THE LEADER.

—R. E. COLLINS, EDITOR—
FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1899.

Communicated.

Editor LEADER:—
It seems to me high time every American citizen was awakening to the danger that threatens our country in this tidal wave of "anti-imperialism" that is sweeping across the United States. Aguinaldo's friends in America are a great deal more dangerous than Aguinaldo himself. Aguinaldo will never succeed in hauling down our flag in the Philippines, but his friends in America may succeed in getting possession of the reins of government, and then dishonor our flag and disgrace our nation in the eyes of the world, by hauling down the Stars and Stripes in the Islands and virtually surrendering to the insurgents.

Anti-imperialism would clog the wheels of progress, stop the westward march of American civilization and prevent our nation from fulfilling its glorious destiny. There is as great a need today for patriotism and loyalty to our flag as there ever was during the rebellion of the South. Treason today, boldly and unblushingly stalks through the land and denounces our government. And why is the government denounced? Because it upholds the honor of its flag in the Philippines, and is conducting a war that was forced upon it? Because it dares to take the next step which destiny has marked out for our nation, and is going forward in the scale of progress instead of backward? There is no doubt but what the Philippine question will be an important issue in the coming presidential campaign. The republican party will nominate a staunch advocate of the war and expansion policy of the present administration, while the opposite party will probably nominate a man for president who is an "anti-imperialist" to the very core. W. J. Bryan the democrat and populist leader, is now a bosom friend of Aguinaldo and will no doubt have a great influence toward shaping the policy of his party in the interest of so-called anti-imperialism. I was at one time an admirer of Mr. Bryan and voted for him at the last presidential election, but since he has taken his "anti-imperialistic" position I can no more conscientiously march under his political banner than I could fight under the rebel flag of Aguinaldo. While I am still a populist in everything except free silver and "imperialism," yet I must confess that there is but one course open to me and that is to vote with the only loyal party today—the republican party. I also hope that I will have an opportunity to vote for that hero—the State of New York's noble governor, Theodore Roosevelt—for president. I believe in political reform, and I will ever be found in the ranks of those that are working for reform. I believe in that which is generally considered a populist principle—direct legislation through the initiative and referendum. I can not, however, see how it can be called a populist principle any more than a republican principle. Some of the leading advocates of it are republicans, and the only state (South Dakota) where it has ever been made into a law. The bill was passed by a republican legislature. And here in our own State the republican members of a republican legislature voted almost unanimously for a bill providing for it. I have reached this conclusion, that if reformers would work for reform in and through the republican party, they would accomplish more than they could by wasting time, money and votes dilly dallying with a third party.

Church Notes.

Services at the home of C. C. McBride at Eddyville, Tuesday, were well attended.

Little Benny Ben was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery at Siletz, Sunday.

A full house, as usual, greeted us in Siletz Sunday. Mrs. Fred Stanton officiated at the organ. Miss Holmes is a good teacher and conducted the school exercises well.

Mrs. Tomkins gave an excellent service here Sunday morning. Her theme, "Ye are my witnesses," was treated in a very able manner. Rev. Tomkins preached for us in the evening a logical and most impressive discourse. Many were the expressions of commendation heard on every side. God go with these two workers and in their field of work give them loyal hearts to aid and encourage.

Services next Sunday morning and evening at usual hours, at M. E. church.

PASTOR.

Carried Down Stream.
When a man crosses some difficult place in his working career, spurring all his energies to accomplish some critical passage in his business journey, suddenly finds his health giving way and feels himself swept out of the swift-running current of disease—then is the time when the marvelous rejuvenating properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will prove an unerring means of rescue and restoration.

It is a very simple though eminently scientific medicine. It is not a mere stimulant like so many malt extracts. It restores healthy power by reviving the innermost sources of vitality in the nutritive system. It enables the digestive and blood-making organism to manufacture good blood abundantly and readily, so that the immense waste of tissue and nerve fiber entailed by hard labor is offset by a speedy upbuilding of fresh energy and strength.

A prominent and venerable Illinois physician, D. W. Vowles, M. D., of Fowler, Adams Co., writing to Dr. Pierce, says: "I send herewith thirty-one (31) cents in stamps for 'The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser' in cloth binding. With this I enclose for so valuable a work (truly a gift to the public), I must express my high appreciation of the vast amount of good that you have rendered the public. A correct measure of your usefulness never has been and never will be estimated by the public; for even by the multitude of afflicted humanity that has been relieved and cured by your medicines. Wherever I go or have been in the United States, I find persons who have used and are using Dr. Pierce's medicines with such recognition for which they are recommended. Never has one spoken disparagingly of their good effects, I am also enthused with confidence in their action in cases and conditions for which they are recommended. It is not common for regular physicians to endorse and recommend proprietary medicines, but in this case I have no equivocation or hesitancy in so doing."

The quick constipation-cure—Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Never gripe.
