OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Wm. Reidy was in our city from his Drift creek home Saturday.

Monday was a genuine Oregon day; plenty of warm, damp mist.

Billy Watkins was a Sunday visitor in this city, returning the same evening.

Will Ford has been working on the section for several days for Foreman Henry Gannon.

Jack Allphin has had more than he can tend to choring for others. He is an absolute necessity in our burg.

Clarence Atree's genial phiz was seen on our streets first of the week. He has become a thoroughbred Drift Creeker.

If the weather at Salem resembled the weather in Toledo Tuesday, the inaugural ceremonies of Gov. Geer were doubtless in-door exercises.

J. H. Kern's son, J. N. N. Kern took the examination for West Point military academy at Salem Saturday. Our people know him well.

S. A. Logan was in town Saturday making preparations for the interment of his father the following day. His obituary will be found in another column.

Miss Julia Taylor returned from a visit to Philomath Saturday evening, to again take up the busy thread of school teaching. She has been absent a week.

Mr. Severy drove Professor Walker over from the Agency Saturday. He is now able to walk with the assistance of crutches, and will soon be himself again.

Miss Effie Crosno is again a resident of Salem, where she will remain during the present session of the legislature acting in the capacity of a committee clerk.

THE LEADER job department is turbing out a neat, tasty Bar Docket for the coming session of circuit court. It thoroughly believes in blowing its own horn.

Landlord Ed Schmeer and his daughter visited Albany Monday, to more fully prepare his house for the court week run of business. Ed believes in being up-to-date.

Dr. F. M. Carter of Elk City, has been in our city much of late caring for grip sufferers. The LEADER man was too "all-fired" mean to take it, and hence, has needed no M. D.

It is Assessor Wadsworth now. Mr. Parrish has given place to him and the work of the next two years will be accomplished by him. The LEADER predicts efficient work by this officer.

Sheriff Ross sold some property at sheriff's sale in Yaquina Saturday. It consisted of butcher's tools owned by Thos. Rexinger and they were purchased by John M. Bowers, a former business partner.

Some of our local merchants tell us it does not pay to advertise—that no one ever reads the advertisements. Our own "Cheap Reading" card is not more attractive than others, yet we received orders from Portland, Nevada and Minnesota last week—a direct return from this card. It is still true that LEADER advertisers do the business.

Daniel Gousolas, a Minnesota friend of Doc Wakefield's, and who has visited the Klondike country during 1898, was the guest of Ex-Sheriff Landis the last of the week. He departed for Eddyville Monday morning.

Father Bucha was in our city Saturday on his way home from a visit to the Grand Ronde agency and also at Corvallis. He is laboring in the Lord's vineyard at the Siletz agency and the Indians value him and his labors very highly.

Ye editor visited Bellamy colony Monday. He found a beautiful tract of land there and a coterie of men who are good farmers, energetic workers and will succeed. Everything is cared for about the place. Two new houses have been erected and time only is needed to make the place a beautiful home.

Dr. R. E. Darnell, whose card appears in another column, has been a busy man during the late grip epidemic. So many were suffering from its ravages, even though in a mild form, that he has been almost constantly on the go. Suppose he can stand a great deal of this kind of work and not sincerely find fault.

E. E. Kightlinger, clerk at the Agency, has been ill enough that he could not scarcely attend to his duties, and Sunday Agent Buford was in this place for the purpose of procuring temporary assistance, but the LEADER is informed that Hon. C. B. Crosno, whom he wished to assist him, could not go because of other duties and sickness also.

Many a long-headed scheme for giving someone a job at the expense of the public will be brought before the present legislature under the head of "reform;" the most elastic word at present in the English language, unless it should be that of "economy," which, for political purposes, usually goes hand with it. Let our country members, especially, keep an eye on the gun.

Charles Reed, the Salmon river cattle king, arrived in Toledo Saturday. He came up the river and over the road from the Agency to look after the welfare of a road petition which was not acted upon at the regular December session because not properly finished. Monday morning he went to Corvallis to attend to business there before returning to his Salmon river home.

Andrew Carlson, sent up for one year from this county a year ago for larceny, is not only at large, but has made the trip into our midst very easily and almost without being seen at all. Harshal Horning passed him on his outward trip last week. He had a new pair of gum boots swung over his shoulder and they undoubtedly contained the balance of the stolen goods not found on him when taken near Slab Creek last winter.

There was a party at R. Arnold's the other evening which was very enjoyable for the young people. Those present had a nice time playing games until eleven o'clock when popcorn and apples were served. Those present were Misses Anna Alexander, Ivy Crawford, Emma Flitcroft, Edith Ross, Vena Alexander, Martha Rache, Venie Ross, Messrs. Herman Horning, Everett Jones, Otis Flitcroft, Clifford Crosno, George Snow and Willie Alexander.
