LOCAL IN BRIEF

Arthur Rochester spent last night in this city.

George Burch was a Wednesday visitor in this city.

Clerk Hurley Lutz spent Tuesday night in Yaquina.

M. M. Davis, of Yaquina, traveled to Corvallis Wednesday.

Treasurer Hyde is much improved and will soon be among us again.

The new-moon tides this week have had almost everything afloat.

Attorney C. E. Hawkins visited Newport on business Tuesday evening.

Hon. Elmo Davis arrived in Salem Saturday to take his part in the regular session.

D. H. Williams and his son Bob were in town dealing with our merchants yesterday.

O. O. Krogstad presents a new card this week. Be sure to read it over for it interests you.

Hurley Lutz departed for the capital yesterday morning, and will doubtless return tonight.

Al Waugh departed for Albany yesterday morning to be absent a couple of days on business.

Mrs. Jay Dunn rode in from the ranch in the rain Tuesday to be relieved of an aching molar.

J. K. Weatherford and Albert Freerksen passed through from Albany last night to Newport.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland, the Siletz Agency's leading merchant, came to our city on business yesterday.

Messrs. Will and Fritz Hoef came up from Newport Thursday in a small boat to attend to business in this city.

W. F. Hyde arrived from Eddyville Monday to visit his father, who is quite ill from an attack of grippe.

S. A. Logan was seen on our streets yesterday. He was doubtless looking after the status of the court house site.

Councilman E. F. Gaar and his son Rolla returned last evening from a fortnight's visit among friends in Polk county.

It is reported that Eli Gaither will soon finish the profession of telegraphy with Agent Buoy and take a position on the road.

Miss Nora Derrick, of Eddyville, arrived Monday evening and visited her sister Mrs. Henry Gannon until Thursday, when she returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stanton are at home again. The family has been pretty well scattered during Mrs. Stanton's stay at the Agency.

If you don't read THE LEADER you don't get the news. $1.50.

Judge J. F. Stewart visited the state capital Monday and looked in upon the august members of the state legislature returning Tuesday.

Jack McCullom of Newport, was yesterday visitor in this city. He was looking after the interest of his cannery property at that place.

P. N. Lathrop left his Big Elk arm yesterday and never stopped till he found Toledo. He reports everything pleasant in his neck woods.

John Steel has the contract for furnishing the piling for the repair of the Dundon oridge, to be made by S. A. Logan. Mr. Hill is helping John do the work.

Miss Flora Fray, who has been visiting in Monroe since hop-picking returned home Monday. She came to assist her parents, her mother being very ill with the grip.

Mrs. Flitcroft has been ill from La Grippe during the past week, but Henry Dohse has cared for her customers and kept the bakery going in good style.

Lee Williams came up from the Resort city yesterday. He is interested in the court house site, it has been reported, but to what extent we do not know.

Sheriff Ross spent the first half of this week serving papers in the extreme eastern portion of the county. He will be a busy man during the next two weeks.

Two sheriff's sales will take place at the court house tomorrow. One is the property of W. T. Webber in Newport and the other is that of the Toledo Coal Company.

John Logsdon's boy, of Siletz, is going to school at Steer Creek. He pays board, pays the teacher and buys his own books. This is more than many white boys would do.

Joe Turnidge is looking for a pony with longer legs than the one he now rides. His pony is a crack-a-jack, but so short legged that Joe's feet drag in the mud all the time and that worries Joe.

Jack Porter, Newport's popular steak carver, wended his way to Portland Tuesday to collect moneys due there and to procure the aid of a dentist. He experienced much pain from his molar before starting.

Attorney Charles E. Hawkins was a busy man Wednesday, being the referee before whom the evidence in the Allen against the Bellamy colony is heard, and having also a hand in the Stimpson-Logan case before Referee Carson.

If we differ in politics, we won't on prices; that's sure.

T. P. FISH.

A hunting party, consisting of Edwin Stone, manager of the C. & E. Ry., Cashier Langdon, of the Albany First National Bank, John Cummings and Al. Johnson of Albany, passed through town Tuesday morning from Beaver Creek. They found less game there than usual but report a good time.

Edward Schmeer, proprietor of the Toledo House, one of the best hotels of Lincoln county, is in the city. The traveling public when going to Toledo will get the best at the Toledo House.—Albany Herald.

Ed Schmeer and his little daughter returned Wednesday, having purchased supplies of crockery, etc., which will allow him to attend to his court week trade in first-class manner.

H. S. Porter and family came to this city Monday for surgical aid. Their little son of six years that day jumped from an old stump about four feet, and catching one foot just as he launched into space, fell, with his entire weight upon his right arm, breaking both bones of the forearm about two inches below the elbow. Drs. Darnell and Carter reduced the fracture and Wednesday morning the family returned to their home. The little fellow was gritty and scarcely grunted.

Send THE LEADER to a friend.

County Clerk Lutz issued marriage license this week to W. E. Hanlon and Miss Effie P. Harrison, both of Ona. Mr. Hanlon is one of Lincoln county's rustling young farmers in that neighborhood, and the bride enjoys an equally enviable reputation.

A FREE LECTURE.

Sheriff's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that, by virtue and authority of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lincoln, bearing date of December 7th, 1898, and under the seal of said court and attested by the clerk thereof, upon a judgment duly rendered and entered in said court on the 17th day of July 1894, in a suit therein pending, wherein L. W. Williams was plaintiff and W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber were defendants, in favor of L. W. Williams plaintiff and against W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, said defendants, for the sum of Two Hundred and Twelve and 32/100 Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 30 day of June 1888, and for Fifty and 85/100 Dollars damages and costs, which judgment was docketed and docketed in the clerk's office of said court in said county on the 17th day of July 1894, the aforesaid execution was to me directed and delivered and commands me that out of the personal property belonging to said defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, or if sufficient cannot be found, then out of the real property in my county belonging to the said defendants, W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, on or after the 17th day of July 1894, that I make the sums of money aforesaid now due on said judgment with interest, costs and costs of and upon this writ.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the aforesaid execution, I, J. H. Ross, sheriff of Lincoln county, Oregon, did on the 12th day of December 1898, levy upon the following described property, to-wit: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 in Block 78 in Case & Bayley's 3rd addition to Newport. Also Lots 3, 4, 5 in sec 22, twp 11 south of range 10 west, and also the E 1/2 of NW 1/4, and N 1/2 of sec 29, twp 11 south of range 10 west; all of the above described property being in Lincoln county, Oregon, and I levied on the same as the property of the said defendants, W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber, I being unable after diligent search, to find any personal property belonging to aforesaid defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber not exempt from execution upon which to levy and make the sums of money mentioned in said execution.

Now, therefore, on SATURDAY, THE 14th day of JANUARY 1899 at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the court house door in the city of Toledo, in said Lincoln county, Oregon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand the above described real property, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, as well as all the right, title and interest of the said defendants W. T. Webber and L. S. Webber in and to the above described real property, and all persons claiming through or under them since the 17th day of July 1894, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment and execution and amounts due thereon as above set forth, with costs and accruing costs.

Dated December 15, 1898.

J. H. ROSS,
d16J15 Sheriff of Lincoln County, Oregon.

Sheriff's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue and authority of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lincoln, bearing date of December 10th, 1898, and under the seal of said court and attested by the clerk thereof, upon a judgment and mandate from the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon rendered the 28th day of February, 1898, and filed in the circuit court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln county, on the 27th day of September, 1898, in a suit therein pending wherein U. G. Hala, The Toledo Coal Company defendants and appellants, and C. B. Croson, Coll. Van Cleve, L. E. Blaine and Geo. A. Landis, sheriff of Lincoln county, defendants and respondents, recovered judgment on an appeal from the circuit court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln county, against B. F. Jones, respondent, for the sum of One Hundred and Thirty-Four and one-half Dollars, and the further sum of Seventy-Three Dollars damages and costs. The aforesaid execution was to me directed and delivered and commands me that out of the personal property of the said respondent B. F. Jones, or if sufficient cannot be found then out of the real property in my county belonging to the said respondent B. F. Jones, on or after the 27th day of September, 1898, that I make the sums of money aforesaid now due on said judgment, with costs of and upon this writ.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the aforesaid execution, I, J. H. Ross, sheriff of Lincoln county, Oregon, did on the 13th day of December, 1898, levy upon the following described real property to-wit: The east 1/2 of lot 2 & 3, in block No. 2 in Graham's 6th addition to the town of Toledo, Lincoln county, Oregon, as of record in the county clerk's office in said county, also a piece or parcel of land six feet wide off the north side of said lot the entire length, running to the right of way of the O. C. & E. R. Co's, and also the E 1/2 of the NW 1/4 and SW 1/4 of sec 10, containing 160 acres, all of the above described property is in Lincoln county, Oregon, and I levied on the same as the property of the said respondent, B. F. Jones, I being unable after diligent search to find any personal property within my county belonging to aforesaid respondent, B. F. Jones, not exempt from execution upon which to levy and make the sums of money mentioned in said execution.

Now, therefore, on Saturday the 14th day of January, 1899, at 1 o'clock p. m. of said day at the court house door in the city of Toledo, in said Lincoln county, Oregon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the above described real property, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining as well as all the right, title and interest of the said respondent B. F. Jones, in and to the above described real property, and all persons claiming through or under him since the 27th day of September, 1898, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment and execution and amounts due thereon as above set forth with costs and accruing costs.

Dated December 14, 1898.

J. H. ROSS,
d16J15 Sheriff of Lincoln county, Oregon.
