OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Frank Tillotson returned from Kings Valley Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. W. L. Davis this week.

The Ladies' Aid meets with Mrs. R. Dedrick next Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stony Wells are occupying the Lester Waugh residence.

Mr. Sharp of Nortons, spent Friday night in our city and thoroughly enjoyed the program at the social.

Doc Wakefield, the ever joyous, returned to his Little Elk home Saturday. He thoroughly enjoyed the basket social Friday evening.

Mrs. Stonewall Wells returned from her visit to her home near Tangent Friday evening. Strange though it may seem, Stony seemed pleased.

Elmer Seeley, superintendent of the Albany and Springfield creameries, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city, returning Tuesday morning.

Charles Lillard of Big Elk, has sold his farm and will take his family to Washington, where he has an offer of $47 per month lumbering.

Monroe Butler and Miss Emma Brooks took the train for Newport Saturday night, doubtless to visit at the home of Harry Fant on South Beach.

From over work and excitement Mrs. Rite Dedrick suffered a slight attack of nervous prostration at the social Friday night, but is fully recovered now.

THE LEADER received a pleasant call from Uncle Allen Parker Friday. He is not looking as hale and hearty as usual, being ill a part of the winter.

Uncle Joe Brouse departed for Independence Saturday to look after business interests there. He is a worker and this community will regret losing him should his stay be permanent.

The Darnell-Schmeer law suit was tried by jury in Justice Krogstad's court Friday. It was highly interesting to the audience and decided in favor of Dr. Darnell. Attorney Hawkins appeared for the plaintiff and H. Denlinger for the defendant.

The engineer and fireman on Saturday's train reported seeing a dead man on the Olalla bridge as they came in in the evening. Foreman Gannon repaired to the scene, but no man could be found. He had disappeared. It was doubtless some one caught on the bridge and badly frightened.

Wes Maple, who will make the butter in our creamery, arrived Friday night to lend his assistance in placing and setting up the machinery. The engine has been placed in the main building for greater convenience. Mr. Maple has a good reputation as a butter maker and will turn out an article equal to any on the market.

Dr. Fred Vincent, called here by the illness of his mother, returned Saturday morning, leaving her much improved. In speaking to a friend he said he could not understand how THE LEADER was made such a bright, newsy paper in this field, but there are more items of interest here than the appearance of our little city would indicate to a stranger. And then the price of liberty and the price to the editor of a paper is one and the same thing—eternal vigilance.

Basket Social.

Although a heavy rainstorm was in progress Friday night a large number of people attended the Basket Social given by the Ladies' Aid. The church was over full, fully one-third of those present standing through the entire program.

Miss Bessie Collison and her troupe of little ones from the public school, together with Masters Shed and Leon Rosebrooks, furnished the entire program, which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. Such singing and acting cannot be found in another primary school in Oregon. THE LEADER would say more but does not wish to flatter into vanity a disposition so devoid of that failing.

There was all kinds of eatables and baskets to be had and those in attendance knew just what to do with them, and they did it. The proceeds were $27.50, everybody enjoyed themselves and the church debt is lessened by this hard work of the ladies. May they continue to succeed.

Church Notes.

A junior league has been organized by Mrs. Bryan as president. First vice, devotional department, Vera Starr; second vice, mercy and help, Flora Stanton; third vice, literary, Roy Bryant; fourth vice, social, Faith Stewart; secretary, Emma Flitcroft; treasurer, Gertie Crosno; organist, Maud Horning. With such earnest little workers they are sure to succeed. Parents are earnestly requested to send their children. Services will be held every Sunday at 2 p. m. A junior league social will be given at the parsonage Thursday evening, March 23d. All juniors invited.

Services at the church Sunday evening. A good attendance desired.

Services at Eddyville Tuesday, 2 p. m.

Our Sunday school is a delight, interest is increasing. New supplies have been ordered. Supt. Kubler is always found at his post of duty.

Choir practice immediately after prayer meeting next Wednesday evening.

Regular meeting of L. A. S. at Mrs. Rite Dedrick's Tuesday, 2 p. m.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

Watch for the Easter program.

PASTOR.

Secretary Alger will soon resign to make room for another whose capabilities are greater in the line of his duties. A great many republicans have censured President McKinley for not causing a change long ago, but it will be noticed that he makes changes with due deliberation, which is not a fault but a praiseworthy rule of action. Alger is an able man, but his forte is not along the lines necessary to this office, hence his failure. THE LEADER hopes his successor may satisfy the wishes of the people.

Bring your invalid incisors and molars to Dr. Tatom. He will be here the 20th and remain a week.
