OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Lot C. Powell of Ona, was a Friday visitor in this city.

Fruit trees and crops in the entire northwest were damaged by the severe cold weather not long since.

Now come to town and pay your taxes. It is the fashion and one might as well be dead as out of fashion.

Messrs. Jack McCullom and S. A. Logan brought the creamery engine to Toledo Friday and returned the following day with the scow.

Renus Arnold has moved his stock of Racket goods and his household effects into the Copeland building and now does all his business under one roof.

W. S. Ingalls of Newport called on THE LEADER while its presses were at work Friday. He came up on business horseback, and reports the roads as anything but good.

The old-fashioned minuet in costume with a cake walk on the side is the coming social event for Newport. It is to be given immediately after the expiration of Lent.

George McClusky and his sister came home from college at Philomath Friday night and will not return this school year it is reported. George has been at home several weeks, being too ill to keep up school work.

Messrs. Dr. Turner, Dru Severy and Sam'l Center came over from the Siletz Sunday. Doc was intending to leave for the East Monday morning but circumstances compelled him to forego the trip for the present. Siletz people do not like to see Doc leave even for a visit.

Lester Waugh and family will move shortly to the Briggs ranch at Yaquina Head, or more commonly, Cape Foulweather, where they will make their home for a term of years. Joe Briggs will move his family into Newport. Thus the changes are rung from time to time, not rapidly but very certain.

The tax roll for 1898 taxes was turned over to the sheriff Saturday for collection. Over a hundred letters have been received with taxes and inquiries enclosed previously and will now receive proper attention. Sheriff Ross' duties will now be considerably increased and the county exchequer rapidly become plethoric.

Ira Wade returned from his legislative work at Salem Saturday. The time spent in that city has been worth much to Ira in the way of learning and besides, he there secured treatment much needed for his hearing. Hence he is much pleased that circumstances called him there. He will now turn his attention again to the old home farm.

The Marion county election fraud cases are on trial at Salem this week. Reports say the court room is crowded constantly and no case ever tried in Salem caused so great excitement. The way of the transgressor is hard, but as the directions are plain, he must take it and growl not. If there has been fraud the guilty parties of whatever political complexion should be punished.

I. J. Pepin, or "Bill" as our people know him, was a Monday visitor in Toledo.

Engineer J. G. Holcomb was a passenger outward Monday but returned the same evening.

Deputy Sheriff Andrew Porter of Polk county, made this city a visit the first of the week, departing for home Tuesday.

Daniel Weltin of Eddyville, was a Saturday caller at this office, and a trader in our city. May his shadow never grow less.

Uncle Allen Parker, one of the old-timers of this section, and Mike Mackey were Sabbath visitors in this city. We didn't see them at church, but might have missed them in the throng.

Ed Schmeer, our city landlord, visited Yaquina Monday night, going there to accompany his little daughter Myrtle home. She has been visiting at the home of T. W. Gorman for over a week.

A few days since Attorney Harry Denlinger quietly slipped away to Independence and the first news we hear of him is that he is all swelled up with happiness over a ten-pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely.

"The boys" started out Monday evening to serenade Stony Wells, but no Stony was to be found. They played their tunes amid the squalls of wind and showers of rain at several places in town, but had to give it up without having found their man.

Do not let your child acquire the habit of grumbling. Stop the first beginnings and it will never become a habit. If there is just cause of complaint, try to remedy it; if there is no possibility of improvement, teach that silent endurance is the best way to meet the inevitable. It is never wise to stay in a place and grumble. If the things you dislike cannot be altered, change your environment. If on reflection you decide that, balancing one thing with another you would rather bear the ills you know than fly to others that you know not of, bear them in silence. Ladies' Home Journal.

King Solomon a Warm Number.

An Illinois boy was asked to write an essay on Masonry, and here is what he wrote: "King Solomon was a man who lived so many years in the country that he was the whole push. He was an awful wise man and one day two women came to him, each holding to the leg of a baby and nearly pulling it in two and each claiming it. And King Solomon wasn't feeling right good and he said: 'Why couldn't the brat have been twins and stopped this bother?' And then he called for his machete and was going to Weyerize the poor, innocent baby, and give each woman a piece of it. Then the real mother of the baby said: 'Stop, Solomon; stay thy hand. If I can't have a whole baby I won't have any.' Then Solomon told her to take the baby and wash its face, for he knew it was hers. He told the other woman to chase herself. He built Solomon's temple and was the father of Masons. He had several hundred wives and three hundred lady friends, and that's why there are so many Masons in the world. My pa says King Solomon was a warm number and I think so my self."
