

LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER.
—W. L. DAVIS, EDITOR.—

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1899.

LOCAL IN BRIEF

Spend your nickels at the Racket. Frank Hyde is down from Little Elk today, visiting his parents. Few stores care for the nickel trade, but the Racket is here for no other purpose.

Messrs. Marsh Simpson and W. Whetsler were visitors from Elk City Wednesday.

Miss Mollie Walsh, who has been visiting in Albany, returned home Tuesday evening.

Judge J. F. Stewart and Sam'l Center came home from a trip to the Valley Saturday.

Dr. Parrish of Monmouth, passed through this place Monday to visit patients at Newport.

Commissioner Wakefield arrived Tuesday morning to attend county and probate court sessions.

Jay Dunn has been in Corvallis for the past week, he has been purchasing a team for his farm.

Attorney Charlie Hawkins is nursing his coasting leg and his office looks dejected and sad.

Yesterday afternoon Uncle Hyde was in his office; the first time since December 26th, we believe.

J. W. Hobbs, of McMinnville, collector of internal revenue, was inspecting the county records yesterday.

Church services were slimly attended Sunday. Too much sunshine and excitement over the snow.

Monday night's coasting finished the fun for this year we hope. We don't like coasting weather any more.

J. B. Zeigler of Kernville, was in the city Wednesday looking after his beach road from Newport to Kernville.

Tom Horning moved his stock to the Mackey ranch today and in a day or two will move his household effects.

Beginning Tuesday morning it rained heavily for 36 hours, melting every vestige of snow and swelling the streams very suddenly.

An entertainment will be given by the school children Monday afternoon in honor of Lincoln's birthday. Let all school patrons be present.

Lucien Stont, late of Oregon City, has moved on the Whitney place, where he will reside in future. He has a beautiful home, of course needing the work of man to complete it.

Renus Arnold has opened a Racket store in the old drug store building, where he has a small stock of goods, which he will enlarge shortly. For racket goods this is the place to buy.

City Council convened Monday evening in regular session. New members took their seats and proceeded with business. A few bills were allowed and H. R. Sturdevant elected to fill the unexpired term of C. L. Gowell.

Go to the Racket for your racket merchandise.

Several letters and a telegram or two have been received by our sheriff, Jas. H. Ross, telling the condition of his father, who has been ill for some time, and last week Jim departed from this place to visit him. Mr. Ross Sr. resides at Campbell, about five miles from San Jose, California. Jim will visit his father, and see, for the first time in sixteen years, the scenes of his boyhood. Were it not that his father's condition is serious, Jim would enjoy his trip with the gusto of a boy just freed from school. In his absence Ex-Sheriff Landis reigns at the court house.

The Long Creek Eagle published a long obituary of a man who had died in the community, closing with the statement that "a long procession of people followed the remains to the last roasting place." The family discovered the supposed error and asked the editor to make the correction of the word "roasting," but he could not do it till the seven years back subscription which deceased owed had been paid.—Advocate.

A tall girl over in Burnes named Short, long loved a certain Mr. Little, while Little, little thinking of Short, loved a little lassie named Long. To make a long story Short, Little proposed to Long, and Short longed to be even with Little's shortcomings. So Short, meeting Long, threatened to marry Little before long, which caused Little in short to marry Long. Did Short love Little less because Little loved Long?—Advocate.

The firm of Stewart & Center are looking daily for the arrival of the creamery machinery from Portland. It will be placed in the old Copeland store building and arranged for operation as soon as possible. Their separator capacity for this year is 3200 pounds of milk per day and if the separator is found to be inadequate, it is intended to purchase a larger one and place the present one at some convenient point where it is thought best to establish a separator station, probably at Elk City. This is the second opportunity of this kind offered our farmers—one which they should certainly appreciate and do their utmost to maintain.

In Clothing, we have the biggest drive of the season. A good solid woolen suit for $5.00, better grades $6, $7.50 and $10.

Send THE LEADER to a friend.

J. Mitchell of lower Siletz, was in town Wednesday looking after road interests before the county court. He reports that only a very few will have access to the Newport-Kernville road, because the majority of the settlers live on the north side of the river and even if they have a ferry, it can be used only at high water. He is very sorry that the road along the ridge to Toledo is not being pushed with more vim. But little road now remains to be made to complete the one down the river to tidewater.

From Chitwood and Eddyville Tuesday came Messrs. Z. M. Derrick, D. S. Brotherson, Fred Wagner and I. J. Pepin. Road matters in their localities was the cause of their visit. Mr. Wagner and Mr. Pepin made the LEADER a pleasant call.

A Call.

There will be a meeting held at Eddyville on the 11th of March next at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing and organizing a Goat Breeders Association. Let every body who is interested in the progress of Lincoln county be present.

T. P. FISH.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad, druggist.
