a thing of the past, as the shad will leave this vicinity, a few days and will return near the end of December.