

LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER.

—W. L. DAVIS, EDITOR.—

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1899.

LOCAL IN BRIEF

Rev. Bryant visited Eddyville on Tuesday.

Don't forget the lecture at the court house tonight.

Ed. Stoker was up from Newport on business Tuesday.

Arthur Rochester spent Monday night in this city, attending to legal papers.

Hurley Lutz made a short trip eastward Tuesday, returning the same evening.

Silas Maley, Newport's conservative capitalist, was sojourner in our city Tuesday.

T. Jay Buford went into the Valley yesterday morning for a short business trip.

E. M. Powers came down from Elk City Wednesday night to do business with our people.

Ben Jones made a flying trip by bicycle to Elk City yesterday on business and returned on the train in the evening.

Will Buoy has been a pretty sick boy this week, the indirect cause being lagrippe. His lungs have given him much pain.

P. A. Miller and wife came down from Chitwood Tuesday night to take part in public installation of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Mr. Grif King, a former acquaintance of Dr. Darnell while a resident of Kalama, visited the Doctor this week, departing Thursday.

Treasurer J. L. Hyde is improving nicely, much to the pleasure of his many friends. He has been a very sick man and is not out of the woods yet.

Mrs. Hinkle, nee Grace Montgomery, arrived last week just in time to attend the funeral of her mother. Her home is not far from Philomath.

Collector Crosno and his daughter Effie arrived from Salem last evening. Mr. Crosno went out Monday to see "the boys" and find what they were doing.

Lark Logan and wife and Roy Butterfield came from the Agency to attend the funeral of Mrs. Chas. Montgomery Friday. Mrs. Logan is a sister of Mrs. Montgomery.

Doc Dalaba of Elk City, who is working in the interest of the order of United Artisans, arrived Monday evening and remained in our city till yesterday before returning home.

H. S. Porter came down from Nortons Monday that his little boy's broken arm might be examined and cared for, but as it was doing as well as could be expected, he returned the following morning.

Sheriff Ross returned yesterday from a trip to Newport and southward. He reported a very disagreeable journey through rain and wind. Verrily, the way of Lincoln's sheriff is a rough road to travel and long.

Mrs. Irvin, wife of Ex-State School Superintendent Irvin, and daughter of Mrs. Rose Collison of this city, departed for home in Salem Saturday morning after having spent several days very pleasantly visiting her relatives.

John Stimpson, who has been visiting the friends and scenes of his childhood home in Old England for the past three months, returned to his Newport home last Friday evening, too late for the LEADER. Whether or not he enlisted assistance to promote the canning and fishing industry of the bay, we did not hear.

Wm. Watkins will have a sample of the Economy lamp, which burns gasoline, on exhibition in this place tomorrow. This lamp gives twice the light of a large Rochester lamp at a cost of less than one-eighth of a cent an hour. Don't fail to see this lamp.

J. H. Handy, who was reported lost in the mountains some four weeks ago, was found the 20. A bullet hole in the head tells of foul play, though by whom is a mystery as yet. His son-in-law, Joe Wilson was summoned to Falls City in connection with the case and departed forthwith.

Circuit Judge J. W. Hamilton arrived from Roseburg last evening. He will do preliminary work today and tomorrow and have everything in apple pie order for business Monday morning. The Judge is making an enviable reputation in this portion of his district for his prompt, business-like methods of holding court.

Ed Altree was quite seriously injured Wednesday on the school ground at play. He was running on a hillside and struck some object which turned his ankle, straining the ligaments and, it is said, badly injuring the inner bone of the ankle. The foot will lay him on the shelf for several weeks and perhaps months, besides being very painful.

Wednesday at 1 o'clock the examination of Professor C. A. Walker took place before Justice Krogstad. Seven witnesses were examined and resulted in his being bound to appear before the grand jury, the same as Mr. Kightlinger. The witnesses from the Agency were, J. F. Turner, T. Jay Buford, Fred Chambers, U. S. Grant, Chas Ruhl, Oscar Wood.

Installation.

Tuesday evening the newly elected officers of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were publicly installed in their official positions ready to look after the welfare of their respective lodges during 1899.

A large number of our citizens were present to witness the ceremonies and enjoy the banquet served later.

District deputy J. H. Van Orden of Elk City, installed the Odd Fellows, while Mrs. P. A. Miller of Chitwood, was mistress of ceremonies for the Rebekahs. The work of installation was finished under their skillful handling without loss of time.

The banquet which followed was a highly commended and thoroughly enjoyed feature of the entertainment, and it is safe to say was overlooked by none. The guests were served by four little girls dressed in the Rebekah colors (pink and green) who made a very pleasing appearance and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Everybody being replete with good things, the hall was turned over to the guests who took advantage of the generous proffer by starting games and thoroughly filling in and enjoying the time till after 12 o'clock. Every one departed soon after wishing both lodges all manner of success. Following is a list of officers installed: Rebekahs. N. G., Miss Lulu Burt; V. G., Mrs. O. O. Krogstad; secretary, Otto O. Krogstad; treasurer, Mrs. A. J. Rader; R. S. N. G. Renus Arnold; L. S. N. G., John Turnidge; R. S. V. G., Mrs. J. J. Turnidge; L. S. V. G., Lester Waugh; chaplain, Miss Burd Rains; O. G. Hurley Lutz; I. G., Miss Tena Helgeson. Odd Fellows. N. G., John Turnidge. V. G., Renus Arnold; secretary, O. O. Krogstad; treasurer, Lester Waugh; warden, Hurley Lutz; I. G., A. J. Rader.

Visiting brothers and sisters present were, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Miller, of Chitwood, and J. H. Van Orden and Dr. Carter of Elk City, and S. J. Brown, of Summit.

The Toledo Public School.

This is my first letter to the paper, as the correspondent was not elected until Monday, January 16th.

We wish to tell the people what a pleasant school we have, and to interest them in our work that they may come and visit us and see for themselves how we are prospering.

Many of our schoolmates have been compelled to miss a good deal of school on account of whooping cough and La Grippe, but we are glad to say that all are better and are returning to school once more.

The average attendance in Professor Holm's room this week is thirty-five, there being forty enrolled.

Professor Holm gave us permission to whisper about our lessons, but he began to think, (probably not without reason,) that we whispered too much about other things. Monday afternoon he talked the matter over with the school, and the majority of the pupils decided that we would prosper better if we did not whisper at all. We are going to try at least and see if we can prove it.

Those who were on the roll of honor the first month of the second term were as follows: Seventh and Eighth grade pupils, Professor Holm's teacher, Jesse Reeder, Albert Ewing, Loma Ewing, Mamie Wakefield.

Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grades, Miss Julia M. Taylor, teacher: Gracie Ross, Aileen Hawkins and Vera Starr.

First, Second and Third grades, Miss Collison, teacher: Selma Thompson and Tilda Thompson.

Parents and friends, our teacher has given us the privilege of organizing a literary society, that we may take more interest and it will also help us.

If some of the patrons of the school would take interest enough to come and visit us it might help and encourage our teacher.

A SCHOOL GIRL.

Woodmen of the World.

Mr. Geo. K. Rogers, chief deputy of the Woodmen of the World, arrived in Toledo last night and will lecture this evening in the court house. Mr. Rogers comes to us highly recommended as a fraternal speaker. The local camp has arranged an entertaining program, and altogether a most enjoyable evening is promised.

In an interview with a representative of the LEADER, speaking of fraternal orders and of Woodcraft, Mr. Rogers said:

"The wonderful progress of fraternal benefit orders is one of the noteworthy events of these closing years of the century. Their growth having been greater during the last ten years than in the fifty years previous.

It is estimated that today over six millions of American citizens hold fellowship in fraternal orders. These orders have become the recognized protectors of the home, and since the American home is the foundation of the American government, therefore to the extent that these orders are keeping intact the home to that extent do they become one of the pillars of our country itself. Our American fraternities have paid out to the needy, the sick, the widows and orphans, over $800,000,000, and are now paying over $50,000,000 per annum.

Our own order of Woodmen of the World has met with most remarkable success. Less than nine of age; 140,000 members; working in every state in the Union, in Canada and Mexico; over 4 million dollars paid widows and orphans; 1600 monuments placed on the graves of deceased "neighbors" and growing at the rate of 4,000 month."

The LEADER congratulate these "choppers" on their progress. We are always glad to give the kind word, for no movement outside of the church is doing so much toward the advancement and elevation of the race.

Notice.

Saturday, January 21st, will be the last day on which Miller & Pruett will allow a discount of 10 per cent on their selling price. This is a rare opportunity of which should prevail your self to secure goods at a strikingly low price. Come early and stay all day.
