OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Bert and Herbert Trombley of Alsea were in the city Monday, witnesses in the Meaker-Lewis cattle case.

Cy Copeland, who has been back to his old home in Ohio for several months, arrived home Friday evening. Cy has swung around the circle but came home to Yaquina bay just the same.

Postmaster Stanton and wife returned Friday evening after a fortnight's visit at Corvallis and Salem. They enjoyed a very pleasant visit among their many friends while absent. Lee Wade acted as deputy during their absence.

Mrs. George Buford and children arrived from Los Angeles Saturday night and will again take up their residence at the Agency. Her husband dislikes that portion of California and is again off for the mines Mr. Buford informs us.

The apples stored in the Grady building owned by Buoy & Landis, were loaded into freight cars Saturday. Monday Mr. Landis loaded about a car at Elk City and now the apple buying and shipping is completed and off their hands.

Severt Anderson, who owns a farm on Big Elk, who formerly worked on the government works at Newport; came from Astoria Friday to look after his home, the title of which was before the court. He has been absent about six years, but has changed not at all.

The Grady building is now occupied by a billiard and pool parlor conducted by C. W. Bogue. It has been well patronized during the past week although not yet stocked or improved as the proprietor intends to have it. This new business venture will doubtless be well patronized by our citizens who love these games to pass away a heavy hour.

C. S. Sullivan, superintendent of the Corvallis & Eastern, was a Saturday visitor in Toledo. He spoke very encouragingly of our city's past progress and hoped to see it continue. He wishes our people to bring such rock as he has placed on the depot grounds and cover Hill street from T. P. Fish's store to the court house and from the track on Third street to A. T. Peterson's residence. The cost will be but very little as the Company will load the cars and do the hauling at just the matter of cost to them. This will have to be done before our business streets can be anything but a mudhole in winter.

Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department, had less to say on the President's recent trip South than most of the other members of the party. He did take occasion, however, to advise some of the colored people whom he met to plant clover and raise sheep and cattle. "The trouble," he said, "is that you keep too many dogs and too few sheep. The cost of feeding one dog would raise too sheep or one hog." Another economic statement was that if all the salaries received by the politicians were compared with the value of the eggs laid every year, it would be found that there was more money in hens than in politics. —Youth's Companion.

Court Notes.

F. A. Godwin came down Monday to look in upon court.

Jack Porter returned from Portland Saturday and attended court several days this week.

The genial J. R. Wyatt of Albany came over Saturday to be present during court session.

Attorney Ed Bryant of Philomath, transacted business in this place during the session of circuit court.

Mr. Yokem of Portland, a stock man, attended court Monday, a witness in the Meaker-Lewis cattle case.

The Trombly brothers, Sam Hill and wife, J. Blaser and others were present from the Ona neighborhood Monday.

One moral to be learned from the late shooting affair is this: Never carry anything but a Smith & Wesson gun.

Messrs. Bollen, Fred Chambers and Oscar Woods came over from Siletz afoot late Monday evening to attend court.

An attorney should have his case well in hand before coming into court—he will find no time to inform himself there.

No time is lost in court where Judge Hamilton presides. He practices true economy. The taxpayers will note this fact.

Attending court from Corvallis comes Attorneys W. S. McFadden, A. L. McFadden, W. E. Yates, E. E. Wilson and J. H. Gibson.

Robt. Chambers, a Little Elk reader, was in town several days during the week doing business at the court house and elsewhere.

No grass has grown or other velvety green growth has sprouted neath Sheriff Ross' feet this week, or on his head either for that matter.

Treasurer Hyde has been conspicuous for his absence this session, but Wm. Alexander and Chas. Croso have occupied their usual positions.

Those in attendance upon this court doubtless noted that Judge Hamilton cared to hear nothing but facts; and they had to be right to the point.

Uncles Hutch and Jack did their utmost to uphold the dignity of the court. Neither cracked a smile throughout the session during "office hours."

J. K. Weatherford attended court the latter part of the week, spent Sunday at Newport and Monday returned home to attend office duties.

B. F. Swope, who formerly resided in this city but hails now from Oregon City, arrived late last week to attend to business before this session of court.

Attorney W. S. Hufford of Portland, well known to all our readers arrived Saturday night to be present during circuit court. Looks as natural as an old shoe.

Lincoln county from Summit to the sea and from Salmon to Yahats, was well represented at the court house Monday. It was also noted that the LEADER readers were on all sides.

Some localities always take premiums for their fine fowls, pure bred cattle, big pumpkins and unexcelled cabbage heads, but our Alsea country never fails to produce a crop of the best jurors in Lincoln county and should take the bum.
