EDITORIAL AND COMMENT.

"A man is good deal like a pie—a smart woman can make a good one out of any old thing."

"A phrenologist says large bumps on a man's head often indicate a muscular wife."

Newport will celebrate. Let everybody prepare to be there and assist them as they assisted us last year in making the day a success.
Turn about is ever fair play and it is our turn to give them a boost.

Some good man ought to start a wood yard in Toledo. Every once in a while families eat their food raw because no wood can be obtained, while millions of cords are rotting on the hillsides in sight of town.

"It is becoming harder and harder every year to get acquainted in Oregon. Under the new state law, barbers are required to pass an examination and take out a license before they can scrape an acquaintance."

The Alaskan boundary question is going just about as the sealing question went a few years ago, all on the side of old England. England asked for modus vivendi and it was granted. Well enough. She now has asked that the temporary boundary be along the Dalton trail, taking in several miles of what is claimed to be our territory, and it has been granted. All wrong. Next she will move to have the temporary line made permanent and that—will just raise Ned if it is granted.
What's the matter with our men?
The home stretch is a good place to win upon, but they should gain a few points before it is reached if possible, and not give all vantage ground away at the start of the race.

Last week we failed to note the birth of a fine baby at the home of Charlie Carlson. The note that was handed us was mislaid some-of pardon.

Did it ever occur to you that our Gen. Lawton was, on land, about neck an' neck with Admiral Dewey on sea? They are a brainy, judicious pair of officers and this U. S.
people may well be proud of them.

bert and others and one by one the members have gone till the dream is a thing of the past.

A Card of Thanks

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs.
