

LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER.

—W. L. DAVIS, EDITOR.—

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1898.

LOCAL IN BRIEF

Now swear off
And go right back
To the same old habits
In less than three weeks.
Late weather is hard on stock.
Make ready now to write it 1899.
Fred Chambers came over from the Siletz Tuesday.
All our merchants enjoyed a good Christmas trade.
Our weather during the Holidays has been quite well mixed.
Al Johnson of Corvallis, was a passenger to Yaquina Tuesday.
Santa Claus in all his glory at Miller & Pruett's.
If we differ in politics, we won't on prices; that's sure.
Plant an ad in THE LEADER. It will grow while you are sleeping.

Rev. Ellsworth of Newport spent Monday in our city, making us a pleasant call.

Wm. Whetsler and wife and O. C. Simpson, of Elk City, took in the mask ball.

Hon. Elmo Davis visited Yaquina Tuesday night to attend lodge meeting.

J. M. Bowers took advantage of our Oregonian offer Tuesday. Who will be the next?

Remember Hansen's forced sale of clocks and watches. See ad in another column.

Mrs. Professor Walker visited the Valley this week, returning Thursday evening.

The "up-the-snotic" is epidemic in our city and all our people are complaining of severe colds.

Doc Dalaba spent Tuesday in the capital attending to business and hobnobbing with friends.

The advertising patronage of THE LEADER is growing, from which our patrons receive a benefit.

THE LEADER and others are indebted to Jack Allphin for a nice clean cross walk near this office.

Miller & Pruett have the largest and most varied stock of Boots and Shoes west of Corvallis.

Great reduction on Men's, Ladies' and Misses' Mackintoshes at Yaq. Bay Merc. Co.

Miss Sarah Needham, a niece of Mrs. Gowell, arrived last week and will make her home among us for the winter.

W. E. Yates, one of Corvallis' legal lights, arrived Monday evening to attend to business in this circuit court.

Mrs. Henry Lewis was expected home Thursday, but did not arrive probably because of the fill in Tunnel No. 1.

T. J. Buford and his sons Jay and Guy were Monday sojourners among us. They returned Tuesday morning to Siletz.

Joe Brouse returned from Independence and Corvallis Thursday evening. Wm. Mackey will return in a few days.

Dr. Darnell is receiving a nice trade these days, besides being kept quite busy professionally. Glad to note his prosperity.

The mask ball was not a blooming success, yet Mr. Jones did his part to entertain pleasantly all who came. He paid for a boat, so people below could come free, yet only three or four came. Those present all report a pleasant dance.

Don't forget Saturday preceding Christmas! It may be the last day of our generous offer of 10 per cent. off. MILLER & PRUETT.

From now till Christmas a present will be given to every purchaser of an Overcoat, Mackintosh or Suit of Clothing. YAQ. BAY MERC. CO.

The well know Adam Tanbark was in town Saturday, being a witness for John Hanlon in making final proof before Clerk Lutz.

D. F. Hardman, representing the book and stationery firm of Glass & Prudhomme of Portland, visited our county officers Wednesday.

Jack McCulloch of Newport, was a Tuesday caller, coming to the county seat to interview J. K. Weatherford, who spent Tuesday here.

Representative Elmo Davis will depart for Salem the 7th of January. Those wishing to interview him before he goes may construct their plans accordingly.

A. J. Johnson, of Astoria, who is making a report to the government of our timber resources, visited the Siletz early this week to look over that timber. He departed for the Valley Wednesday.

Patronize home industry. Buy Oregon City boots and shoes, made of Oregon leather in an Oregon city for Oregonians. T. P. Fish sells them at lowest prices.

Troy Mays caught a steel head salmon last week weighing 19 pounds. The following Friday night C. W. Bogue took one in that weighed 20 pounds. Our fishermen say they never saw such large steel heads before.

Notice.

Remember to settle your account with me at once, as I will be leaving the bay in a short time and I am in need of the money.

Yours truly

PETER TELLEFSON.
Yaquina City, Ore.

FOR SALE.—I have now on hand plenty of good baled hay for sale. Those in need will know where to buy.

T. P. FISH.

Miss Jessie Buoy completed her term of school at Elk City last Friday. Saturday she returned to Philomath and at once took up her studies at that seat of learning. Miss Jessie has made a host of friends here and all regret her departure, of course, some more than others. Even the crowd which congregated at the depot might miss the cheery call of "At the other end Ell!"

Billy Watkins, known to everybody in this locality, passed through this place last week on his way to Yaquina. Billy has been all summer in Eastern Oregon and has had a fine opportunity to make a stake, but ill health has prevented. At one time he was turned out of a hotel, with ample means in his pocket, because he coughed so incessantly and loud that his fellow lodgers could not sleep. He has certainly been misused by Dame Fortune, but will try it again next Spring.

Restaurant and Bakery.

E. S. Flitcroft has opened a new branch of business in Toledo which will without doubt prove a convenience to our people and a source of profit to him. We have other eating places, but never have had a bakery. Samples of bread, cake and cookies were left at this office and Mrs. LEADER pronounced them good. In another column may be seen his card. May success crown his effort.

A Slight Fill.

Wednesday before noon the earth at the east end of Tunnel No. 1 began to roll in, and after dinner quite a large amount came following after. About 4 p. m. an engine and two coaches in charge of Master Mechanic Walsh left Yaquina for the scene, picking up all the section men on the road to the tunnel. Arriving there, the transfer of passengers, mail and express was quickly made and but a few minutes delay was caused. The entire fill was removed Thursday and the train arrived only a few minutes late.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the groom near this city, December 26, 1898, Mr. Gustaf G. Forssell and Miss Hannah Frykberg, both of this place, Judge J. F. Stewart officiating.

Gus is one of our prosperous farmers and now will be more prosperous than ever. THE LEADER and his numerous friends wish him all sorts of happiness.

Eggs are high and tending higher in price, so now is the time to make your hens lay by giving them some of Krogstad's Egg Food. Only 25 cents per pound.

The Christmas Trees.

The Methodist Christmas trees and entertainment given before the distribution of presents, was a success in every way, and much more so when it is taken into consideration that nearly all the little ones and many older people were sick and unable to lend assistance. We say it was a success because the expression on the faces of the little ones (and this entertainment was certainly for them) showed them to be wonderfully pleased and happy.

The program was given in the court house for the purpose of having more room and even then there was no room, not an inch, to spare. Both trees were well loaded and everyone wondered where all the presents came from, as some said times were too close to admit of the customary gift buying. A circus and a Christmas tree will always find money and in plenty no matter what the times may be. The ladies are to be congratulated for their success and should be sincerely thanked for the hard work necessarily given to make it the success it was.

The Episcopalists had a tree for their own school and members, which was also a pleasant success.

ELK CITY SHOOTING MATCH.

No prettier day could have been asked for than Friday and it was evident when about 100 men appeared to try their nerve for turkeys, pork or beef. From eight o'clock until after four the crack of the rifle told the listener that the fun was in full blast. The shooting done was excellent, the marksman who wished a turkey had to drive a tack nearly every time to take the prize. In one case four of the ten shots cut the center with the ball. For open sights at 40 yards, this is excellent work. Toledo brought home her share of the game, taking a dozen turkeys and one-half the pork, while Nashville took the other half.

Some threw dice for pigs, and at this sort of sport Dr. Carter was in the lead, having won two nice, fat squealers. He is a "cracker" when it comes to "throwing the bones."

One of the best single-handed shots present was Ed Wade, but he generously gave way before he was barred.

Stony Wells made a phenomenal shot. He picked a sparrow hawk off a dead snag on top of the mountain opposite Elk City, a distance of about 300 yards.

Everything passed off pleasantly and all enjoyed a day of fine sport. The editor failed to get turkey—they didn't have turkey at the hotel—but enjoyed himself as greatly as anybody.

ABOUT RETROGRESSION.

David Ruble published an article in the Post last week strongly favoring an act merging Lincoln county into Benton again. This will occur "When the robins nest again." He attributes the fall in the price of real estate to the creation of this county, says half the homestead houses are vacant from the same cause, and might as well lay the wreck of the Atlanta to this same cause also. It would be just as near the truth. Prices have dropped in Benton and Multnomah just as low proportionately as in Lincoln. But we will stop, for should we answer his article, point for point, he would say we were a politician or were interested in Toledo, two classes from whom he does not care to hear. Maybe the creation of this county was a mistake, but the worst is over, and soon we shall begin to rest easy. Aside from all this, THE LEADER does not believe in ever going back. Retrogression is not a successful policy to pursue—is nearly always a mistake. Let us not make another mistake, if this be a mistake, but forge ahead to success. In face of our present prospect, this is no time to make a backward move.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitors if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, Druggist.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, Druggist.

Sheriff's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that, by virtue and authority of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lincoln, bearing date of December 7th, 1898, and under the seal of said court and attested by the clerk thereof, upon a judgment duly rendered and entered in said court on the 17th day of July, 1894, in a suit therein pending, wherein L. W. Williams was plaintiff and W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber were defendants, in favor of L. W. Williams plaintiff and against W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, said defendants, for the sum of Two Hundred and Twelve and 32-100 Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from the 3d day of June, 1895, and for Fifty and 85-100 Dollars damages and costs, which judgment was entered and docketed in the clerk's office of said court in said county on the 17th day of July, 1894. The aforesaid execution was to me directed and delivered and commanded me that out of the personal property belonging to said defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, or if sufficient cannot be found, then out of the real property in my county belonging to the said defendants, W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, on or after the 17th day of July, 1894, that I make the sums of money aforesaid now due on said judgment with interest, costs and costs of and upon this writ.

Now Therefore, in pursuance of the aforesaid execution, I, J. H. Ross, sheriff of Lincoln county, Oregon, did on the 12th day of December, 1898, levy upon the following described property, to-wit: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 in block 78 in Case & Bayley's 3rd addition to Newport. Also Lots 3, 4, 5 in sec 22, twp 11 south of range 10 west, and also the e 1/4 of nw 1/4 and nw 1/4 of sec 29, twp 11 south of range 11 west; all of the above described property being in Lincoln county, Oregon, and I levied on the same as the property of the said defendants, W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, I being unable after diligent search, to find any personal property belonging to aforesaid defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber not exempt from execution upon which to levy and make the sums of money mentioned in said execution.

Now, Therefore, on SATURDAY, THE 14th, day of JANUARY 1899 at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the court house door in the city of Toledo, in said Lincoln county, Oregon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand the above described real property, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, as well as all the right, title and interest of the said defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber in and to the above described real property, and all persons claiming through or under them since the 17th day of July, 1894, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment and execution and amounts due thereon as above set forth, with costs and accruing costs.

Dated December 15, 1898.

J. H. ROSS,
Sheriff of Lincoln County, Oregon.
