OF INTEREST TO EVERYBODY.

Chas. Parsons, who lives about five miles southeast of town, hunted Chinese pheasants yesterday and Deputy Game Warden A. J. Miller was in the vicinity. He brought Mr. Parsons and pheasant to Albany, says the Herald. Mr. Parsons presented Justice Freerksen with $15 and paid other incidental expenses. The pheasant was dead and was duly provided for.

Verenesneckcockhoff. That is the name of a man who was recently on trial for his life in a San Francisco court of justice. The case is reported in the Pacific Reporter, copies of which have been received in Corvallis, says the Times. He had committed murder. It is perhaps useless to add that he was found guilty. But whether the judgement was rendered from the evidence, or because the court and all the lawyers became exasperated with attempts to pronounce his name and hung him on general principles for having such a cognomen is conjectured.

Writing from Manila, under date of August 9, Mr. F. W. Vaille sends a friend of this city a letter which shows that Oregon's wet summer was almost arid in comparison with the same time in the Philippine islands. He says: "I have been moistened by the clouds of Wallowa and been sprinkled in Tillamook and Clatsop, but never before knew what it meant to be rained on. During July there fell in Manila 46.866 inches of rain; 36.98 inches fell in five days. Think of it! As much, nearly, in five days as Portland has in some years. And you think you know what it is to have rain."—Oregonian.

An editor from Kansas is responsible for the following: "A Kansas duck which had faithfully stuck to business during the summer and laid several dozen large fawn-colored eggs, complained that she was not appreciated. 'See that hen over there,' said the duck, 'she hasn't laid as many eggs as I have nor as big, but she has books written about her and verses composed in her honor while nobody is saying a word about me.' 'The trouble with you is,' said the wise rooster that was standing near, 'that you don't tell the public what you have done. You lay an egg and waddle on without saying a word, but that sister of mine never lays one without letting everybody in the neighborhood know it. If you want to cut any ice in this community, you must advertise.'"

One of the boys of M. F. Loy, while fishing on Sunday in Hood river near the mouth of Neal creek, caught a fine large trout and landed it in a yellow jackets' nest on the bank of the river. When the boy went to pick up his fish he was stung by the infuriated bees till his head was swollen, like McGinty's, to "twice its ordinary size." To rid himself of the bees he threw himself into the river, where he dived under the water. The bees lit onto the fish and stung it to death. Companions of Loy managed by using long poles, to push the fish into the river and it floated down to where the boys fished it out again. Yellow jackets are mighty apt to sting boys who go fishing on Sunday. Hood River Glacier.

Real Estate Cheap.

I have for sale the following property: 1—91 acres; 2—160 acres; 3—7½ acres; 4—40 acres; 5—160 acres; 6—280 acres. Also a number of lots and houses in Fredricksburg and Olsson's addition to Newport.

JOHN A. OLSSON,
8-11 Newport, Ore.

Elk City Doings.

Chester Dixon has moved his house from Morrison to this place and rebuilt it.

The Bevins Stone Co. loaded the first blocks of stone for shipment the fore part of the week.

Roy Henry has moved his family from Portland here and will reside at Elk for a time at least.

Salmon trout have made their appearance and fishermen are having better luck than usual.

The potato crop in this vicinity has been struck with the blight. In some places the damage is very heavy.

A. B. Clark has the lumber on the ground to rebuild the house he purchased this summer of Wm. Whetsler.

The good luck at trout fishing is calling in quite a number of visitors from Valley towns for a day's sport with the finny tribe.

H. Terwilleger, of Portland, is here for an out. He will make a trip to the coast this week to try a gold saving machine of his own model.

Quite a delegation from Toledo was up the first of the week fishing. We suppose the silver luck of Bro. Hawkin's large catch was the cause of the visit. Come again boys, and we will show you where Hawkins caught them.

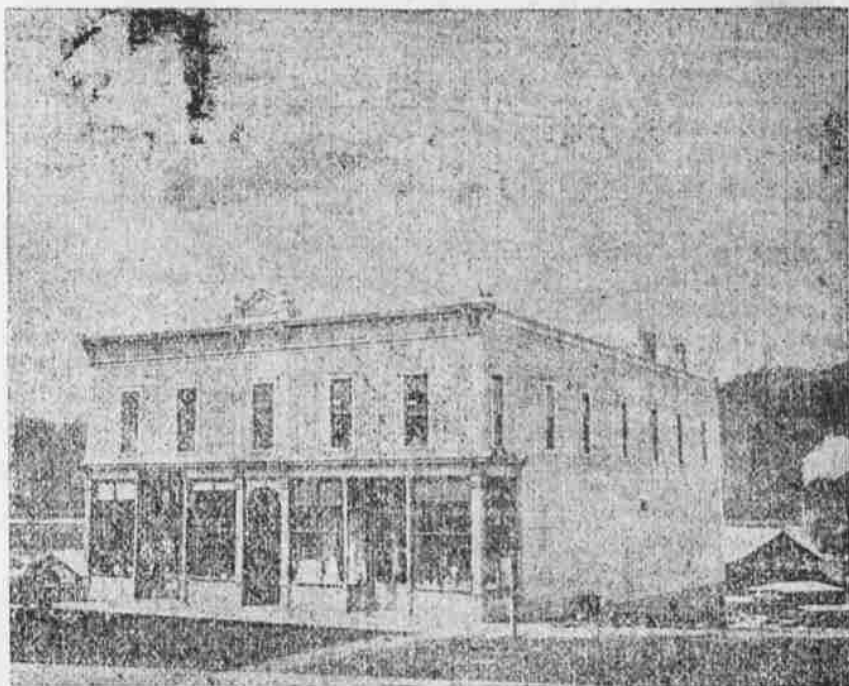

J. E. Dixon is tearing down the old building on his place and will rebuild in the form of a cottage. This removes another of the old landmarks of pioneer days. At the time of stage travel between Corvallis and Newport James did a lively hotel business in this building. K. C.

The Overland Monthly undertakes to show that the farmers have the best working trusts in America. The California fruitgrowers have combined for mutual protection, and have a membership of over 2000. They control 90 per cent of the crop. The grapegrowers of New York and Ohio have done the same thing, and the dairymen of Eastern New York maintain a powerful milk trust. Circumstances alter cases with Brother Bryan, and these seem to be the altering circumstances. It was not so very long ago that he was saying all trusts should be run out of business, since they were created to monopolize and oppress. Now, of course, he is of the opinion that they are proper, if they pay a tax. It makes all the difference whose trust does the squeezing, and if the farmers' organization does it, well and good.—Oregonian.

Admiral Dewey remarks again that victory in the Philippines will not be long deferred. The idea that the job could be left unfinished never occurred to Dewey.—Salem Statesman.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world.—For sale by O. O. KROGSTAD Druggist.

NOT THE CHEAPEST STOCK

On Earth, but this is the place where you get full weight, full measure and honest treatment.

We do not pretend to sell the cheapest stuff on earth. We do not keep it.

A carload of the well-known Stayton Flour and Feed just received. This flour and feed is not the cheapest on earth, but customers who trade with us appreciate and thoroughly understand the difference in the quality of goods.

Remember this fact.—As we have been in the clothing business twenty-five years, we have the experience necessary to turn out a suit that will ~~fit~~, whether you take it out of stock or if you want a tailor made suit.
