OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Weather, O, well! Gardening, O, w-w-w-ell! Crop prospects, OH, WELL!

Capt. Bensell of Newport spent Tuesday hobnobbing with friends in this city.

Mr. Frank Payne and Miss Jessie Buoy departed Tuesday morning for Philomath.

Mrs. C. L. Gowell is working in this office at the case and will get along nicely if the work does not affect her lungs.

Auditor Brown checked up accounts for Agents Bolles and Buoy Friday night and Will is now in his old place and Bert is doubtless in Albany.

Sven Brederson has quit the LEADER office to go into the hills to peel chittim. Medical advice directs him to leave the office in search of health.

The music of the saw mill is very conspicuous for its absence this week. The mill shut down Friday, but turned out some elegant lumber during the run.

Hurley Lutz returned from the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Salem, Friday evening, and reports the weather as frightfully cold during his stay in the capital city.

Local contractors will bid on the court house contract and it is to be hoped will secure the award; then the court house and the money for building it will both be left in this county. The commissioners may well bear this point in mind.

Miss Jessie Buoy, who taught the Elk City school last year, and Mr. Frank Payne of Philomath, came into our city Saturday night to spend a day or two as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buoy. The two men spent the following day angling for the gay and festive trout and never caught one—under six and a fourth inches.

W. C. Bogue departed for Portland Monday morning, where he intends to procure work on the Snake river branch of the O. R. & N. R'y in Idaho. He desired to lerve this locality for a change of climate, thinking different water and atmosphere might better his physical condition. His family remains here, at least for the present.

Ed. Enos, well known to everybody in this vicinity, who went to Waitsburg, Washington, about a year ago, has drifted down into Arizona and found what seems to be a valuable quartz gold mine. Samples from the ledge can be seen at the store of Dr. Darnell. It is worth your time to look at them—you will feel brighter for having rested your eyes, even though but for a moment, on gold, bright and yellow. Ed. is not far from Prescott; only eight or ten miles.

The Portland Dispatch published a very creditable write-up of Lincoln county in its issue of the 18. It gave to our county seven columns of space. It is well for our readers to remember that much good will be done by this write-up for the issue was 10,000 copies, of which many are sent east by the O. R. & N. R'y Co. This is a class of advertising that does much good if properly distributed. B. F. Jones furnished the copy for the article.

COMMITTEE.

A little chittim is being brought to market already this season.

The Luella, built at Siuslaw by Mr. Kyle, is expected to arrive at Yaquina from 'Frisco today to procure register papers from Collector Crosno.

Ye Editor visited Newport Monday night. Only a few people had be time to smile upon, but that loss was a mutual one, h—m! Four or five new cottages are in course of construction at Nye Creek and P. M. Abbey is building quite a house on the wharf by the side of his residence. It will contain a large kitchen, a commodious dining room and a few sleeping rooms, and will be completed before the opening of the season. Lee Williams is also making extensive repairs in the Briggs house and will be nicely prepared to cater to summer visitors. Concerning the disappearance of the schooner Edith from near Heceta Head, opinions differed, but the majority seemed to think she was simply blown far out to sea and would return in a few days. One and all seemed to think Capt. Mullet was trying to shift the responsibility of a fruitless hunt from his own to the shoulders of his crew to "square himself" with those over him. If true, it is a despicable act, emanating from a cowardly heart.
