OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Teachers' Institute.

The program of Friday evening brought to a close the most successful teachers' institute ever held in our county. The attendance was good and the subjects given the teachers for discussion were well treated.

The lecture of Prof. P. L. Campbell, of Monmouth College, on the subject, "Horace Mann, Educator and Statesman," was very instructive and well received.

Prof. H. Sheak, of Philomath college, addressed the teachers of the county on the subject of "Penmanship," and held the attention of his audience very closely. This address will do our teachers and schools much good.

State Superintendent Ackerman came from Portland Friday and addressed the teachers in the evening. His was a practical talk on the subject of education and was addressed to what he termed two classes of teachers; the home teachers and the school teachers. He talked earnestly for more well chosen books in the schools. He also made an excellent point concerning the sending away of high school graduates to the cities to finish a course which should be finished at home under the watchcare of loving parents, who would then know where their boys and girls spent their evenings. He believes a child from 13 to 15 years of age has no business going to school in Portland, where they learn more evil at night than good by day.

Good orchestra and vocal music was in attendance and the institute was a success in every sense of the word. The following teachers were present: A. B. Owen, Norton; Miss Ivy Hooker, Axtell; Miss Winnie Davis, Newport; Miss Meda Hobart Toledo; Miss M. L. Hampton, Chitwood; Miss Grace Boles, Yaquina City; Mrs. E. J. Norton, Yaquina City; Miss Jessie Mays, Newport; Miss J. J. McCullough, Newport; Miss Nellie Thomas, Harlan; Miss N. Ingle, Blodgett; Mrs. Nellie Tunison, Summit; Miss Olive Logan, Newport; Miss Mamie McClusky, Eddyville; Miss Fay Norton, Miss Ona Coffin, Miss Edna Harlan, Harlan; H. E. Derrick, Eddyville; Rev. J. Dawson, Prof. H. Sheak, Philomath; Miss Mamie Wakefield, Little Elk.

It Was This Way.

Monday a lady came in to our office and wanted an exchange, and while looking for it ye editor found a letter from Lower Siletz which he had never seen. That reminded us that Mr. Zeigler had brought in an item and wished it added to the Siletz items, which the editor had never seen and he wondered. It's all plain now and we beg pardon for the non-appearance of the news. From the letter we take the following: The people of Johnson (a new postoffice near the mouth of Siletz,) expect to have a 4th of July celebration at the mouth of the Siletz and cordially invite Toledo friends to be present. If those desiring to attend will notify Mr. G. S. Parmele he will have boats for their conveyance in waiting at the Lower Farm.

Thos. Reixinger started for Southern Oregon this week to set up his gold machine, which he says he has now perfected.

C. E. Hawkins caught 56 nice trout near Chitwood Saturday.

L. C. Norton, of Norton's was in our city Monday transacting business.

E. S. Flitcroft and son Otis returned from a trip to Oregon City Monday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Vincent and her granddaughter Lola, visited friends at Storrs Saturday, going and coming on the train.

Jas. Hayes arrived in our city from Corvallis Tuesday evening. He is about to foreclose a mortgage on the Briggs farm at Cape Foulweather.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland departed for Portland Saturday morning to replenish her Siletz stock of merchandise before the Fourth. She will be absent about a week.

Jo. Gideon, who has been surveying in California all winter and who was captain of the Edith of sea lion capturing fame, passed through this place enroute for home by rail Saturday.

Father Bucher came over from Siletz Monday evening and departed Tuesday morning for Portland to assist in the reception of the archbishop of this diocese. He will be absent a week.

John Bier, a Corvallis plasterer who has the hospital job at Siletz, arrived Monday evening enroute to that place. He has been secured also to repair the plaster work in our school building.

Mrs. Dunsford; wife of the plumber who has the hospital contract, arrived in town Tuesday evening and went to Siletz the following day where she will remain until her husband finishes work there.

Messrs. Stewart, Wakefield and Godwin, county commissioners, tramped the road between Eddyville and Morrison Saturday for the purpose of investigating certain of the county bridges with a view to making the repairs necessary.

Sheriff J. H. Ross visited Corvallis between trains Saturday. The barbers there must be very rough, for one of them shaved him, and it is a fact that when he arrived home not one of his warmest friends recognized him. A more complete change in the appearance of a man is seldom seen.

People who go up the beach road and cross Siletz at the mouth should stop at Albert Sijota's place to be set across and not steal settlers boats and leave them on the opposite side. Such conduct is illegal here as elsewhere and productive of much trouble. A settler lost a days time walking about in the rain last Tuesday from this cause.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co Pa. This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad, Druggist.
