Judge Stewart walked up from Newport last Tuesday and brought a cow that he purchased from Rev. Booth.

Charley Hyde came down from the farm last Saturday to visit his parents, returning the following day.

The work of painting the school house is progressing rapidly. It will very much improve the looks of the building.

Judge Hamilton and family passed down to Newport Wednesday evening. The Judge came up to open court in this place this morning.

Rev. and Mrs Tonkins will hold services in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. All are invited to attend.

The excursion train from Portland to the bay last Saturday night carried seventy passengers, most all of whom were from Portland.

Dr. Tatom, the dentist, arrived in this place last evening to remain a week. We all know that he does good work as he has been here before.

Harry Denlinger, of Independence, came in on Thursday evening's train to be in attendance at the coming session of the circuit court.

T. A. Roots, of Roots postoffice, is stopping in this place and will make proof on his homestead soon, then he will move to Clackmas for the summer.

Attorneys W. S. Hufford, of Portland, Harry Denlinger, of Independence and W. E. Yates of Corvallis, arrived last evening to attend circuit court.

H. Denlinger, Sr. was in town yesterday, fresh from the chittim patch. He has 4,800 pounds of good clean bark which means a nice little sum of money.

Conroy, Son & Co. have received a contract for fifty tons of chittim bark. They are paying $2.50 to $2.75 per hundred and furnishes 1st class sacks free to patrons.

Mrs. Chas. Pearse and son, of San Francisco, visited with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Vincent, of this place, this week. They will return home tomorrow morning.

Ade Crosno came up from the beach mine at Otter Rock yesterday afternoon. He has been suffering with several nice sized boils and came up to give them a rest for a few days.

Hurley Lutz and Renus Arnold wheeled to Big creek last Sunday. Why Renus went nobody knows.

Mr. Rancourt, who lives three and a half miles down the river, while prospecting for coal struck what promises to be a good vein of petroleum. Dr. Darnell has secured a sample of the crude oil and intends sending it to the Oregon Agricultural College and having it analysed.

W. L. Davis left for Eddyville yesterday morning to assist his nephew, Chas. Mason, build a house on his goat ranch. The farmers in this county could well afford to pay Wes at least $10 a day to come back to town and remain, as he is intending to peel chittim, which means, of course, that the price of that commodity will come down at least $20. per ton. Bark is a good price now and we want it to remain so. So send him home.

Joe Turnidge, our Toledo-Siletz mail carrier, had a small run-away last Wednesday. Going down Sugar Hill a singletree broke, letting the tongue down, and frightening the horses. After they ran a little while Joe thought it was getting too warm for him so he just stepped out and let them go. They ran but a short distance when one of the horses got down and stopped them. The damage done was a slightly bruised horse, a broken singletree and tongue and a smashed wheel.

Found Dead.

Last Friday evening A. D. Shipley, a bachelor living near Harlan, was found dead about one hundred yards south of his dwelling. Rev. A. C. Tunison and L. A. January found the body laying face downward buried in the grass, limbs thrown up, with arms under the body in a cramped position, but showed no signs of struggling or that death was caused by foul play. A leather strap holding his dog was in his right hand and was gripped so tight that the dog was unable to get loose.

Mr. Shipley sent by L. W. Mulvaney for some groceries on Thursday morning, and seemed to be cheerful and in good health. About 3 o'clock p. m. the same day Rev. Pettit and wife and Mr. Stevenson passed by Mr. Shipley's house and he was sitting on the porch with his dog by his side. This was the last time he was seen alive. On Friday morning B. F. Grant went to Mr. Shipley's to haul hay and found both doors of the house open, the table set and things in their usual order, showing that he had eaten supper the previous evening. Not seeing Mr. Shipley about the premises, Mr. Grant called for him but getting no response he concluded that he had gone to some of the neighbors'. Mr. Grant then hauled hay until noon and Mr. Shipley not appearing, he became uneasy about him. Sending for some neighbors they searched the place and the body was found as above stated. The examination was made by Dr. F. M. Carter, acting as coronor.
