EDITORIAL AND COMMENT.

Hon. Joseph Choate, New York's greatest lawyer, has been appointed ambassador to England.

One of the two proposed judgeships would make a neat nest into which Ex-Gov. Lord will fall.

If the present legislature does but little and does that little well, it will have accomplished more than many of its predecessors.

A bill has been already introduced by Nichols to tack a part of Lincoln and Lane counties to Lobster precinct, Benton county. What do you think of it?

The mooted question of committee clerks for the state solons was settled early in the week. No real reform was made; no money was saved for the state. The matter has simply changed form, that is all. The number was lessened and the wages raised. This question has been the scape goat of the legislature for years, upon whose back has been heaped all the sins of all the members of all the previous sessions. This cry has been raised that all eyes might be riveted upon the comely lady clerk while other much greater extravagancies were secured for Salem and vicinity.

The Government of the Philippines.

It is not in the least true that "we" have "absorbed" ten or twelve million Malays by virtue of taking international control of the Philippine Islands. The ocean is just as wide as it was last year. Those Malays will not attempt to decide disputed Presidential elections in this country, and there is probably not a human being of any complexion who is proposing to bring about any such consummation. The people of the Philippines will not flock to the United States under the new era much if any more freely than they flocked to Spain under the old era. We shall not be precipitated into any very exhaustive wars for their subjugation, because we have no desire to subjugate them. There is no intention in this country to exploit them, and no one wishes to make an empire out of them. There can be no harm in the attempts to forecast in advance all the successive stages of experience through which we shall pass in our endeavor to improve the general condition of things in those islands, and no great benefit. We shall simply have to keep in mind the lesson that the old man in the fable taught his sons, and break our sticks one at a time.—Review of Reviews.

Chitwood Chips.

We are not troubled with dusty roads or forest fires just at present, and from the appearance of the elements above we are not likely to have any disturbance in that line very soon.
Uncle Jimmie and Aunt Margaret Chitwood and D. J. Chitwood are all having a tussle with la grippe. Ralph Wilson is getting all right again, but Claude and Miss Beulah Wilson are having a more serious time of it, but we think they will be all right in a few days.
Messrs. L. F. Pepin and Ira Whitney have been getting out stone lately for the foundation of E. W. Durkee's new store which is to be built next summer at Chitwood.

Will Cook's new barn begins to loom up like a new pewter dollar, he is putting the roof on when it don't rain too hard.
SKOOCUM TUM TUM.
Jan. 10, 1899.

Pool Slough.

Geo. Wright has been quite sick for a week or more but last reports are favorable. Some others are complaining.
Miss Hattie Ferr came up from Newport Saturday for a visit.
Miss Rettie White of this place has taken up her abode at West Yaquina with her sister, Mrs. Worrell to take advantage of the winter school.
Young folks are becoming scarce here.

TILlicum.

Will Tillicum kindly send his name along with his next letter? We do not wish to publish it, but must have it or we cannot accept the items.

THE GIRL THEY LEFT BEHIND.

They sat in their tent at close of day,
In a confiding state of mind,
And talked in a confidential way
Of the girlies they left behind.
The light of the stars in the realms above,
Those gems of the arching skies
Was not as soft as the light of love
That glowed in the warriors' eyes
As each one told of the beauties rare
Of his own particular maiden fair.
"My girl," said Tom, "is a pretty queen,
And true as the tempered steel;
Has the loveliest eyes that were ever seen
She's a stunner from head to heel,
'Twas in a letter I asked her hand,
In a passionate sort of way;
An eloquent declaration, and
Her answer just came today.
She says she loves me, and will be glad
To share the life of her soldier lad."
"My darling is worth her weight in gold"
Said Jack with a love-drawn tear,
"There isn't an angel above could hold
Her own with the little dear!
That last sweet night when we kissed good-by
She promised to be my wife,
To love me faithful and true 'till I
Got back from my soldier life.
And her letters tell me in every line
She's mine forever and only mine."
"And I," said Harry, "have won a girl
Who is waiting for me at home
The sweetest and prettiest maiden pearl
'Neath Heaven's o'erhanging dome,
She wears my ring on her lovely hand,
In my heart is her image divine—
But tell me the names of your dear ones, and I'll tell you the name of mine."
"Kate Todd?"
"Great God!"
Then the brains of the trio began to whirl!
They were all engaged to the same sweet girl!

The Giant Despair.
One of the most horrible things about the nervous diseases to which women are peculiarly subject is the sense of overwhelming despair which they bring upon the mind. A woman's mental condition is directly and powerfully affected by any ailment of the delicate, special organs of her sex. Such a difficulty not only racks her body with pain and suffering but burdens her with mental anguish which words can hardly describe.
Thousands of women have had a similar experience to that of Mrs. Eurath A. Williams, of Westport, Oldham Co., Ky., in which the use of Dr. Pierce's wonderful "Favorite Prescription" by imparting health and strength to the feminine organism, has not only restored complete vigor and capacity to the bodily powers but has also given renewed brightness and buoyancy of spirit.
"I suffered for over a year," says Mrs. Williams, "with indigestion and nervous prostration. I was unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets,' I commenced taking the medicines last May. Took three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription,' three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and three vials of the 'Pellets,' and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well, and do not suffer from indigestion or nervousness. I have gained seven and a half pounds since taking these medicines. I have recommended Dr. Pierce's medicine to several ladies, one of whom is now taking it and is being greatly benefited."
